GENE CHIZIK

HEAD COACH (4TH SEASON)

Auburn head coach Gene Chizik, in his fourth year has led the program to more wins (30) than any coach in the school's rich football history in their first three seasons, including the program's first national championship in over 50 years, when his Tigers won the 2010 BCS National Championship.

In 2011, Chizik led a youthful team comprised of 65 percent scholarship underclassmen to an 8-5 mark and a victory over Virginia in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Auburn had the nation's second most difficult schedule, as it faced six teams that were ranked in the Top 10 at one point during the season.

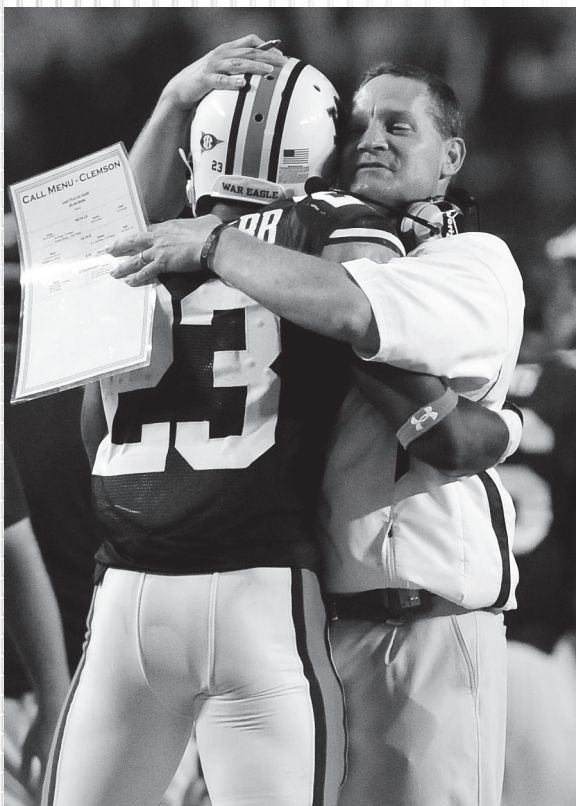

Chizik's second season at Auburn was one for the ages as the program won the BCS National Championship over Oregon, 22-19, and the SEC Championship, while he earned Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year honors, as well as AP SEC Coach of the Year accolades. The 2010 Auburn squad went a perfect 14-0, recording the program's first title since 1957, and its first conference crown since 2004.

Auburn achieved success in 2010 despite a rugged schedule that included 10 games against bowl-eligible teams. In fact, Auburn was the only team in the country that won seven games against teams ranked in the final Associated Press Top 25 poll.

Chizik has placed his stamp firmly on the Auburn program, including a "never say quit" attitude that saw Auburn rally from four double-digit deficits to win in 2010, including the largest comeback in school history when the Tigers turned a 24-0 deficit at Alabama into a 28-27 victory.

Chizik has also excelled in close games, as the Tigers won seven games in 2010 by single digits, including five games that were decided by just three points or less, which is the most in one season in school history. Auburn has won 11 games in his three seasons in which the Tigers trailed or were tied in the fourth quarter.

Auburn players have achieved national awards under his guidance, as Cam Newton won the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and the Davey O'Brien Award in 2010, while Nick Fairley won the Lombardi Award.

Auburn's success in 2010 started a year earlier, after Chizik inherited a team that had finished 5-7 in 2008 and he quickly began rebuilding the program. During his first season as Auburn's head coach, Chizik led the Tigers to an 8-5 record and a victory over Northwestern in the 2010 Outback Bowl on New Year's Day. He became the first head coach in school history to lead his team to a bowl game in his first season, just the third coach in Auburn history to win his first five games as head coach and only the third SEC coach since the conference expanded in 1992 to win his first five games.

Chizik's first Auburn squad set numerous team and individual records, including team records for most points and total yards in a season - records that Auburn broke again in 2010. The Tigers had a knack for playing well in big games, winning four games against teams that played in bowl games during the 2009 season.

Auburn has not only enjoyed success on the field under Chizik's tenure, but it has excelled in building for the future as the Tigers had the No. 1 nationally ranked recruiting class in 2011 according to Scout.com, the No. 8 ranked class by Scout.com in 2012, and the No. 4 ranked class in 2010 both Rivals.com and ESPN/Scouts Inc.

In July 2011, Chizik released his first book, "All In: What It Takes to Be the Best", which chronicles his coaching career, the pivotal role his faith has played in his life and career, and his secrets to success, both on and off the field. Published by Tyndale House Publishers, David Thomas, a senior writer and columnist for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, collaborated on the book with Chizik. All of Chizik's proceeds from the book have gone to The Chizik Family You Turn Foundation, Inc., which assists children and youth in the Auburn community.

The program's defensive coordinator from 2002-04, Chizik was named Auburn's 26th head coach on December 13, 2008, after serving the two previous seasons as head coach at Iowa State. A 23-year coaching veteran, Chizik helped Auburn and Texas to consecutive undefeated seasons in 2004 and 2005. His three-year stint as Auburn's defensive coordinator culminated in 2004, when he helped guide the Tigers to a 13-0 season while earning the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach.

Chizik also served as the assistant head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Texas from 2005-06 where he helped the Longhorns to a perfect season and national championship in 2005.

During his tenure at Auburn, Chizik's 2004 defense led the nation in scoring defense (11.3 ppg) and was fifth nationally in total defense, allowing just 277.6 yards per contest. In three years at Auburn, Chizik helped the Tigers to a 30-9 mark including an 18-6 Southeastern Conference record. In 2003, Auburn's defense was fifth nationally in total defense.

In his two seasons in Austin, the Longhorns were 22-3. At one point, he was a part of 29 consecutive victories, which began in 2003 at Auburn and ended in 2006 at Texas.

Chizik's reputation as an outstanding teacher is evident by the fact that he tutored a remarkable three consecutive Thorpe Award winners, starting with Auburn's Carlos Rogers in 2004, followed by Texas' Michael Huff and Aaron Ross in 2005 and 2006, respectively.

During his two seasons at Iowa State, the 46-year old Chizik was in the midst of a rebuilding process, directing the Cyclones to a 5-19 mark. The Iowa State administration rewarded Chizik's leadership and vision for the program by offering him a two-year contract extension following the 2008 season.

Chizik's first win came against intrastate rival Iowa in 2007, making him the first Cyclone coach since 1907 to beat the Hawkeyes in his inaugural season. The 2007 season also included conference wins over Kansas State and bowl-bound Colorado.

Auburn's undefeated season of 2004 saw one of the best defensive teams ever to wear a Tigers uniform. Not only did they lead the nation in scoring defense, but they surrendered just four rushing touchdowns all season, including allowing none over the first eight games of the season. That vaunted 2004 defense featured eight of 11 starters that went on to play in the NFL, including 2005 first-round draft pick cornerback Carlos Rogers and defensive lineman Jay Ratliff, who earned All-Pro honors with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

The 2003 AU defense under Chizik was just as talent laden as the undefeated squad, as eight of 11 starters went on to play in the NFL as well. Led by first-team All-SEC picks Karlos Dansby, DeMarco McNeil and Dontarious Thomas, Auburn was fifth nationally in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and ninth in the country in scoring defense.

By allowing less than 300 yards of total offense in consecutive seasons in 2003 (281.6 ypg) and 2004 (277.6 ypg), it marked the first time at Auburn since a six-year run from 1985-90, that an Auburn defense had accomplished the feat in back-to-back campaigns.

In his first season at Auburn, Chizik took a club that was 39th nationally in total defense the season before he arrived and improved it to 26th in the country while holding three Top 10 teams - LSU, Alabama and Penn State - to less than 10 points each en route to victory.

During his 39 games at Auburn as defensive coordinator, the Tigers were able to defeat nine Top 10 programs, win three bowl games, and hold 24 of 39 opponents to two touchdowns or less, including 14 that managed single digits against his aggressive, physical defenses.

He also tutored three All-Americans in Dansby, Rogers and Junior Rosegreen and had nine players earn 10 first-team All-SEC honors. Chizik had 10 players over three seasons that went on to be NFL draft picks. Chizik's defense played an integral part in Texas' 2005 national championship season as the Longhorns ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, 10th in total defense and fourth in pass efficiency defense. UT allowed opponents to reach 300 yards of total offense only five times in 2005 and held the remaining eight opponents to less than 267 yards. Ten UT defenders were All-Big 12 Conference selections, including four who made the first team.

In 2006, Chizik's Longhorn defenders were second nationally against the rush (58.8 ypg.) after 12 games, including limiting No. 1 Ohio State to just 79 yards on the ground. His aggressive schemes resulted in 100 tackles for loss, 96 quarterback hurries and 30 takeaways during the 2006 regular season.

Chizik coached six Longhorns to All-American honors in his two seasons, including Aaron Harris, Michael Huff and Rod Wright in 2005, and Tim Crowder, Michael Griffin and Aaron Ross in 2006. His defensive players earned 18 All-Big 12 awards during his tenure.

Prior to his arrival at Auburn, Chizik was the defensive coordinator for four seasons (1998-01) at Central Florida, where he improved a unit that was 81st nationally in total defense before his arrival to one that was 16th in the country in 2001.

Chizik spent six seasons at Stephen F. Austin from 1992-97, overseeing the linebackers (1992-94) and secondary (1995-97). While at Stephen F. Austin, Chizik helped the Lumberjacks to back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, including a national semifinal appearance in 1995.

He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator (1986-88) at Seminole High School in St. Petersburg, Fla., before becoming a graduate assistant at Clemson for a pair of 10-win teams in 1988-89. Chizik's first full-time college coaching position came at Middle Tennessee State, where he helped lead the Blue Raiders to NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in both of his seasons (1990-91) and to a conference championship in 1990.

Chizik earned his B.A. degree in education from Florida in 1985 and his M.A. in guidance and counseling from Clemson in 1991.

JAY BOULWARE

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS (4TH SEASON)

As special teams coordinator, Boulware directed the Auburn efforts that led the SEC in kickoff return yards (1264/24.3 avg), kick return touchdowns (2), kickoff coverage (546 yards) and fewest punts returned (10) for the 2011 campaign. He also tutored All-America punter Steven Clark, a 2011 Ray Guy Award finalist.

In 2010, Boulware coached Tigers' kicker Wes Byrum to consecutive record-breaking seasons which culminated with a 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Auburn a 22-19 victory over Oregon in the 2011 BCS National Championship Game. Under Boulware's tutelage, Byrum set an Auburn single-season record for points by a kicker (99) in 2009 and followed that by breaking that record in 2010 with 123 points.

Additionally, Byrum set a single-season Auburn record for field goal percentage (93.8), connecting on 15-of-16 field goals, and set a school record for conversions and attempts, going 54-of-54 on PATs in his first season under Boulware.

Auburn's kickoff return defense was the third-best and 16th nationally, allowing just 19.7 yards per return in 2010. The Tigers' punt return defense led the SEC and was ninth in the nation last season, allowing just 4.6 yards per return.

The Tigers kickoff return unit was fourth in the SEC and 25th nationally with a 23.5 yard per return average and led the SEC with 1482 return yards.

Boulware also guided Demond Washington to an Auburn single-season record for kickoff return average, as Washington's average of 31.1 yards per return led the SEC and ranked sixth nationally. Washington also set an Auburn single-game record with 202 kickoff return yards on five returns vs. Georgia.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Boulware served as running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Iowa State for two seasons from 2007-08. He also coached at Texas, Northern Illinois, Arizona, Stanford and Utah, and has coached all-conference players at three different positions in three different conferences.

In 2008 under Boulware, Iowa State ranked 12th nationally in kickoff returns, behind Rivals.com second-team freshman All-American kick returner Leonard Johnson. Johnson set an NCAA

A native of Irving, Texas, Boulware was a two-year letterman at offensive line while playing for the University of Texas. He began his coaching career at Texas, first as a student coach (1994-95) and then as a graduate assistant (1996), where he helped the Longhorns to bowl games all three seasons.

Under his direction, several Boulware-coached players have earned national honors and played in the National Football League. At Northern Illinois, he recruited future All-American and current Atlanta running back Michael Turner.

During Boulware's tenure at NIU, the Husky offense ranked 12th nationally in rushing and two-time All-MAC offensive lineman Ryan Diem moved on to the NFL. While at Arizona, Boulware coached All-Pac 10 tailback Mike Bell, who went on to the New Orleans Saints.

JEFF GRIMES

OFFENSIVE LINE (4TH SEASON)

Jeff Grimes is in his fourth year as offensive line coach for the Tigers and has instructed a unit that paved the way for some of the most explosive offenses in the nation the past few seasons. During Auburn's 2010 national championship season, Grimes' coached an offensive line that set school records for total yards of offense (6,989) and points (577) for a second consecutive season. The Tigers led the Southeastern Conference and were fifth nationally in rushing yards per game (284.8) and led the SEC in scoring (41.2 ppg).

The 2010 Tigers set school records for rushing touchdowns (41), passing touchdowns (31), rushing yardage (3,987) and had three offensive linemen earn individual honors. Tackle Lee Ziemba, a consensus All-America selection who earned the Jacobs Trophy as the SEC's best blocker, was taken by the Carolina Panthers in the NFL Draft. Guard Byron Isom was named second team All-SEC and center Ryan Pugh earned third team All-America honors.

Grimes helped establish the unit that set numerous school records, including points in a season (433), most total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and most plays in a season (914). Auburn's 266 first downs in 2009 was the second-best total in school history, and its average of 431.8 yards per game ranked fourth. The Tigers also had the seventh-most rushing yards (2,756) in a single season in Auburn history.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Grimes served as the assistant head coach, running game coordinator and offensive line coach at Colorado for two seasons from 2007-08. Two of his CU linemen from his first season, Tyler Polumbus and Edwin Harrison, were on NFL rosters.

An 18-year coaching veteran, Grimes went to Colorado from Brigham Young, where he coached the offensive line for three seasons from 2004-06. His 2006 BYU linemen were a large part of the Cougars' Mountain West Conference championship team, which finished 11-2.

Grimes's success continued at Arizona State as four of his 2001 seniors were drafted into the NFL, just the second time that had been done at any school since the NFL adopted the seven-round draft format in 1993.

In one season at Boise State in 2000, Grimes' offensive line helped the Broncos lead the nation in scoring offense and accumulate 175 rushing yards per game.

Grimes began his coaching career in 1993 as a high school coach at Riverside High School in El Paso. After two years there, he moved on to the college ranks, first working as a graduate assistant at Rice (1995) and then at Texas A&M (1996-97).

Grimes earned four letters as an offensive tackle for UTEP between 1987 and 1990, including three years under former BSU and ASU head coach Dirk Koetter when he was UTEP's offensive coordinator and two years under current Philadelphia Eagles head coach Andy Reid.

He was in training camp with both the Los Angeles Raiders of the NFL and the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League before entering coaching.

He and his wife Sheri have four children: Bailey, Garrison, Greydon and Jada.

Henne set school marks in career passing yards (9,715), touchdowns (87), completions (828) and attempts (1,387). Loeffler also helped develop John Navarre into Michigan's first All-Big Ten first-team quarterback since 1997. The quarterbacks he coached at Michigan have gone on to play in 302 regular-season NFL games, including 275 starts and four Super Bowl rings as pros.

MIKE PELTON

DEFENSIVE LINE (2ND SEASON)

Former Auburn All-SEC player Mike Pelton is in his second season as the Tigers' defensive line coach and his fourth season on the staff of head coach Gene Chizik. Pelton came to Auburn after spending the 2010 season as the defensive ends coach at Vanderbilt. In January, 2011, Pelton was named defensive line coach at Louisiana-Lafayette but accepted an offer to return to his alma mater on March 2 of that year.

A native of Goshen, Ala., Pelton spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons at Iowa State working under Chizik. Pelton's defensive lines were an area of strong improvement in his two seasons with the Cyclones. Pelton mentored a pair of second-team All-Big 12 selections at Iowa State in nose guard Ahtyba Rubin and defensive end Kurtis Taylor. Rubin just finished his second year as a starter for the Cleveland Browns after being selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft.

Prior to working under Chizik at Iowa State, Pelton spent six years under Larry Blakeney on the staff at Troy, including the final two years at co-defensive coordinator. The Troy defense was consistently among the nation's leaders in several categories. In 2002, the Trojans ranked fourth nationally, allowing just 277 total yards per game. In 2004, the Trojans ranked 16th in total defense.

Pelton worked with two of the most prolific defensive linemen in Troy history, in Demarcus Ware and Osi Umenyiora. A six-year veteran, Ware is a five-time Pro Bowler and three-time All-Pro linebacker with Dallas. Umenyiora is a two-time Pro Bowl defensive end for the New York Giants.

Prior to going to Troy, Pelton coached the defensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University in 2000. The Blazers posted a 10-2 record and made the NCAA Division II playoffs.

As a player at Auburn, Pelton was a standout defensive tackle, earning first team All-SEC recognition in 1994. A four-year letterman from 1991-94, Pelton was a co-captain as a senior and helped the Tigers win a school-record 20 consecutive games from 1993-94. Auburn posted an 11-0 record in 1993, finishing fourth in the Associated Press poll. The Tigers went 9-1-1 the following season in 1994, finishing ninth in the AP top 25.

As a senior in 1994, Pelton recorded 10.0 sacks which tied for fourth-most in a single-season in Auburn history. Pelton finished his career with 294 tackles, 18 tackles for loss and 15 sacks.

Pelton was a fifth-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1995 NFL Draft. He graduated from Auburn in 1995 with a degree in Health & Sports Science.

Pelton and his wife, Staci, are the parents of three daughters: Myesa, Tyra and Peyton.

TROOPER TAYLOR

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/WIDE RECEIVERS (4TH SEASON)

Trooper Taylor is in his fourth season as assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Auburn.

In 2010, Taylor's receiver corps produced in all phases, making impact catches and providing hard-nosed blocking for the Tigers' conference-best rushing attack. Taylor was also instrumental in helping Auburn bring in one of the most highly regarded recruiting classes in the nation for 2011. The Tigers recruiting class was ranked fourth-best nationally by ESPN.com.

Auburn receivers connected on 45 plays of 20 yards or more, including five plays of 60 yards or more, as the Tigers set a school record for points (577) and led the Southeastern Conference averaging 41.2 points per game.

The Tigers had three receivers total 500 yards or more last season and as a unit averaged 16.9 yards per catch, hauling in 2,461 of Auburn's total 3,002 total passing yards. Sophomore receiver Emory Blake and QB Cam Newton combined to register the longest pass play in Auburn history, a 94-yard scoring strike against ULM.

During his first season, he helped the Auburn offense emerge as one of the nation's finest, while also solidifying his reputation as a top-notch recruiter.

The Auburn offense set numerous school records during his first season, including points in a season (433), most total yards of offense in a season (5,613) and most plays in a season (914).

Taylor coached Darvin Adams, who broke the Auburn single-season record for receptions with 60 for 997 yards and ranked second in the SEC with 10 touchdown catches. Adams, who entered the season with just three career catches for 18 yards, was named the MVP of the Outback Bowl after hauling in career highs of 12 receptions for 142 yards.

In addition to his coaching duties on the field, Taylor was instrumental in Auburn signing a consensus top-five recruiting class in 2010. For his efforts, he was named by Rivals.com to its list of the top 25 recruiters in the nation and one of the top 10 recruiters in the SEC for the signing class of 2010. It marked the third time he has been named to the top 25 list by Rivals.com, having previously earned the recognition in 2005 and 2007.

In 2008 in his only season at Oklahoma State, Taylor helped the OSU offense produce two first-team All-Americans in wide receiver Dez Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter. A Biletnikoff Award finalist and a first-team All-Big 12 selection and academic all-conference member, Bryant led the Big 12 in receiving and was third nationally.

In 2006 at Tennessee, Taylor coached Robert Meachem, a first-round NFL draft pick, to All-America honors.

He also directed the Vols running backs from 2004-05, coaching Cedric Houston and Gerald Riggs Jr., who became UT's first pair of 1,000-yard rushers in the same season, in 2004.

Taylor played defensive back at Baylor from 1988-91 and finished his playing career as the school's leader in kickoff returns (53) and return yardage (1,063).

Taylor came to Knoxville after coaching receivers at Tulane from 1999-2003. He sent four wideouts into the NFL during his tenure in New Orleans: Adrian Burnette, Kerwin Cook, Terrell Harris and Roydell Williams, who went on to set the school and Conference USA career record for touchdown catches with 35.

A native of Cuero, Texas, he and his wife Evi have two children, Blaise and Starr.

TOMMY THIGPEN

LINEBACKERS (4TH SEASON)

Tommy Thigpen is in his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Auburn defense; after three seasons working with the Tiger safeties, he is coaching the linebackers for the 2012 campaign. Despite losing a senior starter (Airon Savage) midway through the 2010 season, Thigpen developed a unit that was instrumental in Auburn posting the Southeastern Conference's best, and ninth-best nationally, rushing defense.

The Tigers allowed just 109.1 yards rushing per game in 2010, with safety Zac Etheridge registering 69 tackles, second-most on the team. Etheridge earned All-SEC honorable mention honors. As a group, Thigpen's safeties combined for 186 tackles, 2.5 tackles-for-loss and three interceptions. In Auburn's two biggest games that year, Thigpen directed a unit that helped hold South Carolina to just 17 points in the SEC Championship Game and Oregon to 19 points in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tigers defense held the high-powered Ducks 28 points under their season average and produced a pair of interceptions.

During his first season at Auburn, the Tigers ranked 17th in the nation in opponent third down conversion percentage (32.8) and forced 24 turnovers. His safeties helped the Auburn defense rank 31st nationally in pass defense efficiency and pick off 17 passes - tied for third most in the SEC.

Thigpen instructed Daren Bates in 2009, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman team after starting all 13 games and ranking fourth on the team with 70 tackles as a true freshman.

Thigpen has also earned a reputation as an exceptional recruiter, and was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters in 2007 by Rivals.com.

Prior to coming to Auburn, Thigpen coached the linebackers at North Carolina for four seasons from 2005-08. A former All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina himself, Thigpen tutored UNC's leading tacklers in each of his four seasons at Chapel Hill.

Thigpen coached for two years at Illinois, serving as the cornerbacks coach in 2003 and the linebackers coach in 2004.

He began his coaching career as a UNC graduate assistant in 1998-99. He then coached linebackers at Tennessee State in 2000. In 2001-02, he coached cornerbacks and was the special team's coordinator at Bowling Green State.

At Bowling Green State, Thigpen helped coach one of the Mid-American Conference's top defenses, leading the MAC in turnover margin in 2002.

BGSU also finished second in the MAC in pass efficiency defense, while Thigpen's special teams also were impressive, blocking seven punts and one field goal.

A four-year letterwinner at North Carolina from 1989-92, Thigpen was a three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference linebacker, earning first-team honors in 1991. He was co-captain of the 1992 team that went 9-3 were Peach Bowl champions. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Carolina.

Thigpen played professionally for the New York Giants in 1993-94 and the Barcelona Dragons in 1995-96.

Thigpen is married to the former Jacinda Webb and the couple have two daughters, Asia and Naja. In May 2008, Thigpen was selected by the Atlantic Coast Conference to attend the Minority Coaches Forum in Phoenix.

BRIAN VANGORDER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR (1ST SEASON)

Brian VanGorder, who served as the defensive coordinator for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons the past four seasons, is in his first year at Auburn.

Familiar to the Southeastern Conference, VanGorder was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Georgia from 2001-04, where he was named the 2003 Broyles Award winner as the nation's top assistant coach. During his tenure in Athens, Georgia won one SEC title, two SEC East Division championships, captured three Bowl games and ended up with three straight top 10 finishes in the final national polls.

During VanGorder's stint with the Falcons, the organization achieved unprecedented heights, posting four consecutive winning seasons, a franchise first, including playoff appearances in 2008, 2010 and 2011. His defenses consistently showed marked improvements along the way.

Helping the Falcons to a 10-6 regular season record in 2011, VanGorder's defense finished the regular season second in the NFL in red zone defense, sixth in rushing defense (97.0 ypg), and 12th in total defense (333.6 ypg).

In 2010, the Falcons defense finished 10th in the NFL in rushing defense allowing 105.9 yards per game, which ranked fifth in the NFC. The run defense was not the only part of the defense that showed improvement in 2010. VanGorder's defense ranked in the top five in the NFL in scoring defense (18.0, 5th), turnover differential (+14, 3rd) and interceptions (22, 4th), marking highs for VanGorder's defense during his tenure.

With the leadership of VanGorder, cornerback Brent Grimes earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2010 after posting a single-season franchise-high 23 passes defended, and tying for the team lead in interceptions (five), while adding 82 tackles. His 23 pass breakups ranked second in the NFL in 2010.

John Abraham earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection in 2010 as he led all defensive ends in sacks (13.0), and added 43 tackles, four passes defended, two forced fumbles and one interception. He also garnered his third selection to the All-Pro team under the guidance of VanGorder.

In 2009, Atlanta's rush defense finished tied for 10th best in the NFL (sixth in the NFC), allowing an average of only 106.8 yards per game. The ranking was 15 spots better than the previous 2008 campaign.

Under VanGorder's leadership, the Falcons' 2009 rush defense only allowed one 100-yard rusher all season and posted a streak of 10 consecutive quarters without a touchdown allowed from the second quarter of Week 15 to the fourth quarter of Week 17.

In 2008, VanGorder started the retooling process of transforming the Falcons' defense into a unit that plays with intensity, passion, aggression and toughness. His troops responded by making steady improvements along the way and proved downright stingy when it came to surrendering points. The Falcons, under VanGorder's guidance, finished 11th in the NFL in points allowed at just an average of 20.3 per contest.

With VanGorder's direction, linebacker Curtis Lofton played a pivotal role in developing the defense. He earned a starting spot in the middle of the defense as a rookie, garnering NFL All-Rookie accolades by Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly, and finished second in the entire league among all rookies (according to Stats, Inc.) with 108 stops.

Prior to his arrival with the Falcons, VanGorder was the head coach at Georgia Southern in 2006. VanGorder spent the 2005 season coaching the linebackers for the Jacksonville Jaguars under Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. Jacksonville ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense that season with VanGorder's help.

At Georgia, the Bulldogs posted a 42-10 record over his four seasons. In his last season at Georgia in 2004, the 10-2 Bulldogs and seventh ranked team in the nation produced a defense that ranked eighth overall and ninth in scoring defense. VanGorder's 2003 defensive unit finished third nationally in scoring defense, fourth in total defense, and sixth in passing defense.

In 2002, UGA's stout defense allowed only 31 points during the final seven games, propelling the Bulldogs to a Sugar Bowl win over Florida State (26-13) and a number three ranking overall in the polls. His strong defense also led the SEC in scoring defense and finished fourth nationally.

VanGorder also had coaching stints at Western Illinois (2000), Central Michigan (1998-99), the University of Central Florida (1995-1997), Wayne State (1992-1994) and Grand Valley State (1989-91).

VanGorder, 52, was born in Jackson, Michigan, and is a graduate of Wayne State University, where he lettered two seasons at linebacker. He and his wife, Pollie, have five children: Molloy, Morgan, Mack, Montgomery and Malone.

The Waycross, Ga., native is a two-time Auburn graduate in horticulture, receiving a bachelor's degree in 1969 and a master's in 1971. In 1973, he earned a doctorate in horticulture from Michigan State University.

Shortly after returning to his alma mater, Gogue engaged the talent and insight of the Auburn family toward development of a dynamic and forward-looking strategic plan to guide the University for the future. Gogue worked for the National Park Service from 1973 to 1986, rising to the position of chief administrative scientist for several regions of the U.S. Park system. He began his distinguished career in higher education administration in 1986 as associate director of the Office of University Research at Clemson University, where he also served as vice president for research and vice president/vice provost for agriculture and natural resources. Utah State University selected Gogue as provost in 1995.

JAY

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Auburn Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs has a vision of leading Auburn Athletics to becoming the nation's preeminent Athletics Department. In his tenure at the helm of the Tigers' program, the department has prospered athletically, academically and financially.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn Athletics has made major strides benefiting Auburn student-athletes, coaches and fans. The department has focused on five strategic goals under his leadership: Winning, graduating student-athletes, managing the department's fiscal affairs, complying with SEC and NCAA rules and providing a positive gameday experience.

The Auburn Athletics Department has consistently ranked in the top 10 percent of the NACDA Directors Cup and has claimed 10 national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06. In 2010, the football program claimed the BCS National Championship, its first national title since 1957. The Auburn equestrian team also won its second national title in 2011. Under Jacobs' watch, Auburn's athletics programs have captured 22 Southeastern Conference titles.

Academically, Auburn has earned seven public recognitions by the NCAA for scoring in the 90th-100th percentile nationally in the Academic Progress Rate (APR).

Jacobs served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited prior to his appointment as Director of Athletics and has initiated several successful business ventures for the Athletics Department, including a lucrative contract with Under Armour Performance Apparel and a nine-year extension with multimedia rights holder IMG.

During Jacobs' tenure, Auburn has also moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit Tiger athletics programs and their fans, most notably, the construction of the state-of-the-art Auburn Arena and basketball practice facility that opened for the 2010-11 season. The most recent facilities upgrade was a $16 million multipurpose 100-yard indoor practice facility.

Jacobs was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics on Dec. 22, 2004, after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletics Department for the previous 20 years.

Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degrees in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively, and was a member of the Auburn football team, earning two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983. He is a member of the Auburn chapter of Phi Kappa Phi honorary.

He is married to the former Angie Sapp of Dublin, Ga. The couple has three daughters, Haley, Meagan and Jayne. They are also foster parents.

THE AUBURN EAGLES

For more than 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn University's football program. From a static presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn University's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USF&WS permits the Raptor Center to house eagles and use them on hundreds of educational presentations each year – including Auburn's home football games. Currently, three flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are used for these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people as they have come to symbolize strength, power and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage and the preservation of our environment. Golden Eagles Tiger (War Eagle VI), Nova (War Eagle VII) and Spirit (a Bald Eagle) are the eagles who have inspired football fans with their graceful flights over Jordan-Hare Stadium.

“War Eagle”

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

Auburn Alma Mater

On the rolling plains of Dixie
 'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
 Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
 Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
 From hearts that love so true,
 And pledge to thee our
 Loyalty the ages through.

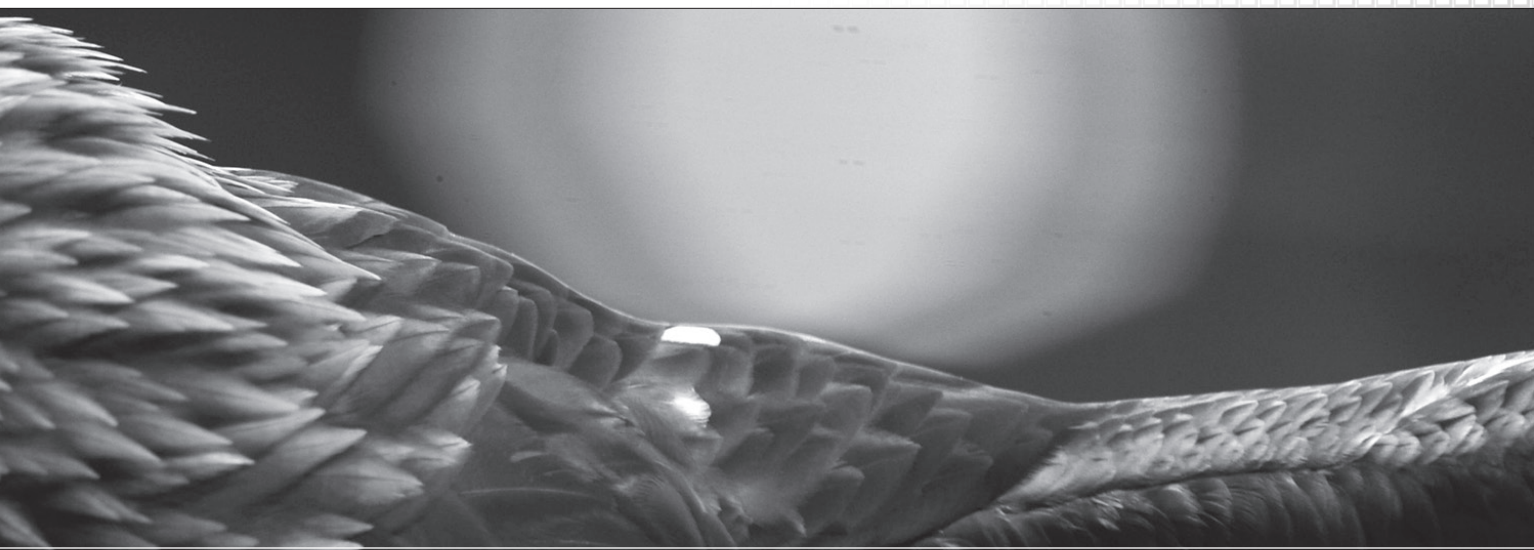

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
 To work for thy just fame,
 And hold in memory as we do now
 Thy cherished name.

AUBURN CREED

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn.
 Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.
 I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.
 I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.
 I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports to develop these qualities.
 I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.
 I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.
 I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."
 And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

- George Petrie (1945)

Hear thy student voices swelling,
 Echoes strong and clear,
 Adding laurels to thy fame
 Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
 And bid thee sad adieu;
 Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
 The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
 To work for thy just fame,
 And hold in memory as we do now
 Thy cherished name.

TIGER WALK: AN AUBURN TRADITION

Tiger Walk is an Auburn tradition which began in the early 1960s when Auburn players would walk from Sewell Hall to the football stadium and fans would line Donahue Drive to wish them well. Over the years Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Iron Bowl when more than 20,000 well wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and, over the last couple of years the Tiger Walk has become a standard as Auburn football players enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk is two hours before kickoff for every game.

ROLLING TOOMER'S CORNER

The center of town where the Auburn University campus meets the City of Auburn, Toomer's Corner, where College Street intersects Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After any football win, and significant victories in other sports, Auburn students and citizens alike join forces to "roll" the trees (and anything else that doesn't move) at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue. Celebrations after significant football victories can go on for hours and leave the heart of town looking like a blizzard passed through.

The corner is named after Sheldon Toomer, a halfback on Auburn's first football team. He opened a drugstore on one corner of the intersection and opened a bank on another.

On the university side of the intersection are two massive southern live oak trees planted more than a century ago. Whenever something good happens in Auburn, this intersection immediately becomes a gathering place for members of the Auburn Family.

No one knows the real origins of this tradition, but it has become one of the most recognizable and is unique to Auburn.

Auburn's showcase football stadium which seats 87,451 with 70 luxury suites located between the lower level and upper deck on the East side. The stadium was dedicated Nov. 30, 1939, with 7,500 seats. Ten years later 14,000 more seats were added and the stadium was named Cliff Hare Stadium (named after a member of Auburn's first football team and eventual professor and dean of the School of Chemistry), although only 12 home games were played there over that 10-year span. Additional seats were added in 1955, 1960 and 1970. The West upper deck was completed in 1980; the East upper deck and suites were finished for the 1987 season. The facility was renamed Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973, recognizing Hall of Fame coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan.

How many universities can claim to have John Heisman, the namesake of the Heisman Trophy, as coach and also have a Heisman winner? 1:Auburn. And, Auburn does not just have one Heisman winner; the Tigers tout three.

PAT

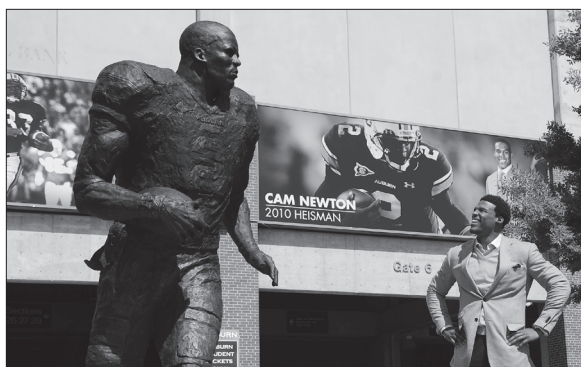

Auburn quarterback Pat Sullivan picked up the Tigers' first Heisman Trophy in 1971 after throwing for 20 touchdowns and racking up 2,096 yards of total offense. He led Auburn to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl appearance in his senior season.

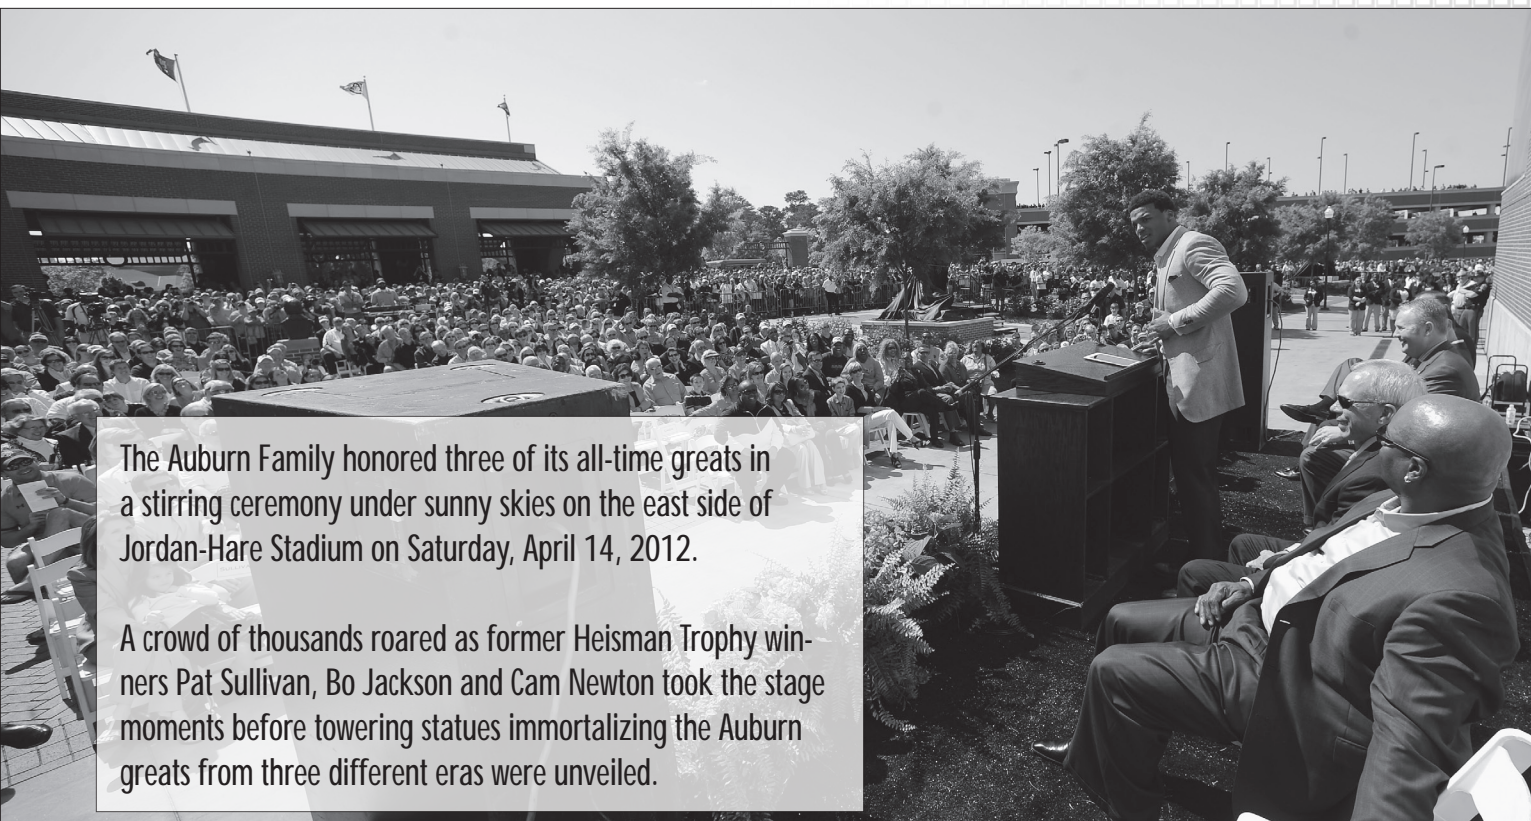

BO

Bo Jackson plowed through defenses in 1985 for 6.4 yards per carry, earning Auburn's second Heisman Trophy. The three-sport athlete ran for 1,786 yards and 17 touchdowns while helping the Tigers to an 8-4 record and a Cotton Bowl appearance.

CAM

Cam Newton put together one of the most remarkable college football seasons ever in 2010, throwing for 30 touchdowns and rushing for 20 while leading Auburn to a 14-0 record and the BCS National Championship. Newton tallied 4,327 yards of total offense while completing 66.1% of his passes.

The Auburn Family honored three of its all-time greats in a stirring ceremony under sunny skies on the east side of Jordan-Hare Stadium on Saturday, April 14, 2012.

A crowd of thousands roared as former Heisman Trophy winners Pat Sullivan, Bo Jackson and Cam Newton took the stage moments before towering statues immortalizing the Auburn greats from three different eras were unveiled.

Opened in August, 2011, Auburn added a 100-yard multipurpose indoor practice facility. The $16 million, 92,000 square-foot facility offers Tigers a place to train year-round, despite the outside elements.

The new indoor facility completed an overhaul of the football facilities at the Auburn Athletic Complex that started in 2008 with a $1.7 million project that included a new locker room and showers, a players' lounge and a renovation of the training room.

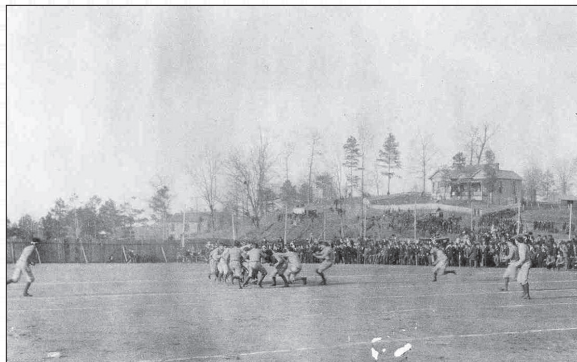

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Of the first 53 meetings between Auburn and Alabama, 48 took place in Birmingham. The name "Iron Bowl" comes from Birmingham's historic role in the country's iron industry.

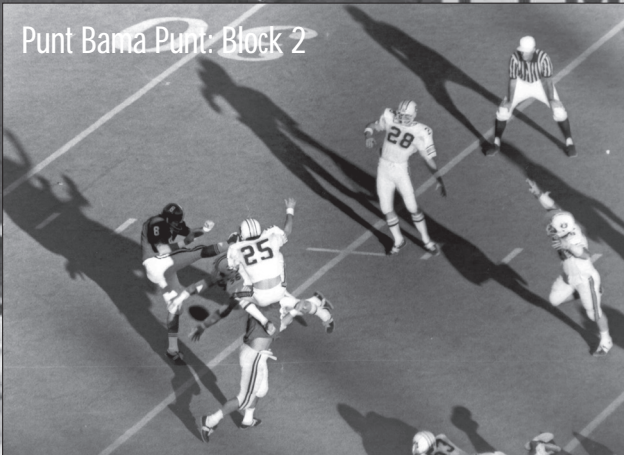

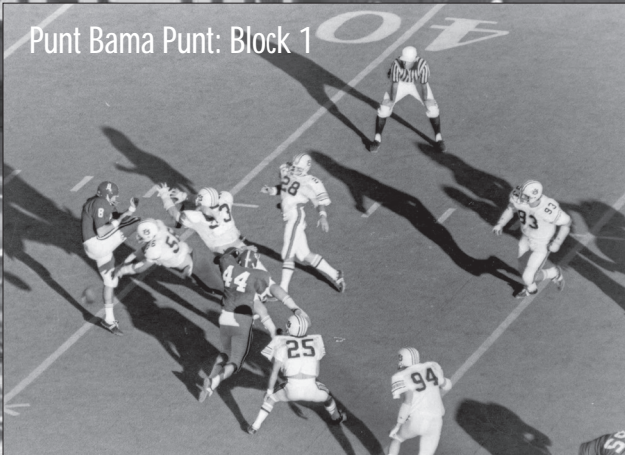

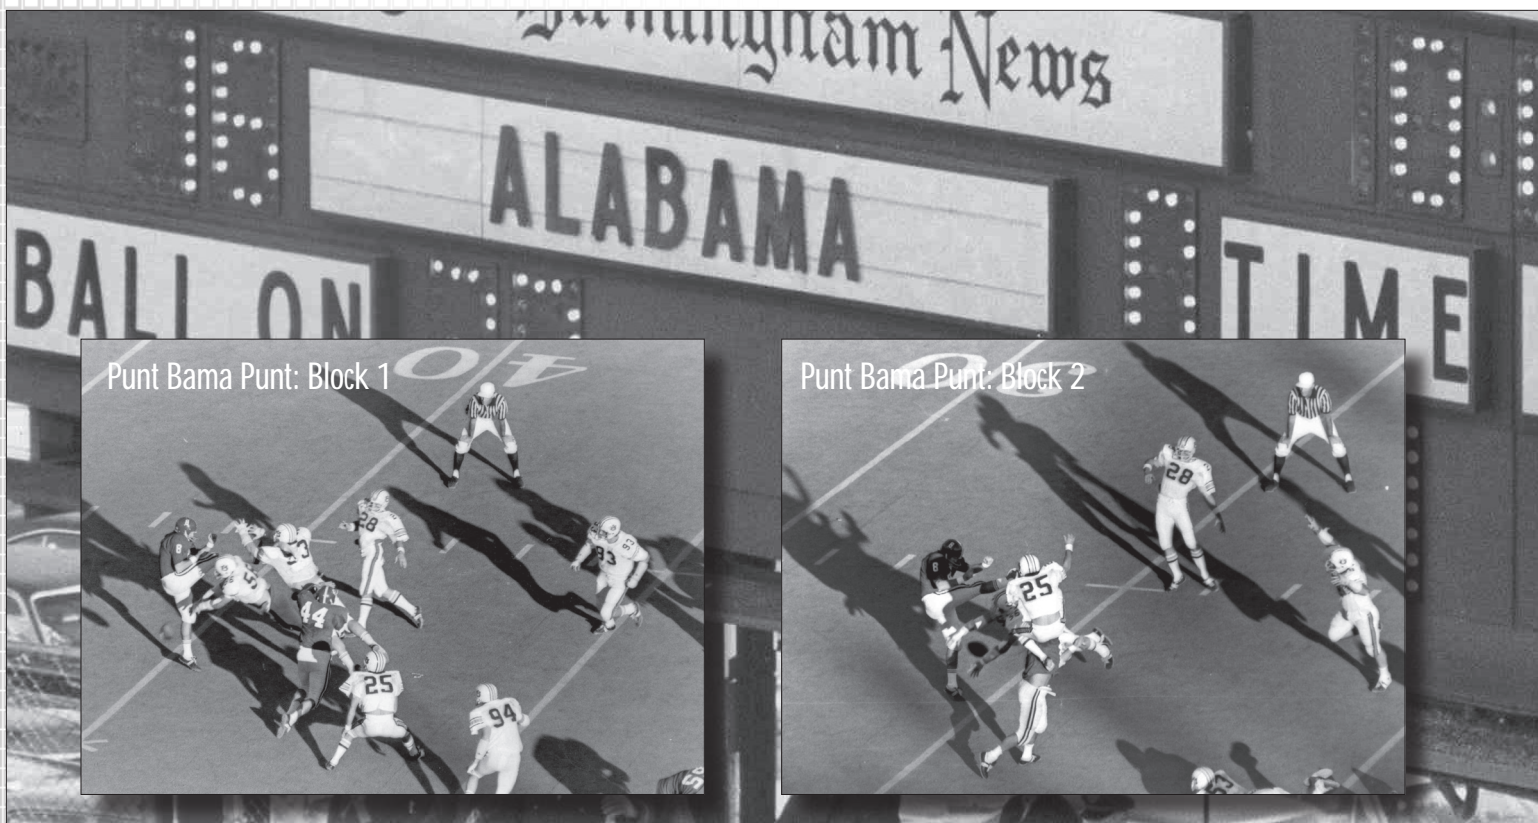

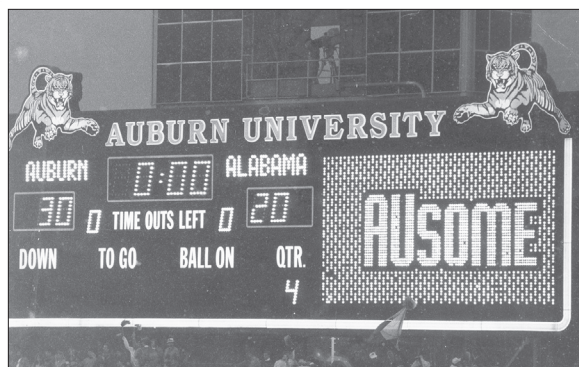

1893

The first Iron Bowl was played on Feb. 22, 1893 in Birmingham with Auburn taking the 32-22 win. The Tigers won the first two meetings and six of the first seven.

1989

The first time Auburn and Alabama met in Auburn was in 1989, and the No. 11 Tigers beat the No. 2 Crimson Tide, 30-20, on Dec. 2, 1989.

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 was Bo Jackson's "Bo Over the Top" 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line, which capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers' "coming out" party in the 1980s.

Down 24-0 in the second quarter, the Auburn defense inspired a school-record comeback for a 28-27 win in Tuscaloosa in 2010, en route to a national championship.

Dec. 2, 1972: Trailing 16-3 with six minutes left, underdog Auburn blocked two Alabama punts - returning both for touchdowns - to win the game 17-16, handing Alabama its first loss of the season and ending its national title hopes.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The Auburn football team trains at the James T. Tatum Strength and Conditioning Center, a newly renovated facility that features more than 14,000 square feet of space.

The $2.7 million facility features 24 power stations, multiple upper and lower body selectorized machines, aerobic equipment and an open exercise area for student-athletes.

The Tigers train under Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Kevin Yoxall. "Coach Yox" was named a Master Conditioning Coach in 2002 and has more than 20 years experience training student-athletes.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Tigers are active in the Auburn community, volunteering their time to work with special needs children at Storybook Farms, reading at local elementary schools, mentoring programs and numerous other service-based projects throughout the year.

Auburn players and coaches also reached out to their neighbors around the state following the April 27, 2011 tornados.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

Auburn's beautiful main campus--graced by greenery and open spaces and highlighted by historic Samford Park--is made up of 375 buildings spread across 1,875 acres. Buildings in the main campus area are within walking distance of each other. Residence halls are only a short walk from classrooms, dining and athletic facilities. Auburn is located in the southeastern United States in east-central Alabama about 30 miles from the Georgia border.

U.S. News & World Report has ranked Auburn among the top 50 public universities nationwide for 19 consecutive years. Auburn is ranked a "Best Value" by the Princeton Review.

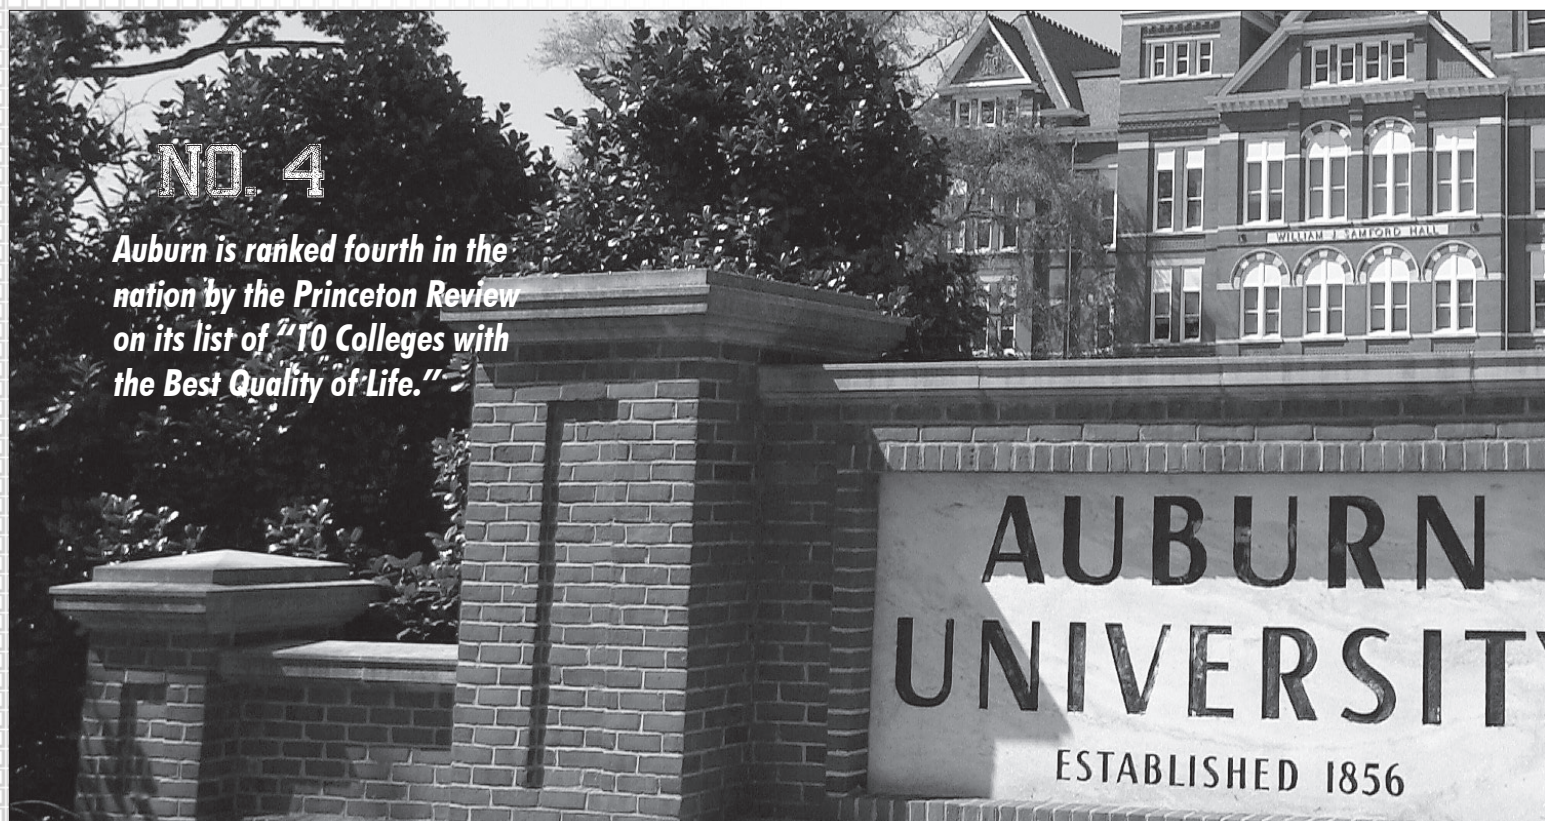

AU invests in extensive national assessments to obtain quality, data-driven information for measuring and continually improving instruction and student preparation.

More than 92 percent of our students and more than 95 percent of our alumni say that if they could start college over again, they would choose Auburn.

A 2005 Harvard survey ranked AU as one of the top six colleges and universities in the country as a place for young faculty to work, which has a lot to do with actively engaging students.

AU is the only university in the country to offer an undergraduate degree in wireless engineering, and the first in the Southeast to offer degrees in software engineering.

AU Libraries maintains the largest library in the state, with more than 3.2 million volumes in its collection. It subscribes to more than 9,000 journals and 250 electronic databases; provides library instruction and tours to students, prospective students and parents; and serves as an instructional resource for faculty.

NO. 4

Auburn is ranked fourth in the nation by the Princeton Review on its list of "10 Colleges with the Best Quality of Life."

AUBURN

Auburn People

Auburn faculty and alumni are world-class achievers in practically every arena. Here are just a few examples:

AU has graduated more than 232,658 students since it began in 1856. Currently, we have 210,472 living alumni around the world.

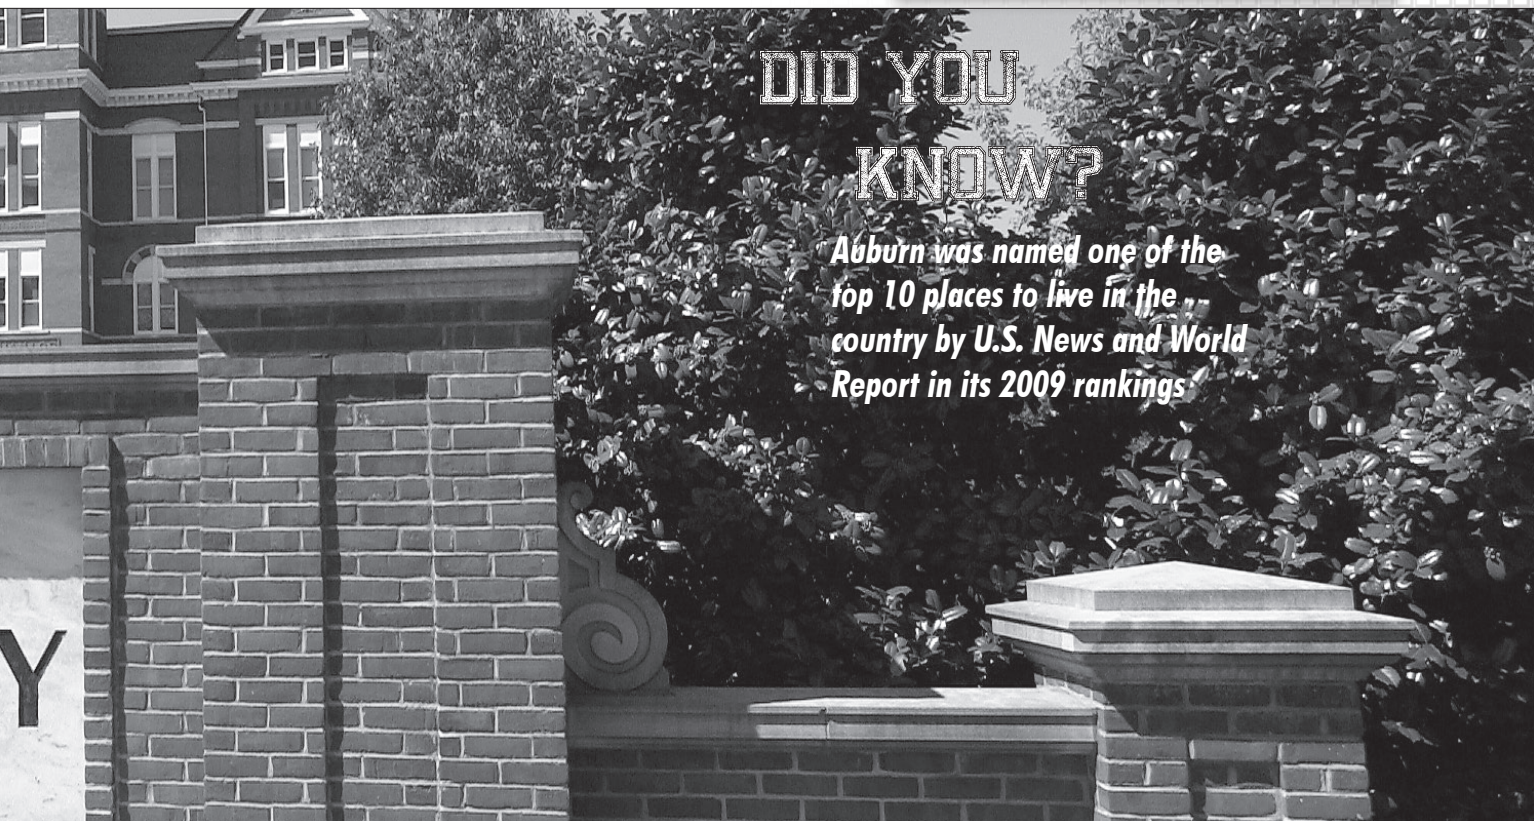

There are 98 Auburn clubs around the country whose primary goal is to raise scholarships for incoming freshmen. The Auburn Alumni Association and Auburn Club Program awarded a total of 188 scholarships for the 2011 - 2012 school year. Two clubs have endowments of more than $100,000 and the Alumni Association Endowment stands at more than $2.7 million.

The Student Alumni Association, with membership of over 3,400 students, offers three student scholarships for its rising senior members.

The Auburn Alumni Association has more than 46,000 members and contributes more than $95,000 each year toward professorships and other faculty awards.

More than 12,000 people a year visit the Alumni hospitality tent before home football games.

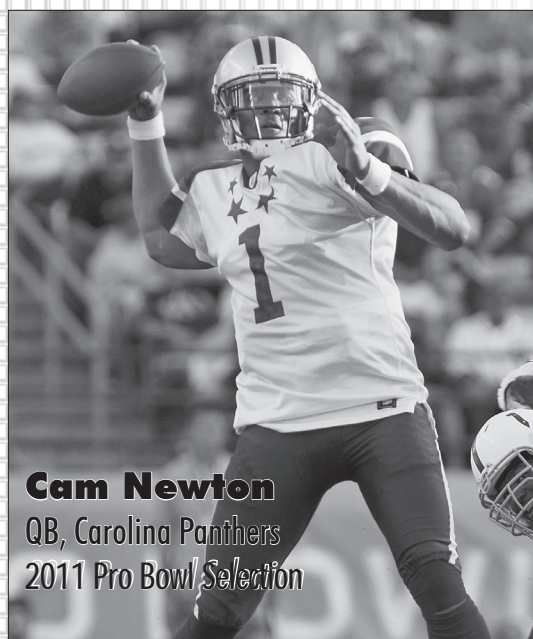

One of the state's fastest growing cities, Auburn has a population of about 57,000. An adjacent twin-city, Opelika, has a population of about 30,000. Atlanta, Ga., is only 100 miles to the northeast via Interstate 85; Birmingham is 100 miles to the north via U.S. 280 or I-85/65; Montgomery is 50 miles to the west via I-85; and the Gulf beaches are about 200 miles away. The university enjoys the advantages of security, seclusion and clean air and water. Auburn is a clean city with a mild climate that offers many cultural opportunities.
