Head Coach Johnnie Harris

Johnnie HARRIS

Head Coach

Fourth Season at Auburn • Fourth Season as a Head Coach

Pine Bluff, Arkansas • Arkansas Baptist, 1996

Johnnie Harris enters her fourth year as head coach for Auburn women's basketball in 2023-24. A long-time Southeastern Conference assistant and 2018 WBCA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Harris was named Auburn women's basketball head coach on April 3, 2021.

Harris' third season on the Plains saw the Tigers return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2019. She led Auburn to a 20-win season and a .500 SEC record, both of those also coming for the first time since 2019. Highlighting the season were a home victory over defending national champion LSU in front of a record crowd of over 7,700 fans at Neville Arena, along with another big home victory over Alabama where more than 6,000 Tiger fans filled the stands. Under Harris' leadership, graduate student Honesty Scott-Grayson earned a spot on the All-SEC First Team and an honorable mention All-America nod.

In year two at Auburn, Harris led the Tigers to their first winning record and postseason appearance in four years, finishing with a 16-15 overall record and five SEC wins. Auburn won a postseason game for the first time since 2016, defeating Tulane in the WNIT first round. In addition, the Tigers tied a school record for steals in a game with 24 against Samford, defeated Texas A&M for the first time, and won a road game in the SEC for the first time since the 2019-20 season.

Her first season on the Plains saw Auburn double its win total from the previous season and pick up three victories over nationally ranked opponents. Her first top-25 win came Nov. 21 with a 59-51 win at Georgia Tech, Auburn's first road win over a ranked foe since 2014. The biggest win of the season, and one of Auburn's biggest in decades, came Jan. 27 when the Tigers shocked No. 4 Tennessee 71-61 at home for their first SEC win of the season and their first win over a top-5 opponent since 1997. The Tigers added one more top-25 win, a 65-60 victory over No. 21 Georgia on Feb. 20. Sophomore Aicha Coulibaly was named to the All-SEC Second Team, and the Tigers landed a consensus top-25 recruiting class for 2022-23.

Prior to her arrival at Auburn, Harris spent 16 years combined at Arkansas, Texas A&M and Mississippi State, and spent the 2020-21 season as the Associate Head Coach at the University of Texas. She helped Texas to an Elite Eight appearance during the 2020-21 season, and she worked alongside Longhorn head coach Vic Schaefer the previous 10 years assisting Mississippi State to a pair of NCAA Championship game appearances. She was a central part of Mississippi State's success those eight seasons and is considered one of the nation's top recruiters.

Harris helped lead Mississippi State to a 221-62 [.781] record and five NCAA Tournament berths, including NCAA Championship Game appearances in 2017 and 2018. During that time, the Bulldogs also won the program's first Southeastern Conference regular-season championship and SEC Tournament Championship.

Harris' reputation as a tireless recruiter grew as she played an integral role in inking some of the top signing classes in Mississippi State history, including the 2013 class that achieved 111 wins and the 2014 class that tallied a school-record 126 victories. In the fall of 2018, the Bulldogs signed the top-ranked class in program history with a No. 6 national ranking by espnW Hoop Gurlz.

Harris' pupils in the past were some of the best in Mississippi State school history, led by Teaira McCowan, who Harris mentored during McCowan's record-setting junior and senior campaigns from 2017-19. The 2019 SEC Player of the Year and a consensus First-Team All-American, McCowan finished her career as Mississippi State's leader in rebounds and field-goal percentage, while ranking second in blocks and fourth in points and field-goals made.

The individual development McCowan showed during Mississippi State's run to a second consecutive national title game caught the attention of the coaching community, as Harris was tabbed the WBCA National Assistant Coach of the Year for the 2017-18 season.

In 2018-19, Harris helped transfer forward Anriel Howard combine with McCowan to create one of the best front courts in the country. In her lone season with the Bulldogs, Howard earned first-team All-SEC recognition by the AP and league coaches after averaging 16.4 points and 8.4 rebounds per game. Both McCowan [No. 3, Indiana Fever] and Howard [No. 24, Seattle Storm] were selected in the 2019 WNBA Draft.

Another Harris product, Chinwe Okorie, was an integral part of the Bulldogs' runs to the Final Four and 2016 Sweet 16 and finished her MSU career sixth in program annals in field-goal percentage, shooting 52.1 percent over 109 games. She raised her scoring average and field goal percentage each season of her three-year career, capped by her 7.5 ppg average on 56.4 percent shooting as a senior.

Harris’ pupil, Martha Alwal, helped the Bulldogs make history in 2014-15 with their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2010. Under Harris’ guidance, Alwal developed into one of the nation’s top centers, earning First Team All-SEC and SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors as a junior. She also claimed a pair of second-team honors, three-straight SEC All-Defensive Team accolades and won the Gillom Trophy. Three seasons Alwal become the second player in SEC history to lead the league in blocks four-straight years and just the third to claim 1,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocks for her career.

Harris helped guide Texas A&M to four Sweet 16 appearances in her five seasons, including the program’s first national championship in 2010-11. During her tenure with the Aggies, Harris helped sign and mentor junior college All-Americans Danielle Adams and Tanisha Smith.

Adams earned MVP of the 2011 Final Four before being selected with the 20th pick in the 2011 WNBA Draft by the San Antonio Silver Stars. Adams was tabbed to the league’s all-star game in her inaugural season. Smith earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and conference all-tournament honors in 2009. The Seattle Storm selected Smith with the 22nd pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft.

Harris’ recruiting ability was crucial in building the Aggies into an annual championship contender and their signing classes annually rated in the top 20 nationally.

Harris assisted the Aggies to land the nation’s No. 2 class in her final season in College Station. That class included a pair of McDonald’s All-Americans in Jordan Jones and Courtney Williams. Texas A&M’s 2010 class, which included McDonald’s All-American and the nation’s top post player, Karla Gilbert, rated third nationally. The two years prior she helped notch the nation’s fifth- and sixth-rated classes. Harris played a key role in signing the major players in Texas A&M’s national championship team that claimed a school-best 33 victories.

Prior to her stop in College Station, Harris spent three seasons at Arkansas, landing some of the Lady Razorbacks’ top recruiting classes in program history. She signed Laura Ervin, a junior college All-American who went on to garner Second Team All-SEC accolades, as well as Freshman All-SEC selection Donica Cosby.

In 2007, she inked Gatorade state players of the year Whitney Zachariason [Arkansas] and Morgan Boyd [Kansas] as Arkansas finished with one of the nation’s top-40 classes. Harris also recruited one of the top point guards in the nation in Shanita Arnold.

Harris has had the opportunity to learn from some of the game’s top coaches, including Hall of Famer Kay Yow at N.C. State. She joined the program in the 2003-04 season and assisted the squad to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in two years. Harris and her fellow coaches helped the Wolfpack sign JUCO Player of the Year Tiffany Stansbury, who went on to play with the WNBA’s Los Angeles Sparks and Minnesota Lynx.

Her first recruiting class in Raleigh was rated as one of the best in the nation. She also garnered a commitment from Gillian Goring, the nation’s No. 1 post player who went on to play for the Washington Mystics.

Prior to jumping to the Division I level, Harris made her mark on the junior college level as an assistant coach at Arkansas-Fort Smith, where she brought in key players who led the school to the NJCAA Final Four in 2004. In two seasons coaching under the legendary Louis Whorton, she inked the nation’s No. 1 class and a 34-8 record. UAFS’s 2002-03 team went 26-2 and won a share of the Bi-State Conference championship.

The Arkansas-Fort Smith position kept the Pine Bluff native in her home state after she started her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Little Rock. Her hard work at UALR earned her a promotion to a full-time assistant position in 2000.

Harris, a 2014 inductee in the Watson’s Chapel High School Hall of Fame, also coached AAU basketball with the Arkansas Kamikaze. She began her playing career at Arkansas-Pine Bluff before transferring to Arkansas Baptist for her final two seasons.

Harris is the mother of two children, Marcus and Kiera, and the legal guardian of Lily. She also has two grandchildren, Samarah and Kaiden.

Associate Head Coach Fred Williams

Fred
WILLIAMS

Associate Head Coach / Defensive Coordinator

Third Season at Auburn

Inglewood, California • Boise State, 1979

Veteran WNBA coach Fred Williams, who spent more than 25 years coaching in the professional ranks, is in his third year as associate head coach for Auburn women's basketball in 2024-25. He serves as the Tigers' defensive coordinator and coaches Auburn's point guards.

In two seasons at Auburn, Williams has helped lead the Tigers to back-to-back postseason appearances, a WNIT berth in 2023 and an NCAA Tournament bid in 2024. His defense has been a key component of that success as the Tigers were third in the SEC in scoring defense in 2024, holding opponents to just 58.8 points per game, and second in the league in steals with 10.4 per game.

Williams, who brings nearly 40 years of coaching experience to the Plains, spent the 2022 WNBA season as assistant coach and interim head coach for the Los Angeles Sparks. He helped lead the team to playoff appearances in 2019 and 2020.

"We are thrilled to add Fred Williams to our Auburn Women's Basketball Family as our associate head coach," Auburn head coach Johnnie Harris said. "He brings a wealth of experience from both the professional and collegiate levels, where he won championships, built trust with his players and developed them into All-Americans and WNBA All-Stars. Fred will be a huge asset to our staff, as we continue to build our fan base through community outreach and mold our student-athletes into champions on-and-off the court."

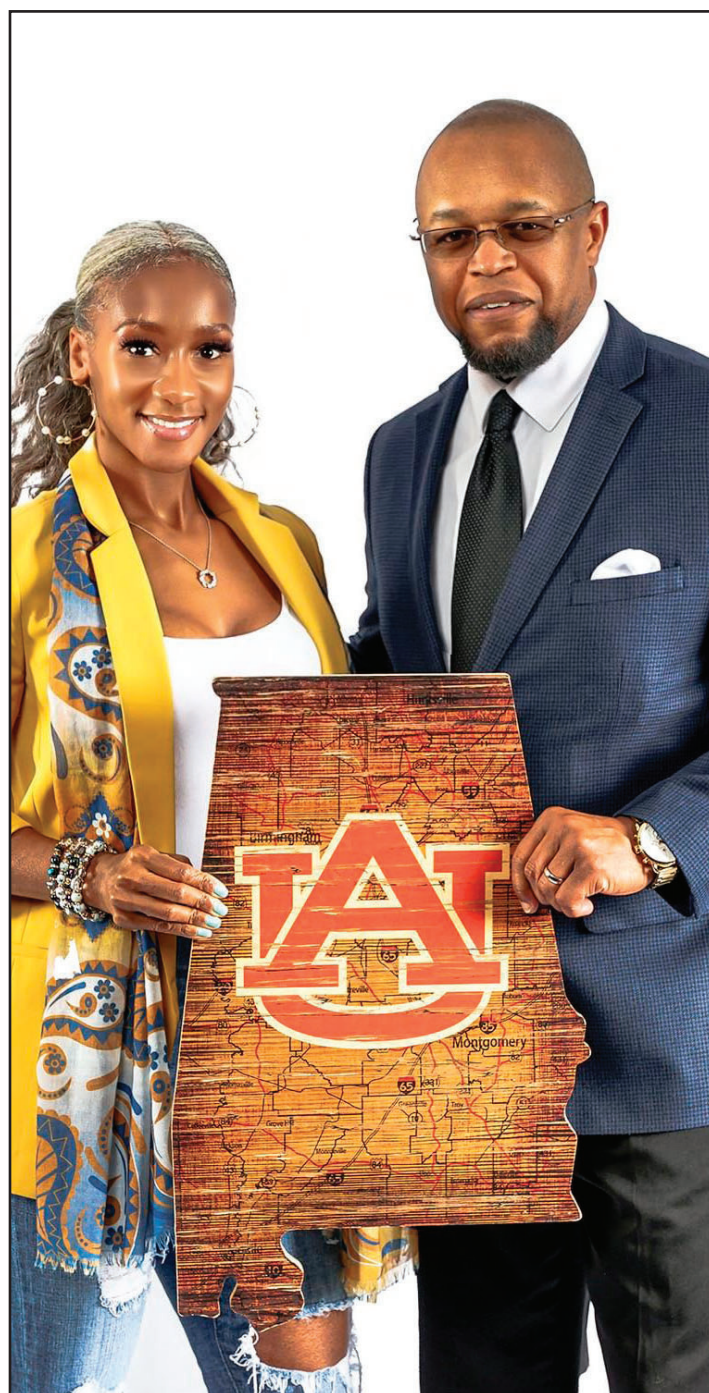

Williams has 10 years of head coaching experience in the WNBA and was also head coach at the University of Southern California. Prior to his stint with the Sparks, he spent five seasons as head coach of the Tulsa Shock/Dallas Wings, leading the franchise to a pair of playoff appearances.

He was also head coach of the Atlanta Dream for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. Before taking over as head coach, Williams was an assistant for the Dream for three seasons. While in Atlanta, he was part of a staff that led the team to three WNBA Finals appearances in 2010, 2011 and 2013. He worked alongside legendary former Auburn Head Coach Joe Ciampi, who spent two seasons as an assistant for the Dream.

"My wife and I are excited to join the Auburn Family," Williams said. "It was just a good fit for me — a great opportunity to come in, help the program and make a difference in young peoples' lives. The SEC is the toughest women's basketball conference in the country. You always want to play the best and be tested."

"With the program's style of play, Auburn is emerging into a team that has challenged the upper half of the SEC. Coach Harris has also done a lot of great things recruiting-wise throughout her career, including the freshman class we have coming in. She is starting to implement her system, and I am happy to be a part of what she is building at Auburn."

Williams spent four seasons with the Utah Starzz, first as an assistant in 1998 and then as head coach from 1999-2001. He also spent two seasons as an assistant with the Charlotte Sting from 2003-04.

Additionally, he was as an advance scout in the NBA and WNBA for the Utah Jazz, Seattle Supersonics, Sacramento Kings and Washington Mystics. Williams also served as a basketball analyst for ESPN+.

Prior to his time in the professional ranks, Williams served as head coach at USC from 1995-97 and assistant coach from 1983-90. The team rose to national prominence as he coached legends in Cheryl Miller, Cynthia Cooper and Tina Thompson, who helped lead the Women of Troy to national titles in 1983 and 1984.

As for his philosophy in developing players, Williams looks forward to rolling up his sleeves and getting into the gym.

“Make them work hard and sweat,” he said. “Make each individual better, play as a team and having certain goals each and every day to achieve. A team working toward being champions.”

A native of Inglewood, Calif., Williams is a graduate of Boise State University, where he was an All-Big Sky Conference player for the Broncos. He is married to Bo Talley-Williams, and the couple have five children and two grandchildren.

Associate Head Coach Damitria Buchanan

Damitria BUCHANAN

Associate Head Coach / Offensive Coordinator

Fourth Season at Auburn

Houston, Texas • Texas A&M, 2010

Damitria Buchanan enters her fourth season on the Auburn women's basketball staff in 2023-24. She was promoted to associate head coach in May of 2022 and assumed the title of offensive coordinator prior to the 2023-24 season. She also coaches the Tigers' post players.

Buchanan's third season on the Plains in 2023-24 saw the Tigers return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2019. She helped lead Auburn to a 20-win season and a .500 SEC record, both of those also coming for the first time since 2019.

Buchanan's second year at Auburn saw the Tigers make their first postseason appearance in four years, advancing to the second round of the WNIT. The Tigers finished 16-15 overall, their first winning record since the 2018-19 season. She also served as acting head coach for two games during the 2022-23 season when head coach Johnnie Harris was ill; she earned wins in both contests against South Alabama and Little Rock.

Named Auburn's assistant coach on April 14, 2021, she helped Harris and the Tigers double their win total from the previous season and pick up three victories over top-25 opponents in 2021-22, including one of the nation's biggest upsets with a 71-61 victory over No. 4 Tennessee on Jan. 27.

For her first two seasons on the Plains, Buchanan served as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator and helped land a consensus top-25 class in her first season.

"Coach D" spent the previous six seasons at Kansas, where she managed and oversaw the day-to-day recruiting operations as recruiting coordinator for head coach Brandon Schneider and his staff. She played for Harris at Texas A&M and came to Auburn with 10 years of Division I coaching experience.

Buchanan helped piece together the 2019 signing class at Kansas ranked No. 31 in the nation by Dan Olson Collegiate Girls Report, which was the third-highest ranking among Big 12 Conference programs.

During the 2017-18 signing period, Buchanan helped Schneider and the Jayhawks ink their second five-star recruit in four seasons with the signing of Brooklyn Mitchell.

Buchanan joined the Jayhawks after spending the 2013-15 seasons at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, Buchanan mentored the frontcourt and assisted with scouting, recruiting and academics. With the Lady Raiders, Buchanan played an integral part in helping land one of their most promising recruiting classes in 2014 after just one year on the South Plains.

Prior to her two-year stint with the Lady Raiders, Buchanan was a part of the coaching staff at Stephen F. Austin under Schneider. She mentored Porsha Roberts to multiple all-conference accolades, including Southland Conference Freshman of the Year and all-conference second team as a sophomore.

Buchanan helped guide the Ladyjacks to the Southland Conference Tournament Championship and a 23-win season in 2011-12. The increase in 11 wins from the 2010-11 season (12) to 2011-12 (23) was tied for the sixth-biggest turnaround in the nation.

After receiving her bachelor's degree from Texas A&M, Buchanan remained in the College Station area to pursue a master's degree while serving as a teacher and coach at A&M Consolidated Middle School.

During her playing days while Harris was coaching at TAMU, Buchanan helped guide the Aggies to three Big 12 Conference titles and four top-25 finishes, including top-10 finishes in each of her final three seasons. Buchanan was named team captain during her senior season, and was a two-time All-Big 12 First Team selection.

Assistant Coach Ketara Chapel

Ketara
CHAPEL

Assistant Coach / Recruiting Coordinator

Fourth Season at Auburn

Temple, Texas • Mississippi State, 2017

Ketara Chapel enters her fourth season as an assistant coach for Auburn women’s basketball. She joined the staff on April 13, 2021. Chapel was named the Tigers’ recruiting coordinator prior to the 2023-24 season.

Year three for Chapel at Auburn saw the Tigers return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2019. She helped lead the Tigers to a 20-win season and a .500 SEC record, both of those also coming for the first time since 2019.

Her first two seasons at Auburn saw the Tigers make continual improvements, doubling their win total from 2021 to 2022 and earning their first postseason bid in four years in 2023. The 2022-23 season saw Auburn finish with a winning record for the first time in four years, going 16-15 on the season and advancing to the second round of the WNIT.

In year one on the Auburn bench, she helped lead the Tigers to 10 victories, which included three wins over top-25 opponents. The Tigers’ 71-61 win over No. 4 Tennessee on Jan. 27 shocked the women’s basketball world as it was Auburn’s first win over a top-25 opponent since 1997. Auburn also earned victories over No. 18 Georgia Tech and No. 21 Georgia and showed improvement across the board in the first year under Johnnie Harris and her staff.

Chapel joined the Auburn Family after spending the 2020-21 season as Coordinator of Player Development at Texas, joining Harris on the Longhorn staff. The Longhorns had a strong first season under Harris and head coach Vic Schaefer’s staff, compiling a 21-10 overall record and advancing to the Elite Eight.

After helping build Mississippi State into a national contender as a player, Chapel spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at her alma mater.

Chapel joined Dominique Dillingham as part of the first recruiting class signed by Schaefer at MSU. As freshmen in 2013-14, they helped guide Mississippi State to the quarterfinals of the WNIT. The following year, they led the Bulldogs to the program’s first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2010.

After helping take Mississippi State to the Sweet 16 as a junior, Chapel led the Bulldogs to a thrilling win against Baylor that clinched the Oklahoma City Regional championship and the program’s first trip to the Final Four.

Chapel was a key part of MSU’s historic upset of top-ranked UConn that gave the Bulldogs a berth in the first of back-to-back national championship games.

The Temple, Texas, native and four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection was part of 111 victories in her four seasons in Starkville. During that time, she appeared in 142 games and started 61 contests, averaging 4.1 points and 2.8 rebounds per contest.

A 2017 graduate of Mississippi State with a bachelor’s degree in coaching & teaching, Chapel later earned her master’s degree from her alma mater in teaching - community college education in 2020.

She is the daughter of Ankara McNeil, a former women’s basketball student-athlete, who still ranks in the Top 10 in career rebounds at UTSA (1992-95). Her family also includes brother, Kiron Griffin Jr.

In her spare time, Chapel enjoys reading, coloring and listening to 90s and R&B music.

Savannah CARTER

Assistant Coach / Director of Player Development

Fourth Season at Auburn

Tulsa, Oklahoma • Mississippi State, 2015

Savannah Carter is in her fourth season on the Auburn women's basketball staff. She served the first two seasons as Director of Player Development and was elevated to the role of assistant coach for the 2023-24 season.

Carter's first season in an on-court coaching role saw the Tigers return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2019. She helped lead Auburn to a 20-win season and a .500 SEC record, both of those also coming for the first time since 2019.

She came to The Plains after spending the 2020-21 school year as assistant coach at Pearl River Community College in Mississippi. Playing a truncated schedule, Carter helped her team to a 5-4 record in 2021.

"I am excited to be welcomed into the Auburn Family," Carter said. "As a former SEC player it feels as though I have come full circle to once again be part of such an electric and fiercely competitive, tough conference. It is a remarkable opportunity. I thank Coach Harris for this chance to assist as the Director of Player Development in the rebuilding of this program. I look forward to Auburn returning to its winning culture. War Eagle!"

She spent two seasons as head coach at Jacksonville College (Texas) in 2018-19 and 2019-20. Prior to that, she was an assistant at Jacksonville College the previous season and at Murray State College (Okla.) in 2016-17.

Carter got her coaching start at the AAU ranks, working with the Oklahoma Dream Team during the summers in 2011, '12 and '13 and Oklahoma Magic in 2016. She also worked camps at Mississippi State from 2014-17.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Carter was a top recruit out of Tulsa, Okla., signing with Grambling State out of high school. She played in 30 games at GSU in 2011-12, averaging 7.5 points and 3.6 rebounds per game, and her 3.3 assists/game ranked third in the SWAC.

She transferred to Trinity Valley CC (Texas), leading them to a 36-1 record and an NJCAA national championship, averaging 11.9 points, 7.6 rebounds and 3.2 assists.

The former guard finished her playing career at Mississippi State with current Auburn Head Coach Johnnie Harris and former Head Coach Vic Schaefer, finishing fourth in the SEC in steals as a junior in 2013-14. Injuries limited her to 23 appearances as a senior in 2014-15, but she was named to the SEC Community Service Team.

Off the court, she also served as a SAAC representative in 2013.

Carter earned her associate's degree from Trinity Valley (2012), bachelor's degree from Mississippi State (2015) and is currently pursuing a master's in sport administration from Concordia University.

She is the daughter of Heather Nash and has two brothers, Reginald Carter Jr. and Isaiah Fellows. In her spare time, she enjoys landscaping, making candles and brunching.

AUBURN-- Auburn earned its sixth consecutive victory, outscoring Norfolk State by 20 points in the third quarter and scoring 20 consecutive second-half points to defeat the Spartans 67-39 Saturday at Neville Arena.

JaMya Mingo-Young tied an Auburn record for free throws without a miss, going 12-for-12 while leading her team in points, rebounds and assists. She scored 16, grabbed five rebounds and made four assists without committing a turnover.

Honesty Scott-Grayson overcame a slow start and scored all 12 of her points in the second half. Taylen Collins added 10 points, tied Mingo-Young with five rebounds and led Auburn with four steals.

Auburn held a second straight opponent to fewer than 40 points after thrashing Alabama State 94-37 three days earlier. After setting the program record with 28 steals vs. ASU, the Tigers made 13 steals against Norfolk State and forced 27 turnovers.

Sydney Shaw set the tone with a 3-pointer from the left wing off the opening tip. Collins scored in the paint, drew a foul and made the free throw, later adding another pair of free throws to give Auburn an 8-0 lead.

Norfolk State closed the gap with a 7-0 run but Shaw ended the quarter the way she began it, with a baseline jumper that put the Tigers on top 13-9 after the quarter.

The visiting Spartans took the lead in the second quarter before Kaitlyn Duhon hit a 3-pointer during a 9-0 Auburn run that helped the Tigers lead 26-20 at the half.

After missing her first eight shots, Scott-Grayson stole an inbounds pass and scored after Collins' layup to give the Tigers four quick third-quarter points. Mingo-Young grabbed a defensive rebound and hit a jumper from the top of the key before adding a pair of free throws during a 7-0 run that gave Auburn a double-digit lead midway through the third quarter.

Scott-Grayson's old-school 3-point-play and pair of free throws helped Auburn score the final 14 points of the quarter to take a 53-27 lead heading to the final period.

The Auburn men's and women's basketball teams are in their 14th season at Neville Arena. Built at a cost of $86 million and opening in October 2010, Neville Arena seats 9,121 fans for basketball games, bringing Tiger fans closer to the action.

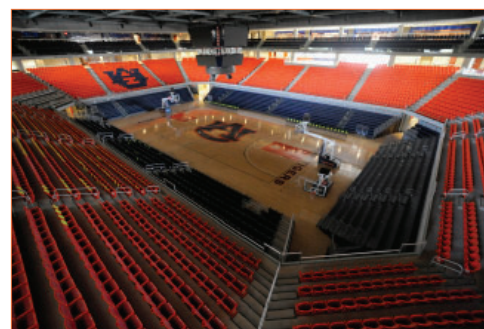

Built with the fan in mind, the furthest seat from the floor in Auburn Arena is 43 feet away while two-thirds of the seats in the facility are less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside. The Arena also features a team store, six concession stands, three elevators, 94 HD televisions, and family restrooms and customer service kiosks on all seating levels. Auburn students have their own entrance, lobby and concessions area at the Arena, and are allotted 1,500 floor-level seats. For special events, 12,000 square feet of banquet space, including tailgate and super suites, is available.

For the teams, Neville Arena offers an office suite for the coaches, recently renovated locker rooms and a 13,970-square foot practice facility and weight room.

The ground-breaking ceremony for the arena was held on Aug. 30, 2008 with work beginning in July, 2008. The Tiger basketball teams moved into the facility in August 2010 and a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held on Oct. 15, 2010. The Arena Grand Opening was held the night of Oct. 15 with the Auburn men's and women's basketball teams joining the Harlem Globetrotters in christening the facility.

Play officially began in the Arena with the Auburn women taking a 79-61 win over Mercer on Nov. 12, 2010. The Tiger men followed with a 70-69 overtime loss to UNC-Asheville. Auburn's volleyball and gymnastics teams also compete in the Arena.

Built as Auburn Arena, the facility was renamed Neville Arena in honor of Bill and Connie Neville, members of the Pat Dye Society, Tigers Unlimited's highest level of giving. Neville Arena was officially dedicated March 4, 2022.
