JEFF GRABA*Head Coach

16th year at Auburn • 165-219-4
 NCAA Regionals • 12
 NCAA Championships • 4
 NCAA Finals • 2

Head coach Jeff Graba has put the Auburn gymnastics program on the map throughout his 15+ years on the Plains. The Minnesota native was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015 and SEC co-Coach of the Year in 2012.

In competition, Graba has coached two national champions at Auburn in Derrian Gobourne (vault – 2019) and Sunisa Lee (beam – 2022). He's also guided two gymnasts to SEC individual titles in Lee (bars – 2022) and Cassie Stevens (vault – 2023).

Overall, Graba's athletes have combined for 37 All-America honors and 39 All-SEC recognitions. That includes Sunisa Lee with a program-best 10 All-America nods and Caitlin Atkinson with nine.

Twelve Tigers have been placed on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Academically, Graba's teams have also been outstanding in the classroom. In total, the Tigers have totaled 80 WCGA Scholastic All-America nods and 174 SEC Academic Honor Roll recognitions.

He's had four student-athletes that have combined for six SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year awards – Laura Lane (2011, 2012), Samantha Cerio (2019), Cassie Stevens (2023, 2024), Sophia Groth (2025).

Graba and the Tigers have enjoyed growth when it comes to home attendance. The team's attendance has reached its peak after averaging just 3,583 fans in his first season.

The 2022 Tigers increased attendance in Neville Arena and sold out all five home meets (9,121). The Tigers have enjoyed 30 sellouts, including 20-straight (2022, 2023, 2024, 2025).

Most recently, Graba guided the Tigers to their third Sweet Sixteen appearance as the program advanced to the final day of the 2025 NCAA Regional Championships. Auburn finished 11th nationally for the team's best finish since 2022.

In 2024, Stevens secured second team All-America honors for her efforts in the all-around, finishing with a 39.595 NQS to rank 14th nationally. Stevens and Julianne Huff secured All-SEC honors.

In 2023, Auburn saw big performances from upperclassmen. Stevens was a first team All-American on vault and won a share of the event title at the SEC Championship. Derrian Gobourne earned All-America honors on floor, was named SEC Specialist of the Year for the third-straight season and reached the NCAA Championships as an individual in the event, while Sunisa Lee was an All-American on bars and in the all-around.

The 2022 season was one for the record books as the team broke or tied every single record possible – overall and home score (198.575), road score (197.8375), vault (t-49.500), bars (49.675), beam (49.725) and floor (49.800). Eleven of the program's top 12 scores came in 2023.

In addition, the Tigers set or tied all individual records – vault: Drew Watson and Stevens (9.975); bars: Lee (2x, 10.0); beam: Lee (3x, 10.0); floor: Gobourne (10.0); all-around: Lee (39.825).

Lee, the 2021 Olympic Gold Medalist in the all-around, finished with eight All-America honors, was NCAA champion on beam and SEC champion on bars. She was named the 2022 SEC Freshman of the Year and a finalist for the Honda Award.

Gobourne finished with three All-America honors and was named the SEC Co-Specialist of the Year for the second season in a row. Sophia Groth earned two All-America honors, while freshman Sara Hubbard and Watson finished as All-Americans on vault.

As a team, the Tigers secured the program's best finish as the squad reached the Final Four and finished fourth overall. Auburn's third-place finish at the SEC Championship was also the program's best in the eight-team format.

Gobourne was the 2021 SEC Co-Specialist of the Year as she excelled on vault, bars, and floor. She was a first team All-American and All-SEC on floor as well.

A pair of Tigers earned All-America honors in 2020. Watson picked up first team recognition on vault and her selection marked the first All-America honor for a Tiger in the category since 2016. Gobourne was placed on the second team for her efforts on bars in 2020. Her All-America honor in the event is the first for any Tiger on bars at the conclusion of the regular season.

Auburn's performances in 2019 were big for the program as the squad reached the sport's first-ever Sweet Sixteen and finished 16th in the final rankings.

The program saw its first national champion in 2019 when Gobourne came in a tie for first on vault. The then-freshman scored a career-best 9.95, picking up All-America honors along the way.

Graba and the 2016 team added to the list of firsts for the program under his guidance. The Tigers snapped the 117-meet losing skid to Alabama, defeating the Crimson Tide at home (197.275-197.250). Auburn also defeated Georgia in Athens for the first time in program history, setting a new program-high road score on the way (197.325).

In addition, the Tigers earned the program's first No. 1 NCAA regional seed and captured the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional title with a 196.525.

Auburn enjoyed a breakout season in 2015 as Graba led the Tigers to the NCAA Championship Super Six for the first time in 22 years. Auburn's sixth place finish at the Super Six was the Tigers' third best in history and highest since 1993 with a score of 197.075. The Tigers finished with a score of 195.625.

Graba was named Auburn head coach on August 16, 2010 after spending five years as an assistant coach at Utah. While with the Utes, he earned the 2009 West Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

Graba is a native of Forest Lake, Minn., and graduated from the Minnesota in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in economics and earned his M.B.A. from Salem International University in 2011. He and his wife, Bridget, have five children: Bryan, Jaymie, Jason, Kyla and Shayla.

TIGERS WITH TWO MEETS THIS WEEKEND

The No. 17 Auburn gymnastics team has a busy weekend away from the Plains as the Tigers will compete in two meets. Auburn faces off with No. 2 LSU in an SEC dual Friday, February 13, at 7:45 p.m. CT in Baton Rouge. The team will follow with a quad meet on podium at the Metroplex Challenge, February 15, at 7:15 p.m. CT in Fort Worth, Texas.

The Tigers will face No. 13 North Carolina, No. 21 NC State and Boise State in the Fort Worth Convention Center.

"We knew we were going to have to have a couple double weekends this year when we were planning the schedule," head coach Jeff Graba said. "There are some benefits to having weekends like this on the calendar. It mimics postseason where we are going multiple days in one week."

And no better way to kick off a full weekend than heading to Baton Rouge to compete against the No. 2 LSU Tigers in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. The two Tigers will face off on SEC Network.

"There is no place in the SEC where you can hide," Graba said. "Everybody is really, really good. I take Friday's meet as a good challenge and it's a great place to get our act together. It's a great opportunity to go against one of the best teams in the country in a very hostile environment."

The team follows with its first chance on a podium Sunday, giving the youthful Tiger team an opportunity to experience competition on the elevated stage.

"We knew we wanted to get on a podium and the Metroplex Challenge does that," Graba said. "We also wanted to get into an invitational meet. And we also knew we had a young team that doesn't have any idea what they're getting into in postseason, so we need to train it and Sunday provides all this for us."

AUBURN POTENTIAL LINEUPS

Friday's meet will have the Tigers go bars, vault, beam and floor in Baton Rouge. On Sunday, Auburn will start the meet on beam and follow with floor, vault and bars.

Four Tigers have worked their way into the top eight in all four events with junior Julianne Huff and sophomore Marissa Neal highlighting the group of potential all-arounders. Huff is coming off a career-high 39,400 vs. Kentucky last Friday, while Neal has a 39.375 to her credit.

Joining them are juniors Olivia Greaves and Alex Irvine. Greaves has competed in the all-around four times this season, while this is the first time Irvine has been listed on all four top eight lists.

Auburn's vault squad is tied for 10th nationally with a 49.195 average and features five juniors, two sophomores and one freshman this weekend. Leading the way is junior Paige Zancan, Huff and sophomore Sophia Bell. Zancan has a 9.975 to her credit this year, while Huff and Bell have been consistent competitors for the Tigers.

GYMNAST TO WATCH: EMMA WEHRY

» Junior Emma Wehry is starting to come on strong for the Tigers, especially on beam. She secured a spot in the lineup at Georgia and earned a 9.8. She followed with a 9.825 in exhibition vs. Kentucky last week.

while Irvine is second with a 9.862 average.

Joining the three in the top eight is senior Hannah Hagle, Greaves, Huff, Zancan, Booth and junior Emma Wehry. Wehry is looking to make her third and fourth starts of the season on the apparatus for the team, while Hagle has a 9.8 or better in four of five meets competed.

Floor has been one of Auburn's top events this year so far as the team is tied for 11th with a 49.265 average.

Bell leads the way with a 9.885 average, while Huff isn't far behind at 9.881. Neal has been consistent on floor and has a 9.875 average for the team.

Huff, who hails from Hoover, Alabama, earned All-SEC and SEC All-Freshman honors in 2024 and has been a solid contributor on vault and floor throughout her tenure.

Zancan made a name for herself on beam and vault through the first two seasons with the Tigers. She has 23 starts on beam and has become one of Auburn's top vaulters, reaching a 9.975 already this season.

Joining them with experience is Emma Grace Boyd and Alex Irvine. Both have established themselves as top bars workers for the team, while Irvine has worked her way into all-around contention this year.

Adding depth for the team over the past two seasons have been Sophia Greaves and Jersiey Woolsey and transfers Kaylee Bluffstone and Emma Wehry.

BELL MAKES HISTORY

Sophomore Sophia Bell made history on January 9 in Auburn's season opener against NC State with her Yurchenko double on vault.

The vault made history as she became the first Tiger to do that vault in competition. She stuck it to earn a career high of 9.925 and her vault helped lead the Tigers to the second-highest season-opening score in program history.

WHO TO WATCH

Junior Julianne Huff had a solid outing vs. Kentucky last Friday (Feb. 9) as the Hoover, Alabama product reached a career-high 39.400 in the all-around.

Highlighting her performances was her showing on bars as she reached a career-best 9.925 in the event for the Tigers.

She also added a 9.85 on both vault and floor and her 9.775 on beam counted towards the team score.

Junior Emma Wehry is progressively working her way into the lineups after starting the season with an injury. She has been in the beam lineup twice for the team and put together a nice exhibition routine last week against the Wildcats, scoring a 9.825.

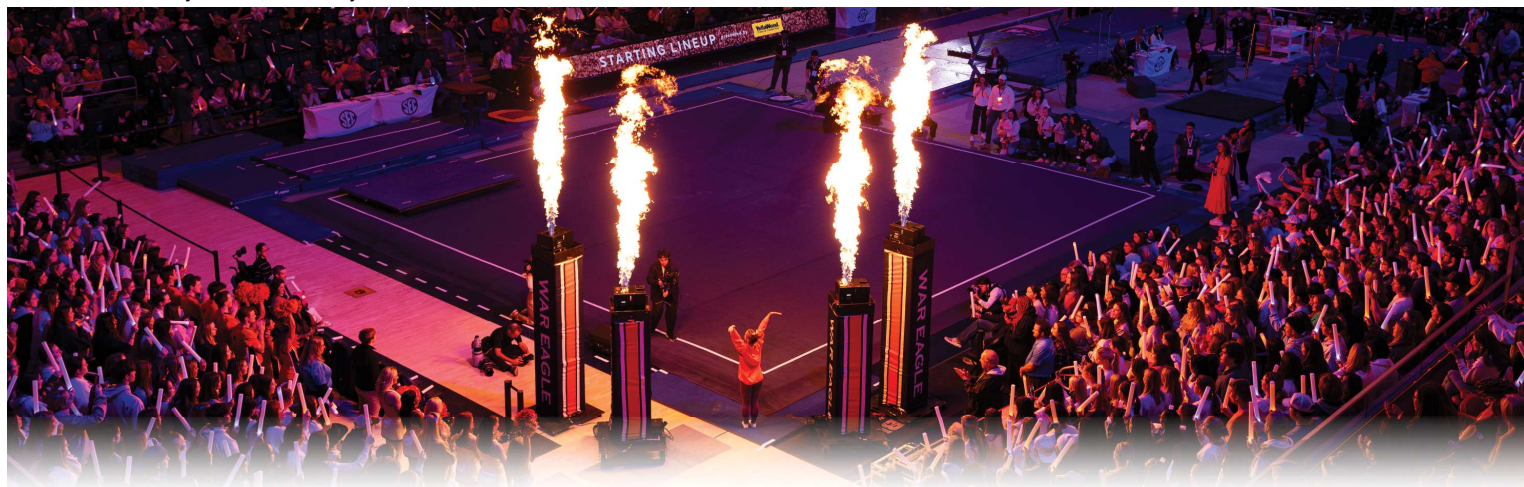

She's also among the team's top eight on floor this week on the road.

UP NEXT

Auburn returns to the Plains for a big rivalry match up vs. No. 3 Alabama. The Tigers and the Crimson Tide will face off at 7:45 p.m. CT on February 20 in Neville Arena. The meet will be televised on SEC Network.

NEVILLE ARENA

» The Tigers have enjoyed calling Neville Arena, having 33 sellouts to their credit prior to the 2026 season. The program upped its capacity to 9,121 in 2022 and have sold out every meet since that year.
