LARRY VICKERS

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON AT AUBURN • 12TH SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

NORFOLK, VA. • NORFOLK STATE, 2007

Larry Vickers is in his second season as the head coach of Auburn women's basketball in 2026-27.

In his first season on the Plains, the Tigers went 15-17 overall and 3-13 in SEC play. Included in that inaugural season were a top-25 win over arch rival Alabama, an SEC Tournament win for the first time in two seasons, and record crowds filling Neville Arena.

Vickers was named Auburn's head women's basketball coach on March 23, 2025, after a decade leading the Norfolk State women's basketball program to unprecedented heights. An 18-year coaching veteran, Vickers also spent eight years as a men's assistant and associate head coach for the Spartans.

Since he took over, the NSU program achieved its most successful run in its Division I era, posting a 177-99 record, including an 83-18 mark over the last three seasons. Prior to Vickers' arrival, NSU finished with a winning record overall just three times. During his last four years, his teams had a 49-7 conference record, winning four regular season MEAC titles, along with three conference tournament titles. Combined with his time on the men's staff, Vickers has been a part of nine conference championships at Norfolk State.

In 2024-25, Vickers led the team to a program-record 30 wins, a perfect conference record and the MEAC regular season and tournament titles. The Spartans, who were undefeated in conference play, won 19 consecutive games entering the NCAA Tournament with the winning streak starting in late December with a victory at Auburn. Vickers also led the Spartans to a win at Missouri in November.

Vickers led Norfolk State to a then-Division I program-best 27-6 record and its second consecutive MEAC Tournament Championship in the 2023-24 season. NSU advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in school history and went 13-1 in MEAC play, winning the conference regular season title as well.

Vickers earned his second MEAC Coach of the Year recognition while coaching the MEAC Player of the Year and HBCU Player of the Year Kierra Wheeler and MEAC Newcomer of the Year Diamond Johnson. Additionally, Vickers coached one All-MEAC Second Team selection and two MEAC All-Rookie selections.

In 2022-23, Vickers led the program to its first MEAC Championship title since 2002 as the Spartans finished with a 26-7 overall mark and made a first-round appearance in the NCAA Championship tournament. The Spartans won the MEAC regular season title and Vickers was named the MEAC Coach of the Year and the HBCU National Coach of the Year. Camille Downs and Deja Francis were both named HBCU All-Americans, while Downs was named the MEAC Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. Additionally, Vickers coached three MEAC All-Conference honorees as well as three MEAC Defensive Team selections.

Vickers led the 2021-22 team to a 17-12 overall record, going 11-3 in the conference, earning a share of the conference's regular season title for the first time in program history. NSU would make it all the way to the MEAC title game, falling to No. 1 seed Howard.

The impressive campaign resulted in Norfolk State's first-ever berth in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT).

During the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season, two Spartans landed on the All-MEAC First Team in the same season – a first in program history.

In 2019-20, Norfolk State achieved its best season since winning the MEAC title in 2002 as Vickers guided the Spartans to a second-place finish in the league at 12-4, their then-best MEAC record ever by percentage and tied for their highest finish in the league ever. Despite the season being cut short prior to the semifinals of the MEAC Tournament due to COVID-19, the Spartans still ended the campaign with 19 wins, tied for the second-most in their D-I history.

In her one and only season on the court at NSU, Chanette Hicks averaged a double double in 2019-20, winning the MEAC Player and Defensive Player of the Year awards. Both marked the first ever for NSU, and it marked the first time in conference history a player swept both awards. She was also named HBCU National Player of the Year.

Raven Russell and La'Deja James led the way in 2018-19 when NSU placed fourth in the MEAC at 10-6. The Spartans found postseason success as well during the 17-15 overall season. They finished as runner-up at the 2019 MEAC Tournament, their fourth-ever MEAC Tournament title game appearance and the first since 2005. They reached the final day of the tournament following a 60-43 upset win against top-seeded North Carolina A&T in the semifinals, ending the Aggies' 28-game winning streak against MEAC opponents.

NSU's upward trajectory continued under Vickers in 2017-18 during his second full season in charge. The Spartans posted an 18-11 record, including an 11-5 mark in MEAC play for a fourth-place finish. It marked the first winning overall season since 2001-02.

NSU's trademark defense once again stifled opponents in 2017-18. The Spartans set numerous D-I program records while holding competition to 56.2 points per game on 32.8-percent shooting, including 26.8-percent from 3-point range. Norfolk State topped the MEAC and ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense, while its field-goal percentage defense was the third-best nationally.

The Spartans blocked 213 shots in 2017-18, the fifth-most nationally and the most in program history. NSU averaged 7.3 blocks per game behind the historic efforts of Khadedra Croker. Croker set the single-season program record with 93 rejections and ranked third nationally with 3.4 rejections per game.

In Vickers' first full season as head coach, he led the Spartans to a 10.5 game turnaround in 2016-17, which tied for the eighth-best improvement nationally that season. In addition, Norfolk State's 12-win improvement was the largest single-season increase in program history.

Vickers served as interim head coach of the NSU women for the final 11 games of the 2015-16 season and led the team to its only three victories of the season, leading to him being named to the permanent head coaching post following the campaign.

Prior to taking over the women's program, Vickers spent eight seasons as an assistant coach with the Norfolk State men's basketball program. He served the last three as the associate head coach, including the final year in 2015-16 when he took over the women's program in mid-January. Vickers also held the title of recruiting coordinator for the program.

The Spartan men's basketball team made five postseason appearances with Vickers on the bench. The Spartans played in three CollegeInsider.com tournaments from 2014-16, the 2013 NIT and the 2012 NCAA Tournament. The 2012-13 squad finished first in the MEAC with a perfect 16-0 record, and the 2011-12 team is famous for upsetting No. 2 seed Missouri in the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans also advanced to the semifinals of the MEAC Tournament six times during Vickers' eight years coaching in the program.

Norfolk State had an all-conference forward or center seven straight years, including Kyle O'Quinn who was a two-time MEAC Defensive Player of the Year and the 2012 MEAC Player of the Year before being selected in the second round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

During his first five years as an assistant coach, Vickers served as the program's primary defensive coach. The Spartans ranked in the top four in the MEAC in blocked shots three straight years as well as third in 3-point field goal defense for two straight seasons. NSU also led the MEAC in blocks in 2014-15.

Vickers also played a key part in NSU's improved academic performance and APR turnaround. In 2010, the program was recognized for improving its APR score by 129 points during a three-year period, and in 2011 the Spartans were recognized by Fox Sports for having the 11th-best APR improvement.

The 6-9 Vickers walked onto the NSU team during the 2004-05 season. He quickly earned playing time and was a noted defensive player during his career with the Spartans. A two-time member of the MEAC Commissioner's All-Academic Team, Vickers was named the Spartans' Most Improved Player as a sophomore in 2005-06 and was also a team captain.

Vickers earned his bachelor's degree in electronic technology in 2007. He has taken courses toward his master's in urban education at NSU. He graduated from Ocean Lakes High School in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Vickers and Charisse have three children; daughter Elle Christian and sons Lincoln and Lane.
