Body-Solid

The Body-Solid Endurance R300 is a self-generating indoor rower that eliminates power requirements for peak energy efficiency. A precision-engineered flywheel design minimizes noise, while the nickel-plated chain offers unmatched durability. The interactive console reports time, heart rate, calories, paddle width, stroke rate, distance rowed and watts. It's also Polar-compatible. The R300 can be paired with Body-Solid's Crossfit-oriented products, such as the FB300 Fan Bike, Power Racks and Half Racks.

Brigadoon Fitness

The M7e treadmill flexes its performance, durability and ease of use. A powerful 5.0 HP AC NextGEN III Eco Drive™ delivers the highest efficiency without compromising power. Speed and elevation paddle shifters allow the treadmills to reach speeds up to 16.2 miles per hour while inclining up to 18 percent. The 16-inch touchscreen boasts 20-plus programs, including Gerkin, Cooper and 10 forward-motion scenery videos. The 60-by-22-inch lubricant-infused running belt with 1-inch reversible phenolic deck and Smooth Deck Absorption System reduces stress on joints and knees.
