

DISPUTE RESOLUTION FOR THE GLOBAL ECONOMY

Fox Rothschild LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

International Experience

Success in today's international marketplace demands attorneys who are well-versed in representing clients worldwide, in every time zone.

The International Practice Group at Fox Rothschild has a depth of experience assisting international companies doing business in the United States and in proceedings before American courts, as well as handling matters for U.S. companies doing business abroad. We also represent U.S. companies expanding their business overseas and engaging in cross-border dispute resolutions.

We have an established network of professional relationships and resources throughout Europe, the Americas and Asia. We provide international services for clients doing business in more than 75 countries across a broad range of practice areas including Securities, Real Estate, Litigation, Franchising and International Arbitration.

Arbitration

Our International Arbitration team is made up of experienced attorneys who understand how to resolve complex cross-border disputes across a range of international jurisdictions.

Fox's International Arbitration Practice has significant experience assisting companies, investors and national entities in the full range of cross-border commercial disputes. Our interdisciplinary group of attorneys have represented public and private sector clients before major arbitral institutions, including:

AAA
American Arbitration Association

ICC
International Chamber of Commerce

ICDR
International Centre
for Dispute Resolution

ICSID
International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes

IFTA
Independent Film &
Television Alliance

LCIA
