DAY 1

Arrival in Tbilisi

Welcome to the Tbilisi International Airport in Georgia. Upon arrival, we will arrange a pick-up and transfer to Gudauri which is approximately 3 hours of journey time.

The first location on the tour is the Ananuri Complex which is located near the Zhinvali Reservoir. Witness amazing views of the Georgian mountainscape and the turquoise blue waters of the reservoir. En route to Kazbegi, you will visit the Gudauri Ski Resort which is located at 2100 to 2700 meters above sea level. The resort offers multiple lifts and more than 70 km of slopes and is growing in its fame.

Overnight stay in Gudauri.

DAY 2

Gudauri – Kazbegi Jeep Tour

After a sumptuous breakfast, the tour proceeds on a jeep to the Gergeti Trinity Church. This is a famous monument that imbibes Georgian culture and is located at the foot of Kazbegi Mountain. Enjoy the views atop the mountain as the church is situated at an elevation. Take in the awesome views overlooking the valley and the Caucasian mountains.

Relax and unwind with an overnight stay in Gudauri.

DAY 3

Gudauri – Mtskheta – Tbilisi

Enjoy a tasty breakfast at the hotel and transfer to Tbilisi via Mtskheta.

Mtskheta Tour - The tour in Mtskheta is amazing. The city is the oldest city and the first capital of Georgia. It is located at the confluence of two rivers, Mtkvari and Aragvi, amid mountainous views. You are in a city that is popular as the cradle of Christianity. The Seamless Robe of Jesus Christ lies in the Svetitskhoveli Church in Mtskheta, and hence the city got its popularity.

Mtskheta is the first Christian city that reflects the century-old history of Georgian Christianity. The thought reflects all through the tour as you visit the Svetitskhoveli Cathedral (an Orthodox Christian cathedral) and Jvari Monastery (a sixth-century Georgian Orthodox monastery). Take in amazing views of the Mtskheta attraction and admire the unique masterpiece of Georgian architecture of Svetitskhovei. The rich paintings of the cathedral date back to ancient times and will keep you mesmerized.

Tbilisi City Tour - Tbilisi is the capital of Georgia with immense history and traditions. Soak in the aura of centuries-old traditions in Georgia in a city that also offers modern brilliance. The history of the capital begins from Abanotubani which is our first stop on the city tour. 'Tbili' from where the capital got its name means warm and highlights the goodness of sulphur baths that are located here. Feel embraced by the warmth and hospitality of the locals as they believe that all guests are gifts from God and have to be treated with respect. Proceed onwards to the Narikala Fortress. This 4th-century old citadel is the oldest building in the city. Stare at panoramic views from the fortress of the views of the historic city of Tbilisi with its modern hues.

The tour next takes you to the Metekhi Church whose history dates back to when Tbilisi was declared the Georgian capital. Once again admire the church for its age as it is one of the oldest churches in the city. The Georgians have restored and preserved the originality of the church despite many damages and demolitions.

Proceed onwards on the fascinating tour to the Bridge of Peace. It is symbolic of modern Georgia and built by the famous architect Michele De Lucchi. It is a bridge that connects the historical past with the modernity of Tbilisi of today. Also, see the Holy Trinity Cathedral of Tbilisi which stands tall as another glorification of Georgian history. It was built at the beginning of the 21st century and is respected as one of the highest Orthodox churches in the world. The Sunday service in the Holy Trinity Church is conducted by Ilia II who holds the title of the Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia.

Overnight stay in the comforts of your hotel as per the itinerary.

DAY 4

Day at Leisure

Wake up to a lovely breakfast at the hotel. Complete the PCR Test at the hotel and enjoy the day at leisure. There are optional excursions on offer at an additional charge of AED 150 per pax that you could take.

Tour in Kakheti (Sighnaghi direction) - Bodbe - This is an unmissable Georgian tour of Kakheti that is recognised globally as the homeland of wine. The Kakheti region is located in eastern Georgia where the centuries-old history of Georgian winemaking emerges from. Soak into the rich history of winemaking as the tour takes you to Sighnaghi also known as the 'pearl of Kakheti' and the 'city of love'. The historical vibe of the old town will make you fall in love with it. The moments spent here will stay embedded in your memory to cherish forever. Also, visit the Bodbe Monastery which is the tomb of St. Nino. St. Nino was noted for missionary activities and Georgian Christianization. The saint was also revered for the efforts towards proclaiming Christianity as a state religion.

Overnight stay in the hotel as per the itinerary.

Bodbe Monastery - St. Nino
