DAY 1

Arrive in Baku

On arrival, meet our local representative at Baku Airport and get escorted to the selected hotel. Your check-in would be at 1400 Hrs.

Proceed to the Panoramic Baku City tour (Side view tour only)

The tour will start with the Highland Park followed by the Alley of Martyrs, the National Assembly (also transliterated as Milli Majlis), the wonderful side view of the Flame towers (the tallest skyscraper in Baku) and the side view of Baku City.

During the tour, you also see the side view of Baku Crystal Hall. The Crystal Hall is an indoor arena and is located on the coast of Baku near Baku Boulevard. It was constructed in the year 2012 and hosts a variety of major events.

DAY 2

PCR Test at the hotel & Baku City Tour

After breakfast, guest will be having a City tour and visit the below places

- ▶ Highland Park (Alley of Martyrs & a perfect place to capture the best of city's panoramas)
- ▶ Baku Boulevard, where you can enjoy the Ferris wheel (upon request) and visit the Carpet Museum, Little Venice and the Philharmonic Garden and have a boat trip on the Caspian Sea.
- ▶ Old City (Icherisheher) where you have places like Shirvanshah Palace Complex, the Museum of the Miniature Books, the Maiden Tower, Gosha Gala Entrance (Double Gates of Old City), Fountain Square, Nizami street and Molokan garden.
- ▶ War Trophies Park
- ▶ Heydar Aliyev Cultural Center where you can indulge in photography in front of "I love Baku" board

DAY 3

Day At Leisure

After breakfast, you can either spend the day at leisure on your own or you have an option to take the Absheron Peninsula & Gobustan Tour (AED 200 per person).

ABSSHERON PENINSULA Ateshgah Fire Temple is one of the prominent sites in Baku and is of great historical and cultural significance. Based on Persian and Indian inscriptions, the temple was a centre of worship amongst Hindus and Zoroastrians. The Pentagonal complex here is surely going to steal your attention for it has an amazing courtyard surrounded by beautiful cells built during the 17th and 18th centuries. However, it was abandoned a century later and the natural eternal flame that was the soul of the complex went off in the year 1969. The complex was converted into a museum in 1975 and since then, it has been attracting thousands of tourists from around the world.

You also get to see the beauty of Yanar Dag on this excursion. The place is known for its natural fire flames on a hillside. It is another place of great interest where people from around the world pay a visit. It is quite a spectacular place to witness eternal flames.

Old Town

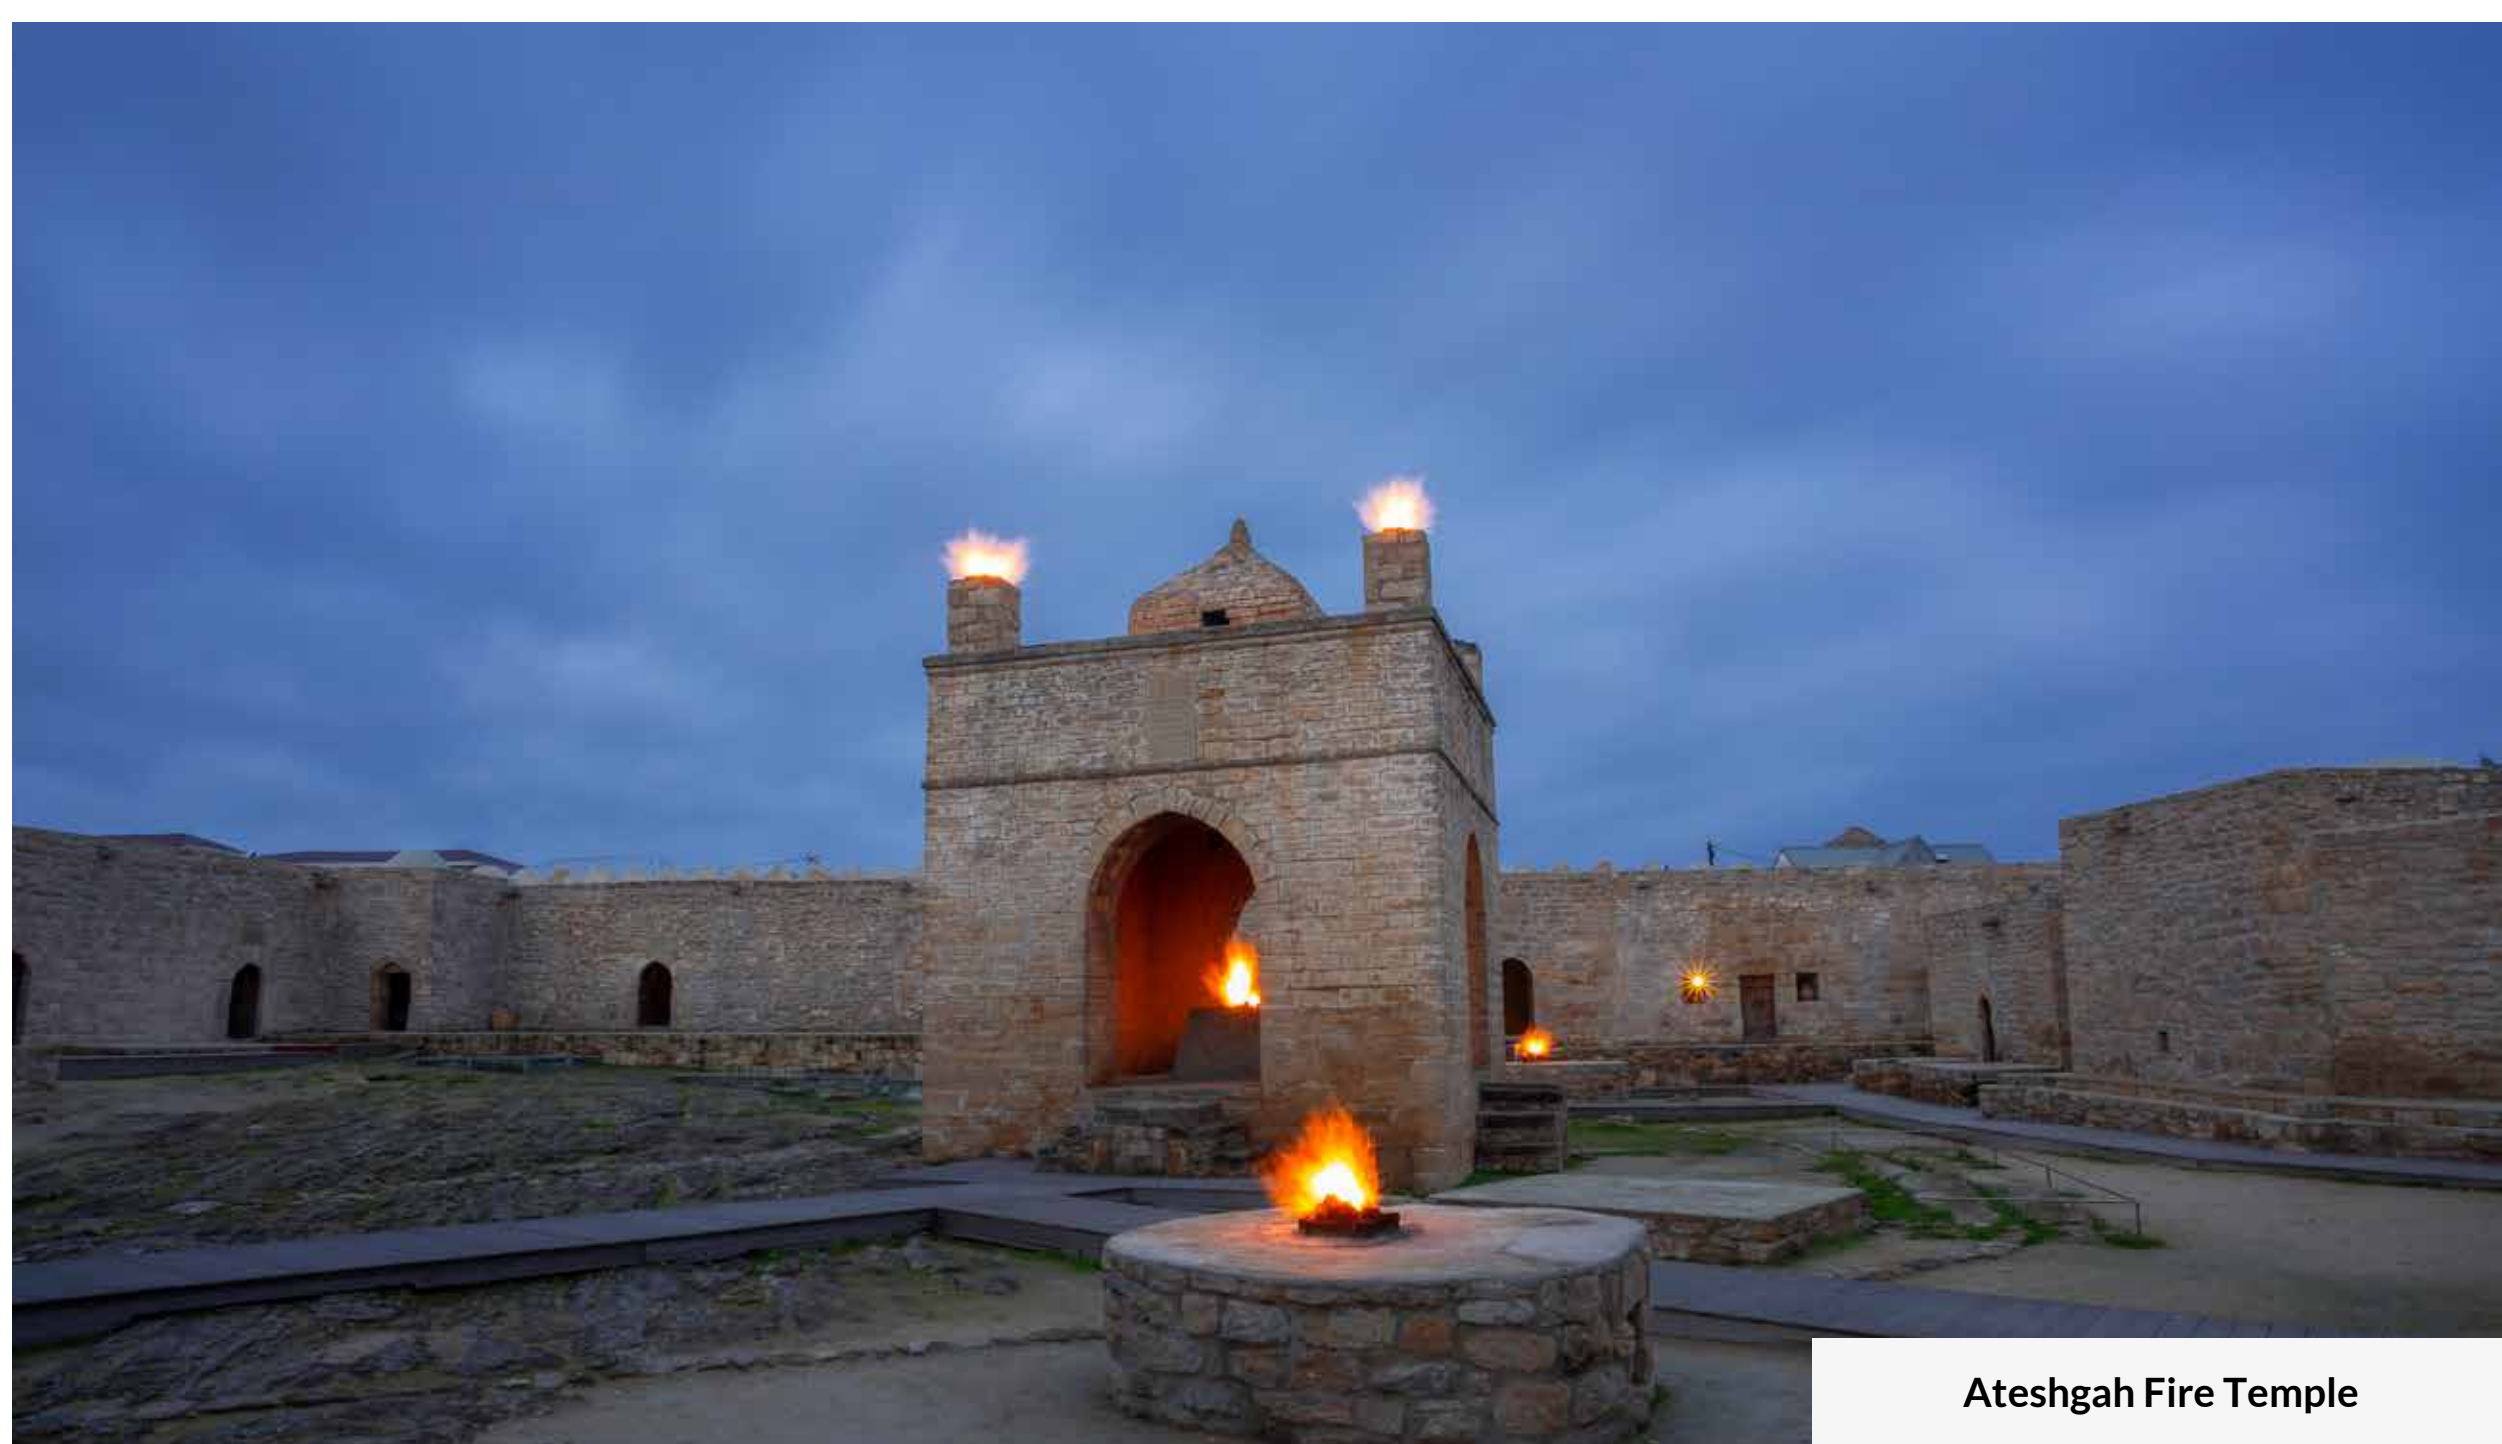

National Park

GOBUSTAN TOUR On the Gobustan tour, you will be covering the breath-taking landscapes and historical aisles of Gobustan State Reserve, located about 60 km from Baku. It is an open-air museum and a national park spread across an area of more than 537 hectares. The State Historical and Cultural Reserve is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and houses an incredible collection of ancient rock carvings, mud volcanoes and gas stones. Here, you would travel back in time and understand the age-old culture of Baku. The reserve is of utmost importance and hence, it attracts visitors from around the world.

While on the tour, scrutinize wonderful prehistoric petroglyphs on large cliffs. This would surely give you an insight into how humans lived in Azerbaijan thousands of years ago. The national reserve is also home to beautiful species of plants and animals and hence, the place serves as a great destination for photographers and nature lovers.

The mud volcanoes would also grab your attention for they are some of the most loved spots in the park. Out of 700 mud volcanoes on the planet, about 300 lie in Gobustan.
