OR

Go on a tour of WINE & HONEY and PANNONIAN PLAIN (NOVI SAD, SREMSKI KARLOVCI TOUR) (Optional excursion on additional charges)

On this tour, you will be visiting the beautiful Serbian city of Novi Sad, known for its exemplary architecture, multi-ethnic and multi-cultural atmosphere with natural elegance and old city charm. In Serbian language, the synonyms for the word sad (plantation) are: garden, yard and bed of flowers. One of the first impressions Novi Sad usually makes is that the city nurtures beauty and grace around every corner.

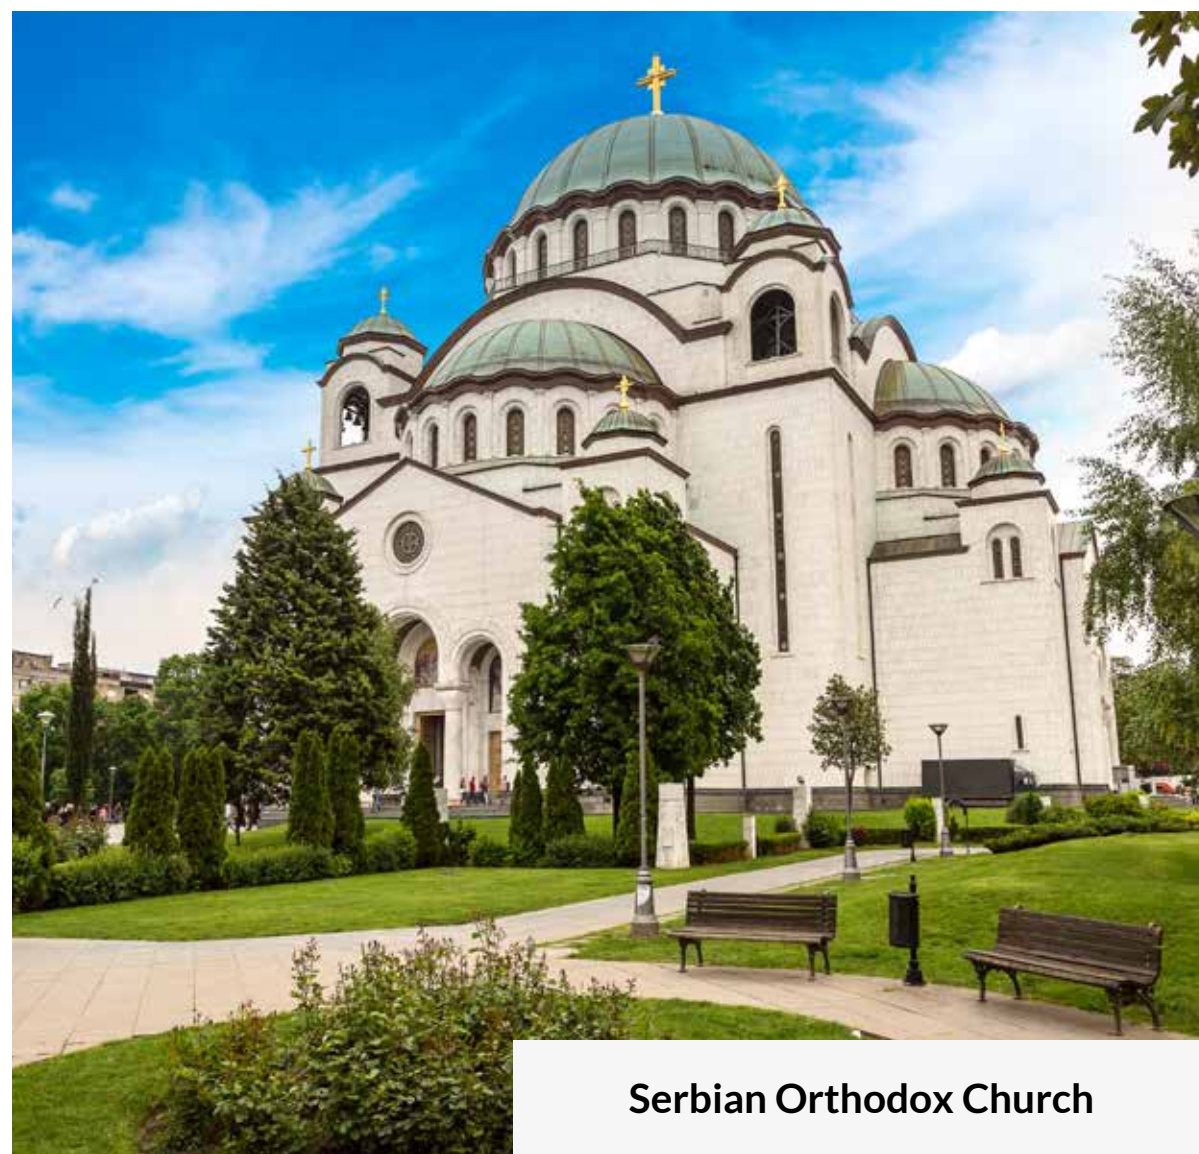

Easy-going and surrounded by fertile lowland, Fruška Mountain and the Danube, this city is a pearl amongst the Serbian cities. It is also called the "Serbian Athens" and is home to south-east Europe's largest music festival, EXIT. This summer music festival has earned a global reputation for its diversity and cutting-edge music.

Next, you will be visiting the historic Petrovaradin Fortress. The Fortress is located on the banks of the Danube River and overlooks Novi Sad. Because of its strategic role through several centuries, it has long been known as the “Gibraltar of the Danube”. However, it is a town museum today.

Later on, you would be witnessing the grandeur of the great Fruska Gora, a towering mountain in Serbia known for its untroubled pristine landscapes and unspoilt nature. Feel the essence of calmness in its tranquil surroundings. The mountain is also known for being home to many Orthodox monasteries and hence, it is perfectly alright to say that the mountain serves as guardians of Serbian traditions and customs.
