

The Bourbons in Naples: history, art and power

A journey through palaces, fortresses, and Bourbon memories, from royal Naples to the capitals of the Abruzzo provinces

An itinerary that unveils the legacy of the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies, between splendor and revolutions. In Abruzzo, the cities of Chieti, L'Aquila, and Teramo reveal the administrative and cultural soul of the kingdom, while the fortress of Civitella del Tronto recalls the last Bourbon resistance. In Vasto, the architecture of Pietrocola and the works Royal Palace of Caserta of Palizzi evoke the artistic vibrancy of the 19th century. Then the majestic and the village of San Leucio, symbols of power and innovation. Finally, Naples, a lively and cosmopolitan capital, with its Royal Palace and the grandeur of the San Carlo Theatre.
