Aging in barrique

Beautiful, intense ruby-red color with remarkable brightness.

Complex aromatic profile with fruity and spicy notes; evokes red fruit, especially cherry. Well-integrated hints of fruit and vanilla.

Soft yet structured on the palate. Tannins are present but refined, with a silky texture.

Pairs beautifully with rich, flavorful dishes such as succulent meats, game, and well-aged cheeses. Ideal when the moment calls for a glass that combines elegance with true sensory depth.
