

ASK · Q

A game changer for legal teams.

Nice to meet you, we're Ask Q

There's no denying it - the legal space is in radical transformation. Higher volumes, more complex regulations and smaller talent pools have made it harder for legal teams. And rapid evolutions in tech have brought us into a pivotal moment. It's clear: legal teams need to reinvent themselves. And the time is now.

Reinventing legal teams, that's exactly what we're doing here at Ask Q. We offer innovative services with a more strategic or a more operational angle, but always closely intertwined. Doing so, we enable customers to embrace change today and build the legal team of tomorrow.

How do we revitalize and energize?

☑ Contracts

Contracts are the fuel of business. But if you ask a legal counsel what stresses them out the most, they will likely name contract work as the main challenge. Our Contracts Lab tackles the constant bottlenecks caused by contracts, relieving the pressure on legal teams.

☑ Legal Ops

More and more legal teams are reaching their limits. Working harder or hiring faster used to do the trick, but these solutions no longer cut it. Our Legal Operations Lab helps you to look at longstanding problems through a new lens.

☑ Data Protection

Love them or hate them, the GDPR and other data protection laws are here to stay. We're there to help legal teams tackle the huge volume of work and bottlenecks in compliance workstreams.
