

UOHOAT

Nouvelle Vague

Nokat is a French painter and visual artist. Her universe is influenced by the misappropriation of brands and logos, alchemy, contemporary characters, vintage and pop culture. Always attentive to detail, she creates a subtle blend of collage and paint that can be appreciated from near and far, as these visuals often conceal others.

She draws her raw materials from the street, flea markets and other places where objects, toys, books, magazines and old-fashioned posters try to reinvent themselves.
