

BIODATA

Gelsomina Vigliotti
Vice-President

Prior to her appointment as Vice-President, Gelsomina Vigliotti was the Director General for International Financial Relations at the Italian Treasury, responsible for coordinating activities related to the international economic, monetary and financial system and multilateral development institutions. In this position, she served as Deputy Deputy to the G7 and G20 groups, responsible for preparing and managing the Italian G7 Presidency in 2017 and G20 Presidency in 2021.

She also served as the Italian Alternate Governor of the major multilateral development banks, being a member of the EIB Board of Directors and of the Administrative Council of the Council of Europe Development Bank. During her long career at the Italian Treasury, Ms Vigliotti held several positions covering both domestic and international economic policy. Between 2012 and 2015, Ms Vigliotti was the Director for European Union and euro area issues at the Italian Treasury, also serving as Alternate of the Economic and Financial Committee and Alternate Director of the European Stability Mechanism. Ms Vigliotti holds a degree in Political Science from the LUISS University in Rome and an MSc in Economics from the University of York. She carried out postgraduate studies at the University La Sapienza in Rome and the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Vice-President Gelsomina Vigliotti is currently member of the Management Committee of the EIB and Member of the Board of the European Investment Fund.