Due to the fact, that during NeuroHack the Participant may encounter propriety information associated with various projects developed by PORT or other Partners or Participants (hereinafter referred to as "Projects"), the Participant shall:

1. Uphold the confidentiality of both the propriety information and various documents related to Projects (hereinafter referred to as "Information"), notwithstanding the manner in which the Information made available.
2. Use the Information within the designated parameters of discussion and different events conducted during NeuroHack only, consequently refraining from divulging the Information for personal use and on behalf of third parties.
3. Refraining from divulging the Information, directly or indirectly, to any third party.
4. Return any and all copies of Information, including any means on which the Information is contained, with an exception of one (1) copy, that the Participant is allowed to retain.
5. The obligation of non-disclosure and use restriction set forth herein shall not apply to Information to the extent that it:
 - (a) is or becomes generally available to the public through no fault of the Participant; or

- (b) is or becomes known to, or in the rightful possession of, the Participant on a non-confidential basis from a third party having the legal right to make such disclosure; or
- (c) was lawfully in the Participant possession prior to or at the time of NeuroHack; or
- (d) was or is independently developed by or on behalf of the Participant without the aid, application or use of the Information.

6. Consent to the aforementioned obligations for a duration of five years.
