LAW FIRM INTRODUCTION

Long An Guangzhou Law Firm, established in 2009, consists of over 50 partners and nearly 200 lawyers. Most of the practicing lawyers at Long An Guangzhou have graduated from prestigious law schools both domestically and internationally, possessing a solid professional foundation and extensive practical experience.

"Making excellence a habit and service a belief" is the core value that Long An Guangzhou has always upheld. The firm fosters a harmonious and mutually supportive cultural environment through internal ethos of "Cultivating oneself to bring peace to others, achieving personal growth through helping others, mutual achievement, and warming each other."

Building on this foundation, Long An Guangzhou remains committed to the principle of "Service First, Operations King." The firm has developed significant integrated features and advantages in both backend operational management and frontend business development. This has resulted in a specialized, professional, and integrated core competitiveness, effectively overcoming the traditional law firm challenges of "working in isolation." Over the past decade, Long An Guangzhou has deeply engaged in various professional fields, including overseas services, dispute resolution, intellectual property, criminal legal affairs, capital markets/securities, real estate and construction, maritime, family and private property planning and inheritance, corporate compliance, corporate legal affairs, e-commerce, legal services for military and veterans, and private equity fund and M&A. The firm has achieved outstanding achievements and built a strong reputation, becoming a highly representative "new force in law firm transformation" in the Greater Bay Area's legal services market.
