WINE ENTHUSIAST 2024 – 87 POINTS, Nizza DOCG, La Berta 2020, Aromas of strawberry jam, licorice and mixed spices leap from the glass, hinting at the opulent richness to come. While lush and round on the palate, this wine's ripeness seems to have gotten ahead of itself, as the acidity struggles to maintain balance, leaving the fruit unchecked and the overall impression a bit top heavy. — Jeff Porter
