Background

Brish Education Network is a registered Non-Government Organization (NGO) under the laws of Uganda. Founded in 2019 and officially incorporated in 2024, the organization was established with a strong commitment to reshaping the delivery of education in Uganda and East Africa. Since its inception, Brish Education Network has evolved into a vibrant hub for educational innovation and collaboration.

It was established in response to the growing demand for accessible, relevant, and globally connected education systems in East Africa. Brish Education Network brings together local and international stakeholders, including schools, universities, development agencies, and community leaders to co-create transformative learning experiences for learners, educators, and educational institutions. Its work focuses on improving quality education through international partnerships, educational tours, student and teacher exchanges, digital learning integration, and targeted skills development for youth, women, and underserved communities. By aligning its programs with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 (Quality Education), the organization is committed to ensuring inclusive and equitable education for all.

Vision: To be a leading catalyst for transformative education in Uganda and East Africa empowering learners, educators, and institutions through global exposure, innovation, and inclusive learning opportunities.

Mission

To enhance education delivery in Uganda by building strong partnerships, promoting international exchange programs, and offering innovative, inclusive, and skills-based learning experiences that respond to 21st-century needs.
