Kuopio, the capital of good life

The Kuopio region is situated in central Finland, in the verdant province of North Savo. In Kuopio, everything is close by – nature, culture, entertainment and services –so you don't waste time travelling instead of enjoying!

Kuopio, with a population of 120,000 inhabitants, is a continuously developing centre of education, culture and industry. As the famous "Capital of the Lakeland District," it's the tourism hub and hosts a broad range of cultural and entertainment events. The area's landscape sparkles with lakes, islands and forest-covered hills. Fans of boating, hiking and other outdoor activities are spoilt for choice here.
