A TASTE OF THE FUTURE

The JANUS GROUP, headquartered in The Netherlands, is a global leader in product supply, specializing in delivering high-quality food, FMCG, and nutritional products.

Operating through distinct entities like Janus Commodities Ltd. in London, Janus Dairies B.V., and Janus Services B.V. in Den Haag, each company focuses on specific product segments.

Founded in 1996 by CEO Mr. Sunil L. Samtani, the group has established strong connections within Central and West African communities. As a key provider of diverse goods, JANUS GROUP continues substantial growth, offering a broad range of day-to-day products.

Our mission is to enhance better health and wellness in every African home by providing safe, tasty, and quality food and household items at affordable prices. JANUS aims to grow its business by expanding its product range in existing African markets while carefully exploring neighboring markets and supply chain options in a socially, environmentally, and economically sustainable manner. We target new markets only where opportunities align with our supply chain and product groups to strengthen profitability.
