

Financial Analyst - 6 month internship

M&A and Project Finance – Energy Transition

Based in Paris – July 2026

Company description

Finergreen is a boutique investment bank dedicated to the energy transition. Founded in 2013, the company has already completed more than 250 transactions. With 100+ people based in a strong network of offices all over the world, the company provides Mergers & Acquisitions, Project Finance, Corporate Finance, and Offtake Advisory services.

We have a strong track record in deals execution since 2013 as we have supported key players on 250+ transactions; mostly with family businesses and entrepreneurs but also with large and international financial institutions.

We strongly believe that financial expertise is required as a fundamental driver of success for entrepreneurs in the energy transition industry given the large amounts of capital that need to be deployed on the long term to drive significant change on our planet.

Job description

By joining the team as an intern analyst at the Paris Finergreen office, you will work in direct contact with a growing team of around 30 professionals on active advisory mandates, which may be M&A or Project Finance, at all stages.

 - Contribute to financial models, either on Project Finance or M&A transactions
 - Draft marketing materials (teasers, info memos, other memos, etc.)
- Marketing activities
 - Manage day-to-day interactions with lenders or investors
 - Attend meetings and negotiations
- Execution
 - Monitor due diligence processes
 - Liaise and coordinate with external advisors (legal, technical, accountants etc...)
 - Manage Q&A process between investors and clients
- Finergreen activities
 - Carry out market research
 - Draft client pitches
 - Contribute to communications, marketing or other material for the company

Requirements

The ideal candidate should have an outstanding academic track record and hold a Masters or similar degree from a renowned institution, with a financial or business background (or engineering with a good financial knowledge).

They should have 6 to 12+ months of internship experience.

Experience in project finance and/or M/A in the energy transition sector, as well as experience in advisory (investment bank or M&A/advisory boutique) or investment (investment fund or asset manager) is a plus.

In addition, they should demonstrate the following skills:

- Dynamism and a strong work ethic
- The ability to learn quickly and take initiatives in allocated tasks
- The ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- Time management, organizational skills and great reliability
- Strong financial analysis and accounting skills, proven financial modelling skills (Excel)
- Communication skills (both oral and written)
- Knowledge of the energy transition sector is a plus
- Fluency in French and English (written and spoken) and ability to draft documents in English

Why join the Paris team

- To acquire strong financial skills (financial structuring, balance sheet analysis, modelling...) and gain solid knowledge related to financial transactions (project finance and M&A)
- To work in a human-sized company with a young, dynamic team and inspiring colleagues
- To evolve in an entrepreneurial framework where everyone participates in the growth of the company
- For the cross-functional approach to our activities, which encourages teamwork and excellence
- For opportunities for advancement, based on professional performance and meritocracy (the successful completion of the internship could result in a long-term contract or international mobility within the Group)
- For the friendly and caring work environment (team activities, annual seminar, bi-annual international offsite)

What more we offer

- A complete training included in your onboarding program to share the fundamentals
- A tutor and a « buddy » to help you navigate through the internship and answer your questions .

- Reimbursement of 50% of the NAVIGO pass or “forfait mobilité durable”
- Meal vouchers of up to 264€/month, 50% of which is covered by Finergreen
- 5 days off during the internship
