

ABOUT

Melinda Dincă is an Associate Professor in the Sociology Department, Faculty of Sociology and Social Work, at West University of Timișoara (UVT), Romania. She holds a PhD in Sociology (2008) from the University of Bucharest and a doctoral grant in Social Anthropology at Université de Fribourg from the SCOPES program of the Swiss National Fund for Scientific Research (2005-2006). She defended her habilitation thesis in 2024 and coordinates doctoral studies in Sociology.

She has conducted extensive fieldwork in marginalised communities, on the work integration process of disadvantaged people like Roma ethnics, young NEETs, persons with disabilities, migrants and refugees. Her research interests include social identity, social inclusion, cultural diversity, team-based and problem-based learning, and the internationalisation of higher education curricula in social sciences.

Her recent research activities include participation in European projects such as: Bringing Real Life into Virtual Classrooms - EEA Grants (2022-2023), Ecosystems for Higher Education Inclusion - HORIZON-MSCA-SE-2024 (2025-2029), Sustainable Accessibility to the Labour Market - Interreg Europe (2024-2027), and Smart Shrinkage Solutions – HORIZON-2020 (2017-2020).

Since 2012, Melinda has been coordinating the International Summer School in Social Anthropology, a blended, international co-teaching and co-learning intensive programme between UVT and the University of Fribourg, Switzerland. She is also responsible for the internationalisation of curricula within the European Alliance UNITA through collaborative international learning activities and cultural exchange (COIL/Virtual Exchange).
