

Nezihe Tuğba
Tunçkaya
Çelik, MD

*Occupational & Public
Health Physician | EU
Project Implementation*

Medical doctor at Sincan District Health Directorate (Ankara), working in occupational and public health with a strong focus on prevention, workplace wellbeing and community-based interventions. Experienced in translating public health policies into real-life practice at district level.

Holds a Master's degree in Pharmaceutical

Mehmet Celal
Almaz, MD, -
PhD (cand.)

*District Health Director |
Public Health Leadership &
Coordination*

District Health Director of Ankara Sincan District for the past three years. Holds a Master's degree in Occupational Health and Safety and is finalising PhD studies at Ankara University.

Leads a district health system serving approximately 600,000 citizens, with an institutional structure of around 600 staff members,

Şeyma Nur Elif
Erdoğan, MD

*Family Medicine Specialist |
Field Implementation &
Preventive Care*

Medical doctor, Gazi University Faculty of Medicine graduate (2018). Completed Family Medicine specialty training at Dışkapı Training and Research Hospital (2021). Holds certifications in Occupational Medicine, Mesotherapy and Cupping Therapy (GETAT).

Professional experience includes primary care delivery, preventive health services, smoking cessation programmes and

Technology (Cosmetology) from Hacettepe University and a Master's degree in Medical Aesthetics from the University of Camerino (Rome). Completed Erasmus medical traineeships in Germany and actively participated in Erasmus+ activities, including a TCA on Active and Healthy Living in Lithuania.	including nearly 200 physicians, delivering primary care and preventive health services. Provides strategic leadership, institutional coordination and governance, ensuring alignment of projects with national health policies and local system capacity.	workplace health. Academic interests and publications cover topics such as nomophobia, smoking, occupational health and eating disorders.
Currently involved in Erasmus+ KA210 small partnership projects. Expertise includes non-communicable disease prevention, active lifestyle promotion, health literacy, screening programmes and digital health tools. In Horizon Europe projects, contributes primarily as an implementation partner, offering access to large populations, pilot testing environments, stakeholder coordination and support for evaluation and scalability.	Acts as institutional lead and strategic coordinator in European cooperation, including Erasmus+ KA210 partnerships, supporting sustainable integration of project outcomes into public health services.	Contributes to projects through field-level implementation, patient engagement, preventive interventions and real-life testing, particularly within community and primary care settings.

Team Strength at a Glance

- Direct access to large and diverse populations at district level ($\approx 600,000$ citizens)
- Strong real-life implementation capacity for pilots and testing in public health settings
- Complementary roles covering leadership, coordination and field delivery