Welcome to the Diaspora Business Forum 2024!

Organized under the auspices of the Government of the Republic of Moldova, through the Diaspora Relations Bureau and in collaboration with central public institutions and diaspora associations, the Diaspora Days in Moldova are an annual event, conducted in accordance with Government Decision No. 735/2016. The event spans two consecutive days. On the second day, the Diaspora Business Forum takes place, where guests present trends and priorities in the national economy, as well as investment opportunities in the Republic of Moldova.

UNDP Moldova has been invited to contribute to the organization of the Diaspora Business Forum during the 11th edition of the Diaspora Days, scheduled to take place on the 18th of August 2024. Slated for the second day of the event, the Business Forum aims to draw entrepreneurs and potential investors from the diaspora to Moldova. The Forum will facilitate the exploration of economic trends, partnership opportunities, and investment possibilities within the country, with the goal of promoting local products, attracting investments, and identifying new opportunities for expanding exports.
