

ENODELTA – CAV. ANTONIO CAPUTO

Vesuvio in a Bottle Since 1937

Founded in the 1980s by Cav. Antonio Caputo, Enodelta carries forward the winemaking legacy begun in 1937 in Afragola by his grandfather. With bold vision and entrepreneurial spirit, Antonio transformed a family tradition into a brand of international excellence.

Today, Nicola and Annina Caputo represent the fourth generation, leading the company with passion, cutting-edge technology, and deep respect for their land.

Key Figures

- 13 hectares of estate-owned vineyards
- 2 main locations: Acerra (Naples) and Lapio (Avellino)
- 400,000 bottles/year in various formats from 375ml to 1.5L
- Presence in 4 continents
- Over 100 international awards

I Vini Enodelta

IGT Campania

- Aglianico
- Falanghina (fermo e frizzante)
- Piediroso
- Coda di Volpe
- Pallagrello (bianco e nero)

DOC

- Lacryma Christi del Vesuvio (bianco, rosato, rosso)
- Gragnano Penisola Sorrentina
- Aglianico Irpinia / Sannio
- Falanghina del Sannio
- Asprinio d’Aversa (Alberata)

DOCG

- Taurasi
- Greco di Tufo
- Fiano di Avellino

