Our label in an exclusive export network

Join a global family that shares your ambition. At House of Export, you collaborate with trusted partners, gain insights into key markets, and build valuable, long-term relationships. Whether you're a brand or a distributor, we help you grow with confidence and purpose.

Our partner in export clinics

A strong distribution network starts with insight and ends with impact. That's why, in the FMCG segment, we collaborate with FMCG Opleidingen. With their expertise in market knowledge, training, and distribution strategy, they ensure your products not only reach the shelves, but truly make a difference.

FMCG  OPLEIDINGEN

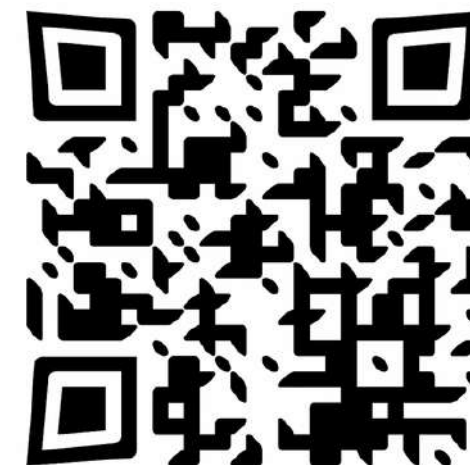

Our partner in sustainability

At Export Partner, we believe that sustainable growth and international trade go hand in hand. That's why we collaborate with Trajecta Carbon, an expert in sustainability across the value chain. Want to export successfully and sustainably? We help companies trade responsibly across borders.

Our partner in eSims

Simmetry makes international travel easier with direct access to reliable global eSIMs. No physical SIM cards, no unexpected roaming charges, just seamless mobile internet wherever you go. Activate in minutes and stay connected worldwide. Scan the QR code below to explore our eSIM offering and enjoy 20% off all eSIMs with the code: EPFAMILY.

Our partner in shipment

Successful exporting requires more than just a solid strategy, it also demands flawless logistics. That's why we work with Buus Logistics and CEVA Logistics, two experienced partners in global freight movement. From road and air freight to complex supply chain solutions, they ensure your products reach their destination quickly, safely, and sustainably. This way, you can focus on growth, while we make sure everything runs smoothly.
