

Who we are

CCI Europe unites 60+ childhood cancer organisations across 30+ countries, representing patients, survivors, and parents and coordinating action to improve outcomes and support.

What we are working on

- A strong childhood cancer patient advocacy network
- Improvements in diagnosis, treatment and care
- Better access to survivorship care
- Influencing research to better meet the needs of children affected by cancer.

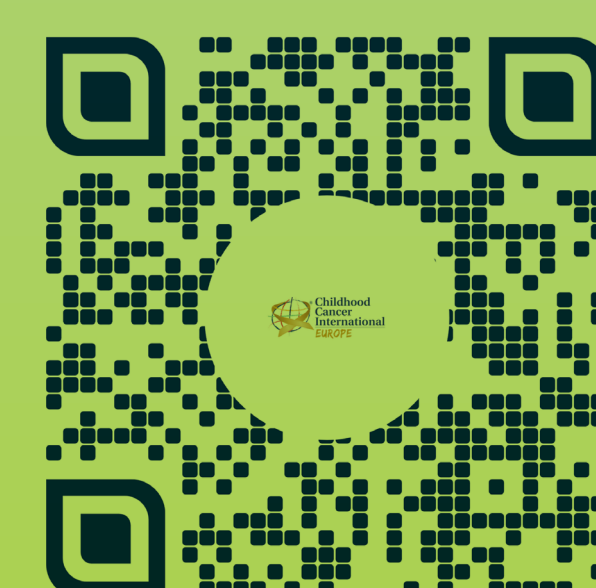

What's the one thing we need next

We need EU to ensure sustainability of ongoing initiatives, funding and policy engagement to preserve progress and keep childhood cancer high on Europe's health and research agenda.
