ICA World

Celebrating the Human Dimension

Since 2014, we have annually organised 10 live networking events to facilitate personal connections between members, partners, and donors and build a successful business community.

Networking for Development

What is ICA World?

Since 2012, ICA World - the International Consulting Alliance - has been facilitating long-term cooperation among its growing network of trusted partners in Development Cooperation.

The Alliance brings together independent organisations and experts, each with specialised technical or geographic expertise, collaborating on donor-funded projects worldwide.

Our goal is to help our members win together new projects, ensure high-quality project delivery, and create a lasting, sustainable impact.

We promote local ownership and exchanges of good practices.

ICA Achievements

Over the years, ICA has consolidated its expertise in many technical sectors and expanded its presence in all continents.

We are proud of our 100+ member organisations and 50+ top experts, from 70+ countries worldwide.

Our members are currently implementing over 300 projects in +90 countries, financed by over 80 international and bilateral donors and numerous private, governmental and non-governmental funding agencies, for over 430€ million budget overall!

Who are our Members?

Our Members are Development Cooperation actors with an outstanding track record of successfully implemented donor-funded projects.

ICA World welcomes diverse stakeholders, such as private companies, NGOs, foundations, academic institutions, public bodies, and individual consultants, ensuring complementarity among them.
