Events HAVE POWER

Dear Organisers,

If you are here, it means that, like us, you believe in the power of events. In how meetings between people build relationships, inspire and lead to change. In how important space, atmosphere and attention to every detail – not only from a logistical point of view, but above all from a human perspective. With this in mind, we invite you to the world of Unirest Hotels, places that live and breathe with events.

In Kraków – where two hotels under one roof pulsate with the rhythm of conferences.

In Gdańsk – where intimacy meets the business pace of the city.

In Radom – where modernity and a central location facilitate the organisation of any event.

In Oświęcim – where events with real heart are created by the Soła River.

Each of our Hilton hotels is a team of people who perfectly understand what "last slide in the morning", "room layout change an hour before" or "banner lost in transit" mean. These are not just spaces – they are partners who work with you towards a common goal. With a smile, commitment and enormous respect for your work. I know the taste of morning coffee at 5:30 a.m., just before guest registration. And I know how much it means to know that someone is watching over everything.

I invite you to work with us – with heart, experience and a genuine desire to create something good.

See you in our hotels.
With warm regards,

Barbara Stawiarska
Sales Director
Unirest Hotels Group
