The Château Haut-Meyreau date back to 1802. Over the years, the domain has evolved and expanded to over 90 hectares of vines planted in the Entre-Deux-Mers region. The terroir requires a careful understanding of the soil and the messages it conveys in order to achieve a wine of such quality. Something which has pushed our team of skilled wine growers to orient our practices towards sustainable viticulture, earning us the hugely rewarding 'High Environmental Value' label.
