

Osmangazi District/Bursa the First Capital of the Ottoman Empire

- Osmangazi is the district of Bursa which is located in northwestern Türkiye, known as the first capital of the Ottoman Empire.
- Bursa is Türkiye's 4th largest city with a total of 3.056.120.
- Osmangazi is the largest district of Türkiye with a daytime approximately 1 million.
- Osmangazi is the mix of Ottoman heritage, natural beauty, and modern industry.

Osmangazi Municipality

Our municipality serves Osmangazi, which is one of the biggest districts of Türkiye, with 136 neighbourhoods and an area of 70,783 hectares with approximately 3000 employees and 30 directorates.

Osmangazi, which is the central district of Bursa, has a history of 2300 years and hosts many of these historical symbols. Osmangazi; It is a tourism city with its historical and cultural riches, mountain and thermal springs, an agricultural city with its unique nature and fertile plain, and an industrial and commercial city with its industrial facilities and industry.