PETERKA PARTNERS

Profile of the Firm

Legal services in CEE and around the world

PETERKA PARTNERS has a deep understanding of the global legal market, which enables the firm to manage legal cases effectively within Central and Eastern Europe, as well as in other countries worldwide. The efficient coordination of multiple jurisdictions is ensured by its centralized Department of External Relations. To be able to assist clients active in the broader international arena, PETERKA PARTNERS has built strong working and personal relations with several law firms in 90 countries of the world, providing clients with access to the best local lawyers in each jurisdiction. The firm is a member of the international networks of independent law firms, TerraLex, the International Lawyers Network, and Globaladvocaten.

A UNIQUE client-focused service model

- A single delivery point for legal services throughout the entire CEE region
- The opportunity to truly “outsource” legal services within the CEE region
- One partner dedicated to coordinating all client activities in the entire region
- Knowledge of the client’s business structures, corporate cultures, sample documents, etc., and the ability to use this knowledge in different countries in the CEE region for the client’s benefit
- All services can be governed by a single agreement on the provision of legal services
- A unified fee structure and invoicing system and adapted legal fees as a result of important regional synergies
- Stable legal services throughout the region

“The leaders of the firm are not only great lawyers; they represent our vision to become the leading firm in the CEE region and the best of our values: professionalism, independence, loyalty, integrity, ethics and local cultures. I am honored, and proud, to work with them, as indeed I am honored, and proud, to work with all of the lawyers and staff of the ten offices of the firm.”
