FOOD PASS

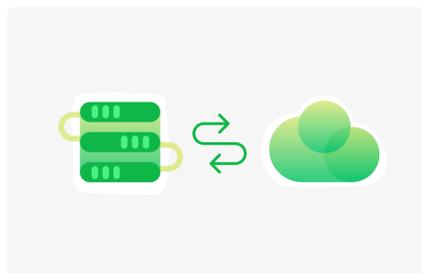

Seeding Innovation — Behind the Scenes.

FoodPass is not an application. It's a digital reflection of real-life processes and relations. Technically, interconnected products, IoT sensors, and external data providers form a secure data platform. Functionally, it connects all actors and services in agri-food production.

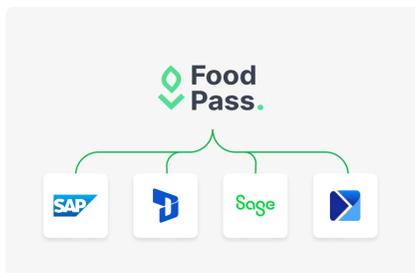

Breaking Boundaries — Exploring Possibilities.

We are ready to take up all the challenges you can think of on functional, technical, and business levels.

SaaS & Private Service

The system is available as a cloud service or can be installed on your servers. Discover unlimited customization possibilities, data analysis, and expansion with dedicated features tailored to your business needs.

Systems Integration

Achieve data synergy and automate processes through integration with existing IT systems.
