

Pillar 3

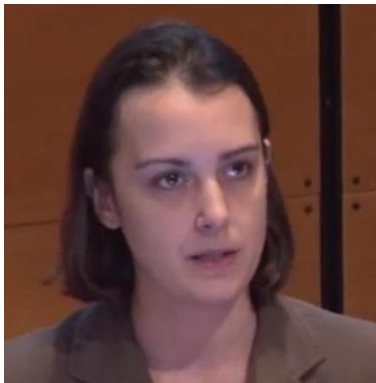

Session 3.2 European Innovation Council (EIC) - SME instrument

Lucia Iñigo Paarmann

Nanotechnologies, Advanced Materials, Manufacturing &

Processing Division of European Programmes – Horizon 2020

Directorate of European Programmes, Space and Technological Returns

Lucia Iñigo Paarmann works currently at the Centre of Industrial Technological Development (CDTI) of the Spanish Ministry of Economy, Industry and Competitiveness as Spanish Representative in the NMBP Management Programme Committee of the Leadership in Enabling and Industrial Technologies Pillar of Horizon 2020.

She has experience in European RTDI programmes and policies since Framework Programme 6 and is specialized in Industrial Innovation Strategy. She holds a MSc. Civil Engineer and is following a PhD programme in this field. Lucía has held previous positions as strategy analyst in CDTI and as researcher and RTDI projects manager in a private company linked to processes and materials research.

