

Pillar 3

Session 3.6 Metrology - next steps

Hans Arne Frøystein

Chairperson

EURAMET

Born 1 September 1961, Voss, Norway. MSc in Phys & Math (1987 NTH, Trondheim) plus Master of management studies (2009 BI, Oslo). Employed by Justervesenet, the Norwegian NMI, from 1987, first 5 years in electromagnetic metrology, then from 1992 Director, Head of National Metrology Laboratory of JV. Establishment of the new laboratory facility of JV at Kjeller (1997) and development of the laboratory activities, metrology services, KT, R&D. Training, education and assessments in Norway and abroad. Active in technical work and projects in EURAMET, EUROMET, WECC, EA. Expert/team leader for various projects related to quality infrastructure and metrology i.a. to the Dominican Republic, Czech Republic, Pakistan, Serbia. Delegate to EURAMET from 2016. EURAMET Chairperson from June 2018 through May 2021.

