KEN BLOCK JOINS THE 2021 SAFARI CLASSIC RALLY

The management of the EASCR are pleased to announce confirmation of a new entry - world famous Hoonigan, Ken Block will be entering in a specially prepared Tuthill Porsche 911.

Ken has had a long and successful career across many forms of motorsport and has an enormous following across all major media channels with approaching 500 million views of his films on his YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCpCJOy-y03qPIG4zrYAAvQ>

Ken Block said "This is going to be a wild year! And the opportunity to do things like the Safari Rally with Tuthill Porsche is huge. I can't wait to push myself to the absolute limit, across some of the gnarliest terrain, in an air cooled 911 prepared by the best in the business."

EASCR Managing Director, Lynn Tundo, said: ""We are delighted to welcome such a world-renowned driver as Ken Block for the tenth edition of EASCR. Such a big name driver is testament to the long standing reputation of this great classic rally".

Richard Tuthill of Tuthill Porsche said, "I am delighted that one of the most influential figures of the motorsport world is joining us for the EASCR in Kenya! With his extraordinary breadth and depth of experience we know he will be a serious contender in such an event. I can't wait to meet in person and help him get comfortable at the wheel of a safari Porsche, which we all know is one of life's great experiences!!"

The East African Safari Classic Rally will run from November 1st - 9th across more than 4,000km of Kenya's majestic scenery and stunning driving roads.
