

It's finally time for the next

Knowledge exchange

between the Ghana Registered Midwives' Association (GRMA) and the Swedish Association of Midwives (SBF)

October 31st, 2022

5 -6.30 PM - Ghana

6-7.30 PM - Sweden

This online seminar is organized to create a space where members from GRMA, SBF and other professional associations can exchange ideas and knowledge with each other online.

The theme of this seminar will on be experiences of midwives in managing obstetric emergencies. A researcher from Ghana will make a presentation and then all participants will be given the opportunity to discuss it. What are the related challenges? What is the midwife's role? What differences can we see in our routines and what can we learn from one another?
