Living Out the Christian Faith in Our Vocation: A Reponse-able People
Isaiah 59:14-21

Vocation: All Christians are called by God in whatever situations we find ourselves ...

What makes us respond?
What makes us response-able [responsible] people?

Relationship between Knowledge and Responsibility

Seeing what you see ... knowing what you know ... how will you respond?

"They who know the most must mourn the deepest." – Lord Byron

Jerry's Story

Responses to Knowledge and Responsibility

- a) Stoicism: not my business
- b) Cynicism: Get real!

But Incarnation! [Isaiah 59:14-17]
A Model to Imitate, a Call to Respond = God moved into our messy neighbourhood, because of love.

Mervyn's Story

Cindy's Story

In what ways are you implicated for love's sake? For God's sake?
In what ways are you response-able?

Questions for Sharing and Reflection

1. What makes you feel most encouraged/fulfilled about your vocation/work?
2. What has made you feel most discouraged/frustrated/disillusioned about your vocation/work?
3. You have seen what your job/vocation entails - what keeps you doing what you do? Or knowing what you know, why do you keep on doing what you do?
