

LESSONS FROM THE KINGS: SOLOMON

1 KINGS 3: 3-14; 11: 4-6

1. How have you pursued (secular) knowledge or skills in your life? Describe your experiences doing so. Why did you pursue such knowledge/skills?
2. What are the limitations of secular knowledge/skills (“human wisdom”)? How does human wisdom differ from the wisdom of God? What does Solomon’s life story illustrate about the limitations of human wisdom?
3. What do you prioritise in your life – growing in God’s wisdom or growing in secular knowledge/skills? What changes can you make in your life to prioritise God’s wisdom?

