

MISSIONS MONTH 2023

Who Shall Go? Romans 10: 12-15

1. In Romans 10:12-15, Paul's repeated rhetorical questions highlight to us his passion to see others hear and receive the gospel? How would we gauge our passion for the gospel today? When was the last time we intentionally reached out to those outside the church?
2. Often times, mission work is considered "work reserved for the missionaries". How can we as a church, and as individuals, be engaged in mission work both locally and globally?
3. A key word in this week's sermon is the word "compassion". Examine your own heart: do we truly have compassion for the lost, or have our hearts grown numb from the busyness and worries of this life?
