

1. In Ephesians 3:1-13, Paul uses three words to describe his current circumstances: Prisoner, Steward, and Minister. What words/adjectives would best describe your present circumstances?

2. Paul repeatedly emphasises the “mystery” made known to him (and fellow believers). How is the church to respond in light of this revelation (v. 10)?

3. Paul encourages the Ephesian church “not to lose heart” in spite of his suffering. In the same way, how can we not become discouraged when faced with trials?
