1. Why is it important to acknowledge the presence of “deceivers” (2 John 1:7) in our world and even among Christian circles today? What are some of their characteristics (see 2 John 1:7, 9, 10)?
2. How can we “watch [our]selves” (2 John 1:8-9) so that we will not lose our life and relationship with God?
3. What does it mean to “not receive him” or “give him any greeting” (2 John 1:10) in terms of how we should treat false teachers (cf. 2 John 1:7)? Why is it important to respond in such seemingly harsh ways (2 John 1:11)?
