

Amos 2:6 - 3:15

1. In what ways do we neglect justice and righteousness, as Israel did (2:6-8)?
2. How does the certainty of God's judgment challenge our understanding of His justice and mercy today? What steps can we take to align with God's expectations?
3. What can we learn from Israel's past sins? How can we maintain our spiritual integrity in the face of prosperity and temptation?
