

Empathy as... emotional stewardship.

1. In what ways do you see Romans 12:15 being countercultural in today's world or challenging the values of today's culture?

2. Romans 12:15 calls us to "rejoice with those who rejoice." What keeps us from doing so, and what kind of change in our hearts is needed for us to truly share in each other's joy?

3. Romans 12:15 commands us to "weep with those who weep". Do we weep in a worldly, hopeless way—or in a godly, hope-filled way? How do we know if we are weeping in a God-honouring way?
