

ECCELESIASTES 8:1-9:10

QUESTION 1

In relation to Ecclesiastes 8:1-9: what are the limits of acceptable compromise (for example, in dealing with unjust and thin-skinned rulers)?

QUESTION 2

“Even though a wise man claims to know [all the work of God], he cannot find it out” (8:17). As a Christian do you agree with this?

QUESTION 3

Consider the Teacher's words about death and the brevity of life (9:1-10): to what extent do these words remain true for Christians?
