The Iowa State Fair Management will endeavor to protect participants from injury. The Iowa State Fair will not be held responsible for any incident, damage or loss. Should any incident occur, prompt attention is available at the First Aid Station maintained on the State Fairgrounds with a physician in-charge. All animals listed on entry forms must be entered for exhibition strictly in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Iowa State Fair and of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions contained in the Premium Book by which all exhibitors are governed. The Iowa 4-H Youth Development Program of Iowa State University, in cooperation with the Iowa State Fair, accepts exhibits and will exercise due care to protect them. However, the 4-H Staff and Iowa State Fair cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage due to the conditions imposed by large crowds, the arrangement of the building in which displays are housed and the great number of exhibits.
12. As an Iowa State Fair exhibitor, I hereby acknowledge that my photograph may be taken by the official Iowa State Fair photographer for use by the Iowa State Fair and agree to release and hold harmless the State of Iowa, Iowa State Fair Authority, their officers, employees and agents and any and all parties to whom this or any photograph may be released.
