

Iowa State Fair Social Media Community Guidelines

The Iowa State Fair's mission is to celebrate Iowa's agricultural heritage by providing a quality environment and facilities to further education and to offer entertainment and competition for all ages. We strive to provide opportunities for individual growth for all our Fairgoers.

In the spirit of our state's great celebration, we ask our social media fans to be civil and respectful. We welcome and appreciate comments, questions and constructive criticism, but please remember that this is a family-friendly fan page. If you have serious or lengthy criticisms or concerns, please contact the Iowa State Fair office directly at 800.545.FAIR or fill out a Contact Us form at <https://www.iowastatefair.org/about/contact-us>.

By visiting the official Iowa State Fair social media pages, our users agree to adhere to the following guidelines:

- Users will refrain from posting comments that use inappropriate language (graphically or in tone) which may include but is not limited to language that is degrading, offensive, defamatory, profane, discriminatory or obscene.
- Users will not post comments that include personal attacks to persons or groups active on our page. Attacks or defamatory statements targeted at specific members of Fair staff will not be tolerated.
- Users will refrain from posting content that is factually inaccurate or misleading as well as content that offers unsupported or false accusations.
- Users will not post comments soliciting, promoting one's services, or advertising any commercial ventures, activities or services not directly related to the Iowa State Fair.
- Users will not post material promoting political candidates, points of view, causes, fundraising goals or outreach efforts not relevant to the Iowa State Fair.
- Users will not post content that may interfere, inhibit, or compromise the safety of our guests or our event facility.

Posts that violate our user guidelines will be removed promptly without notice. Users that repeatedly engage in behavior which conflicts with our user agreement may be blocked from our page.

Please note: This policy is subject to change. The Iowa State Fair reserves the right to add to or modify our current user guidelines.
