2. Shares

2.1 Issue of securities

Without prejudice to any special rights conferred on the holders of any securities, any security in the capital of the Company may be issued with preferred, deferred or other special rights, obligations or restrictions, whether in regard to dividends, voting, return of share capital, payment of calls or otherwise, as the Board may from time to time determine. Except as provided by contract or this Constitution to the contrary, all unissued shares are under the control of the Board which may grant options on the shares, issue option certificates in respect of the shares, allot or otherwise dispose of the shares on the terms and conditions and for the consideration it thinks fit. The Company will maintain a register of options in accordance with the Act.

2.2 Power to pay commission and brokerage

The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of the person subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company. The Company may in addition to or instead of a commission pay any brokerage permitted by law.

2.3 Surrender of shares

In its discretion, the Board may accept a surrender of shares by way of compromise of any question as to whether or not those shares have been validly issued or in any other case where the surrender is within the powers of the Company. Any shares surrendered may be sold or re-issued in the same manner as forfeited shares.

2.4 Joint holders

Where 2 or more persons are registered as the holders of any shares, they are deemed to hold the shares as joint tenants with benefits of survivorship subject to the following provisions:

- (a) Number of holders - the Company is not bound to register more than 3 persons as the holders of the shares (except in the case of trustees, executors or administrators of a deceased shareholder);
- (b) Liability for payments - the joint holders of the shares are liable severally as well as jointly in respect of all payments which ought to be made in respect of the shares;
- (c) Death of joint holder - on the death of any one of the joint holders, the survivor is the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to the shares but the Board may require evidence of death;
- (d) Power to give receipt - any one of the joint holders may give a receipt for any dividend, bonus or return of capital payable to the joint holders;
- (e) Notices and certificates - only the person whose name stands first in the Register as one of the joint holders of the shares is entitled if the Company is required by the Act to issue certificates for shares, to delivery of a certificate relating to the shares or to receive notices from the Company and any notice given to that person is deemed notice to all the joint holders; and
- (f) Votes of joint holders - any one of the joint holders may vote at any meeting of the Company either personally or by duly authorised representative, proxy or attorney, in respect of the shares as if that joint holder was solely entitled to the shares. If more than one of the joint holders are present at any meeting personally or by duly authorised representative, proxy or attorney, the joint holder who is present whose name stands first in the Register in respect of the shares is entitled alone to vote in respect of the shares.

2.5 Non-recognition of equitable interests

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, the Company is entitled to treat the registered holder of any shares as the absolute owner of the share and is not, except as ordered by a Court or as required by statute, bound to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable or other claim to or interest in the share or the part of any other person.

2.6 Issue of and rights attaching to preference shares

- (a) The Company may issue preference shares (including those which may be, or at the option of either or both the Company and the holder are, liable to be redeemed) and may convert any issued shares into preference shares, if the rights of the holders of the preference shares are set out in rule 2.6(b) or are approved by special resolution of the Company in accordance with the Act.
- (b) If the Company at any time proposes to issue any preference shares with the terms set out in this rule 2.6(b), each preference share confers on the holder:
 - (i) an entitlement to convert the preference share into an ordinary share if and on the basis the Directors resolve at the time of issue of the preference share;
 - (ii) an entitlement to a dividend in priority to holders of ordinary shares and any other class of securities as the Directors resolve at the time of issue, at the rate or of the amount and on the basis (including whether cumulative or not) the Directors resolve at the time of issue;
 - (iii) in addition to the rights pursuant to rules 2.6(b)(i) and (ii), participate with the ordinary shares in profits and assets of the Company, including on a winding up, only if and to the extent that the Directors resolve at the time of issue;
 - (iv) an entitlement in a winding up or on a reduction of capital, and on redemption in the case of a redeemable preference share, to payment in priority to ordinary shares and any other class of securities as the Directors resolve at the time of issue of:
 - (A) the amount of any dividends due but unpaid on the preference share at the date of winding up or reduction of capital, or, in the case of a redeemable preference share, the date of redemption; and
 - (B) any additional amount (which may include the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on the preference share) that the Directors resolve at the time of issue; and
 - (v) a bonus issue of capitalisation of profits in favour of holders of preference shares only, if and to the extent the Directors resolve at the time of issue of the preference share.
- (c) In the case of a redeemable preference share, the Company must, if required by the terms of issue for that preference share, at the time and place for redemption specified in or determined in accordance with the terms of issue of that preference share, redeem those preference shares and, subject to the giving or receipt of a valid redemption notice or other document required by those terms of issue, pay the amount payable upon redemption of that preference share.

- (d) Holders of a preference share have the right to vote at any general meeting of the Company in each of the following circumstances and in no others:
 - (i) during a period during which a dividend (or part of a dividend) in respect of the share is in arrears;
 - (ii) on a proposal to reduce the Company's share capital;
 - (iii) on a resolution to approve the terms of a buy-back agreement;
 - (iv) on a proposal that affects rights attached to the share;
 - (v) on a proposal to wind up the Company;
 - (vi) on a proposal for the disposal of the whole of the Company's property, business or undertaking; or
 - (vii) during the winding up of the Company.
- (e) Holders of preference shares have the same rights as holders of ordinary shares in relation to receiving notices, reports and audited accounts, and attending general meetings of the Company.

2.7 Variation of rights

If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of shareholders with at least 75% of the votes in the class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

2.8 Issue of new preference shares

The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights are, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, deemed not to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking equally with the first-mentioned shares.

2.9 Reorganisation of partly paid securities

The Company must comply with the following specific rules in relation to the way partly paid securities are treated under a reorganisation:

- (a) The number of partly paid securities must be reorganised in the same proportion as the other classes of securities; and
- (b) The reorganisation must not involve cancellation or reduction of the total amount payable and unpaid by the holder.

3. Certificates

A person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members is entitled without payment to receive a certificate in respect of the securities in accordance with the Act.

4. Calls

4.1 Power to make calls

Subject to the terms upon which any shares may have been issued, the Board may make calls from time to time upon the shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares. Each shareholder is liable to pay the amount of each call in the manner, at the time and at the place specified by the Board. Calls may be made payable by instalments.

4.2 Obligation for calls

The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of those shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of the calls.

4.3 When a call is made

A call is deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed. The call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board at any time prior to the date on which the payment in respect of the call is due.

4.4 Interest on the late payment of calls

If any sum payable in respect of a call is not paid on or before the date for payment, the shareholder from whom the sum is due is to pay interest on the unpaid amount from the due date to the date of payment at the rate the Board from time to time determines. The Board may waive the whole or part of any interest paid or payable under this rule.

4.5 Instalments

If, by the terms of an issue of shares, any amount is payable in respect of any shares by instalments, every instalment is payable as if it is a call duly made by the Board of which due notice had been given, and, subject thereto, all provisions of this Constitution with respect to the payment of calls and of interest or to the forfeiture of shares for non-payment of calls or with respect to liens or charges apply to the instalment and to the shares in respect of which is payable.

4.6 Payment in advance of calls

If the Board thinks fit it may receive from any shareholder all or any part of the moneys unpaid on all or any of the shares held by that shareholder beyond the sums actually called up and then due and payable either as a loan repayable or as a payment in advance of calls. The Company may pay interest on the moneys advanced at the rate and on the terms agreed by the Board and the shareholder paying the sum in advance.

4.7 Non-receipt of notice of call

Notice of any call will be in writing including such information as the Act may require, but the non-receipt of a notice of any call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of any call to, any shareholder does not invalidate the call.

4.8 Joint holders' liability

The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all amounts of instalments and calls in respect of the share.

4.9 Differences in terms of issue

The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and times of payment.

4.10 Recovery action

If a call is not paid the Company may proceed to recover it with interest and expenses (if any) by action, suit or otherwise. The right of action, suit or otherwise is without prejudice to the right to forfeit the share of any shareholder so in arrears and either or both of such rights may be exercised by the Directors.

4.11 Proof of call

- (a) On the trial of any action for the recovery of any call or of any interest or expenses upon or in respect of any call it is sufficient to prove that:
 - (i) the name of the shareholder sued is entered in the Register as the holder, or one of the holders, of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued; and
 - (ii) the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book; and
 - (iii) notice of such call was duly given to the registered holder of the shares or, in the case of calls or instalments payable at fixed times, by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise to prove such terms; and
 - (iv) such sum or call has not been paid.
- (b) It is not necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made the allotment or call or the passing of the resolution nor any other matters whatever. Proof of the matters in rule 4.11(a)(i) to rule 4.11(a)(iv) is conclusive evidence of the debt.

5. Forfeiture and lien

5.1 Sale under lien

The Company may sell in such manner as the Directors think fit any shares on which the Company has a lien if:

- (a) a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; and
- (b) a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled to it by reason of death or bankruptcy; and
- (c) that notice remains unsatisfied 14 days after it was given.

5.2 Notice of forfeiture

When any share is forfeited, notice of the resolution of the Board is to be given to the shareholder in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture and the date of forfeiture is to be made in the Register. Failure to give notice or make the entry as required by this rule does not invalidate the forfeiture.

5.3 Disposal of forfeited shares

Subject to the Act, any forfeited share is deemed to be the property of the Company and the Board may sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with the share in any manner it thinks fit and with or without any money paid on the share by any former holder credited as paid up.

5.4 Annulment of forfeiture

The Board may, at any time before any forfeited share is sold or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture of the share upon any conditions it thinks fit.

5.5 Liability notwithstanding forfeiture

Any shareholder whose shares have been forfeited is, notwithstanding the forfeiture, liable to pay and is obliged forthwith to pay to the Company all sums of money, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of the forfeited shares at the time of forfeiture, together with expenses and interest from that time until payment at the rate the Board from time to time determines.

5.6 Company's lien or charge

The Company has a first and paramount lien or charge for unpaid calls, instalments, reasonable interest due in relation to any calls or instalments and any amounts the Company is called upon by law to pay (and has paid) in respect of the shares of a shareholder upon shares registered in the name of the shareholder in respect of which the calls, instalments and interest are due and unpaid or in respect of which the amounts are paid and upon the proceeds of sale of the shares. The lien or charge extends to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of the shares provided that, if the Company registers a transfer of any shares upon which it has a lien or charge without giving the transferee notice of any claim it may have at that time, the shares are freed and discharged from the lien or charge of the Company in respect of that claim.

5.7 Sale of shares to enforce lien

The Company may do all such things as may be necessary or appropriate for it to do to effect a transfer or to protect any lien, charge or other right to which it may be entitled under any law or this Constitution.

5.8 Title of shares forfeited or sold to enforce lien

- (a) In a sale or a re-allotment of forfeited shares or in the sale of shares to enforce a lien or charge, an entry in the Board's minute book that the shares have been forfeited, sold or re-allotted in accordance with this Constitution is sufficient evidence of that fact as against all persons entitled to the shares immediately before the forfeiture, sale or re-allotment of the shares. The Company may receive the purchase money or consideration (if any) given for the shares on any sale or re-allotment.

- (b) In a re-allotment, a certificate signed by a Director or the Secretary to the effect that the shares have been forfeited and the receipt of the Company for the price of the shares constitutes a good title to them.
- (c) In a sale, the Company may appoint a person to execute or effect a transfer in favour of the person to whom the shares are sold.
- (d) Upon the issue of the receipt or the execution of the transfer the person to whom the shares have been re-allotted or sold is to be registered as the holder of the shares, discharged from all calls or other money due in respect of the shares prior to the re-allotment or purchase and the person is not bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money or consideration, nor is the person's title to the shares affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, sale or re-allotment.
- (e) The net proceeds of any sale or re-allotment are to be applied first in payment of all costs of or in relation to the enforcement of the lien or charge or the forfeiture (as the case may be) and of the sale or re-allotment, next in satisfaction of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is then payable to the Company (including interest) and the residue (if any) paid to, or at the direction of, the person registered as the holder of the shares immediately prior to the sale or re-allotment or to the person's executors, administrators or assigns upon the production of any evidence as to title required by the Board.
- (f) If a certificate for the shares is not produced to the Company, the Board may, where the Company is required by the Act to issue certificates for shares, issue a new certificate distinguishing it from the certificate (if any) which was not produced.

6. Payments by the Company

6.1 Payments by the Company

If any law of any place imposes or purports to impose any immediate or future or possible liability on the Company to make any payment or empowers any government or taxing authority or government official to require the Company to make any payment in respect of any securities held either jointly or solely by any holder or in respect of any transfer of those securities or in respect of any interest, dividends, bonuses or other moneys due or payable or accruing due or which may become due or payable to the holder by the Company on or in respect of any securities or for or on account or in respect of any holder of securities, whether in consequence of:

- (a) the death of the holder;
- (b) the non-payment of any income or other tax by the holder;
- (c) the non-payment of any estate, probate, succession, death, stamp or other duty by the holder or the trustee, executor or administrator of that holder or by or out of the holder's estate;

- (d) any assessment of income tax against the Company in respect of interest or dividends paid or payable to the holder; or
- (e) any other act or thing,

the Company may exercise any of the rights set out in rule 6.2.

6.2 Rights of the Company

In each of the situations described in rules 6.1(a) to 6.1(e), the Company:

- (a) is to be fully indemnified from all liability by the holder or the holder's trustee, executor or administrator and by any person who becomes registered as the holder of the securities on the distribution of the deceased holder's estate;
- (b) has a lien or charge upon the securities for all moneys paid by the Company in respect of the securities under or in consequence of any law;
- (c) has a lien upon all dividends payable in respect of the securities registered in the Register as held either jointly or solely by the holder for all moneys paid by the Company in respect of the securities under or in consequence of any law, together with interest at a rate the Board may determine from time to time from the date of payment to the date of repayment, and may deduct or set off against any dividends payable any moneys paid by the Company together with interest;
- (d) may recover as a debt from the holder or the holder's trustee, executor or administrator or any person who becomes registered as the holder of the securities on the distribution of the deceased holder's estate, any moneys paid by the Company under or in consequence of any law which exceed any dividend, bonus or other money then due or payable by the Company to the holder together with interest at a rate the Board may determine from time to time from the date of payment to the date of repayment; and
- (e) may, if any money is paid by the Company under any law, refuse to register a transfer of any securities by the holder or the holder's trustee, executor or administrator until the money and interest is set off or deducted or, in case the money and interest exceeds the amount of any dividend then due or payable by the Company to the holder, until the excess is paid to the Company.

6.3 No prejudice to the Company

Nothing in rules 6.1 or 6.2 prejudices or affects any right or remedy which any law confers on the Company, and, as between the Company and each holder, each holder's trustee, executor, administrator and estate, any right or remedy which the law confers on the Company, is enforceable by the Company.

7. Transfer of shares

7.1 Conditions on transfer of shares

All transfer or disposals of shares are subject to the conditions set out in Schedule 2 (as applicable), except for the following:

- (a) a buy-back;

- (b) an Exit made in accordance with rule 9;
- (c) a transfer of shares from a shareholder to one or more existing shareholders, provided that the registration of the transfer will not result in a change of control (where “control” has the meaning given to it in section 50AA of the Act); or
- (d) a transfer of shares from a shareholder to a related entity of that shareholder.

7.2 Instrument of transfer

Subject to this Constitution, a shareholder may transfer all or any of the shareholder’s shares by instrument in writing which is:

- (a) a sufficient instrument of transfer of securities under the Act; or
- (b) in any other usual or common form; or
- (c) in any other form approved by the Directors.

7.3 Proper instrument

If a shareholder seeks to transfer all or any of the shareholder’s shares in accordance with rule 7.1, the Company may only register a transfer of shares where an instrument satisfying rule 7.1 is delivered to the Company (including, for this purpose, a person authorised by the Company to receive instruments, such as a share registrar of the Company) and the instrument:

- (a) is duly stamped, if necessary; and
- (b) is executed by the transferor and the transferee, except where execution by either transferor or transferee is not required by law or is deemed by law to be present; and
- (c) except where otherwise permitted by law, is accompanied by the certificate for the shares the subject of the transfer where a certificate has been issued, unless the Directors waive production of the certificate on receiving satisfactory evidence of the loss or destruction of the certificate; and
- (d) is accompanied by such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or the transferor’s right to transfer the shares; and
- (e) relates only to shares of one class.

7.4 Registration Fees

Except as provided in:

- (a) rule 7.5; or
- (b) the terms of issue of the shares concerned, the Directors must register each transfer of shares which complies with rules 7.1 to 7.3 (inclusive), and may charge a reasonable fee for do so.

7.5 Restrictions on transfer

The Directors must decline to register a transfer of shares:

- (a) when required by law;

- (b) in the case of acceptances of offers made under a proportional takeover bid, when required by rule 29.2; or
- (c) if the Company is an Eligible CSF Company, registration of the transfer will place the Company in breach of the Act.

7.6 Transferor remains shareholder

The transferor of a share remains the holder of that share until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of that share.

7.7 Retention of instruments

If an instrument of transfer or a purported instrument of transfer is delivered to the Company, property to and title in that instrument (but not the shares the subject of it) passes to the Company which is entitled, as against all persons, to the possession of the instrument.

7.8 Notification of refusal to register

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of shares they must give written notice of the refusal to the transferee and the reasons for the refusal within 2 months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company.

7.9 Powers of attorney

All powers of attorney granted by shareholders for the purpose, among other things, of transferring shares which may be lodged, produced or exhibited to the Company are, as between the Company and the grantor of such powers, treated as remaining in full force and effect and they may be acted upon until such time as express notice in writing of the revocation of them or of the death of the grantor has been lodged at the Office.

7.10 Directors as attorney

Despite rule 7.9, each shareholder:

- (a) irrevocably appoints the Company and each Director and Secretary of the Company severally as his, her or its attorneys (Attorney) with the power to:
 - (i) sign, on behalf of the shareholder, the share transfer forms and any other documents required of the shareholder to effect the transfer of shares in accordance with the rights set out in clause 3 of Schedule 2;
 - (ii) sign documents on behalf of the shareholder which the shareholder must sign pursuant to clause 3 of Schedule 2; and
 - (iii) delegate its powers (including this power of delegation) to any person for any period and may revoke a delegation;
- (b) must ratify anything done by an Attorney or its delegate in accordance with this rule; and
- (c) indemnifies the Attorney against any claim, notice, demand, action, proceeding, litigation, investigation, judgment, damage, loss, cost, expense or liability however arising, whether present, unascertained, immediate, future or contingent and,

whether based in contract, tort or statute that the attorney may suffer or for which it is liable, to the extent arising from a lawful exercise of all or any of its powers under this rule.

8. Transmission of shares

8.1 Entitlement to shares on death

- (a) If a shareholder dies:
 - (i) where the deceased was a joint holder, the survivor or survivors; and
 - (ii) where the deceased was a sole holder, the legal personal representative,

If any meeting is postponed for 30 days or more then no less than 5 business days' notice must be sent to the shareholders of the postponed meeting but it is not necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the postponed meeting.

11. Proceedings of meetings

11.1 Business of general meetings

- (a) The business of an annual general meeting is to receive and consider the financial and any other reports required by the Act to be laid before each annual general meeting, to elect Directors in the place of those retiring under this Constitution, when relevant to appoint an auditor, and to transact any other business which, under this Constitution, is required to be transacted at any annual general meeting.

- (b) If a separate meeting place is linked to the main place of a general meeting by an instantaneous audio-visual communication device which, by itself or in conjunction with other arrangements:

If the Chair exercises a right of adjournment of a meeting pursuant to this rule, the Chair has the sole discretion to decide whether to seek the approval of the shareholders present to the adjournment and, unless the Chair exercises that discretion, no vote may be taken by the shareholders present in respect of the adjournment. No business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

- (a) Each question submitted to a general meeting is to be described in the first instance by a show of hands of the shareholders present and entitled to vote. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chair, both on a show of hands and on a poll, has no casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the Chair may be entitled as a shareholder or as a proxy, attorney or duly appointed representative of a shareholder.

- (b) On a show of hands, where the Chair has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution, the Chair cannot vote.

11.9 Declaration of vote on a show of hands when poll demanded

11.10 Taking a poll

If a poll is demanded as provided in rule 11.9, it is to be taken in the manner and at the time and place as the Chair directs, and the result of the poll is deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn. In the case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the Chair's determination in respect of the dispute made in good faith is final.

11.11 Continuation of business

A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. A poll demanded on any question of adjournment is to be taken at the meeting immediately and without adjournment.

12. Special meetings

All the provisions of this Constitution as to general meetings apply to any special meeting of any class of shareholders which may be held pursuant to the operation of this Constitution or the Act.

- (c) a shareholder may, by providing to the Company valid notice of their voting intention and in accordance with rule 13.2, cast one vote for each fully paid share held (direct vote). If a shareholder casts a direct vote on a particular resolution, they are taken to have revoked the authority of a previously authorised proxy to vote on their behalf on that resolution;
- (d) the Company must not remove or change a security holder's right to vote, unless this is done in accordance with the Act.

13.2 Direct Voting

- (a) Despite any other provision of this Constitution, the Board may determine that, at any general meeting, a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at that meeting is entitled to a direct vote.
- (b) A direct vote includes a vote delivered to the Company by hand, post, facsimile transmission or other electronic means approved by the Board.
- (c) The Board may prescribe rules to govern direct voting including rules specifying the form, method and timing of giving the direct vote in order for the vote to be valid.

13.3 Voting rights of personal representatives

Any person entitled under rule 8 to transfer any shares may vote at a general meeting in the same manner as if the person were the registered holder of the shares provided that at least 48 hours before the time of holding the meeting at which the person proposes to vote the person has satisfied the Board of the person's right to transfer the shares, unless the Board has previously admitted the person's right to vote at the meeting in respect of the shares.

13.4 Appointment of proxies

- (a) Any shareholder entitled to vote at a general meeting may appoint a proxy. Any shareholder who is entitled to cast 2 or more votes at a general meeting may appoint not more than 2 proxies to vote at a general meeting on that shareholder's behalf and may direct the proxy or proxies to vote for or against or to abstain or to vote at the proxy's discretion in relation to each or any resolution but need not so direct their proxy or proxies on any particular resolution.
- (b) The Company must record in the minutes of a general meeting, in respect of each resolution in the notice of meeting, the total number of proxy votes exercisable by all proxies validly appointed and:
 - (i) if the resolution is decided on a show of hands - the total number of proxy votes in respect of which the appointment specified that:
 - (A) the proxy is to vote for the resolution;
 - (B) the proxy is to vote against the resolution;
 - (C) the proxy is to abstain on the resolution; and
 - (D) the proxy is to vote at the proxy's discretion;
 - (ii) if the resolution is decided on a poll - the information specified in rule 13.4(b)(i) and the total number of votes cast on the poll:
 - (A) in favour of the resolution;
 - (B) against the resolution; and
 - (C) abstaining on the resolution.
- (c) A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company.
- (d) Where a shareholder appoints 2 proxies and each proxy is not appointed to represent a specified proportion of the shareholder's voting rights, then each proxy may exercise half of the shareholder's voting rights.
- (e) The instrument appointing a proxy (and the power of attorney, if any, under which it is signed or proof of the power of attorney to the satisfaction of the Board) must be deposited duly stamped (if necessary) at the Office, faxed to the Office or deposited, faxed or sent by electronic mail to any other place specified in the notice of meeting at least 48 hours (or a lesser period as the Directors may determine and stipulate in the notice of meeting) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or poll at or on which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote.
- (f) No instrument appointing a proxy is, except as provided in this rule, valid after the expiration of 12 months after the date of its execution. Any shareholder may deposit at the Office an instrument duly stamped (if necessary) appointing a proxy and the appointment is valid for all or any stipulated meetings of the Company.

13.5 Voting by corporation

Any corporation, being a shareholder and entitled to vote, may by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by an instrument of proxy authorise any person, though not a shareholder of the Company, or any person occupying a particular office from time to time, to act as its representative at meetings, and such representative is, in accordance with his or her authority and until his or her authority is revoked by the corporation which he or she represents, entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he or she represents as that corporation could exercise if it were a natural person who was a shareholder.

13.6 Validity of vote

A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or power of attorney is valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal or revocation of the instrument of proxy or power of attorney or transfer of the shares in respect of which the vote is given, provided no notice in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind, revocation or transfer has been received at the Office before the meeting or any adjourned meeting. A proxy is not revoked by the principal attending and taking part in the meeting, unless the principal actually votes at the meeting on the resolution for which the proxy is proposed to be used.

13.7 Form and execution of instrument of proxy

- (a) An instrument appointing a proxy is required to be in writing signed by the appointer or the attorney of the appointor or, if the appointor is a corporation, under its common seal or signed by a duly authorised officer in the form which the Board may from time to time prescribe to accept (which may include by electronic means). The instrument of proxy is deemed to include the right to demand or join in demanding a poll and (except to the extent to which the proxy is specifically directed to vote for or against any proposal) the power to act generally at the meeting for the person giving the proxy.
- (b) An instrument appointing a proxy, unless the contrary is stated, is valid for any adjournment of the meeting, as well as for the meeting to which it relates. Any duly signed proxy which is incomplete may be completed by the Secretary on authority from the Board and the Board may authorise completion of the proxy by the insertion of the name of any shareholder of the Board as the person in whose favour the proxy is given.

13.8 Board to issue forms of proxy

The Board may issue with any notice of general meeting of the Company or any class of shareholders forms of proxy for use by the shareholders. Each form will make provision for the shareholder to write in the name of the person or persons to be appointed as proxy and may provide that, if the shareholder does not so write in one or more names, the proxy will be one or more persons named on the form. The form may include the names of any of the Directors or of any other persons as suggested proxies. The forms are to be worded so that a proxy may be directed to vote for or against, or abstain from voting on, each or any of the resolutions to be proposed.

13.9 Attorneys of shareholders

Any shareholder may, by duly executed power of attorney, appoint an attorney to act on the shareholder's behalf at all or certain specified meetings of the Company. Before the attorney is entitled to act under the power of attorney, the power of attorney or proof of the power of attorney to the satisfaction of the Board must be produced for inspection at the Office or any other place the Board may determine from time to time together, in each case, with evidence of the due execution of the power of attorney as required by the Board. The attorney may be authorised to appoint a proxy for the shareholder granting the power of attorney.

13.10 Rights of shareholder indebted to Company in respect of other shares

Subject to any restrictions from time to time affecting the right of any shareholder or class of shareholders to attend any meeting, a shareholder holding a share in respect of which for the time being no call is due and payable to the Company is entitled to be present at any general meeting and to vote and be counted in a quorum notwithstanding that any call is then due and payable to the Company by the shareholder in respect of any other share held by the shareholder provided that, on a poll, a shareholder is only entitled to vote in respect of shares held by the shareholder upon which, at the time when the poll is taken, no call is due and payable to the Company.

14. Special Resolution

Without limiting any other provision of this Constitution and without prejudice to any other approval required under the Act, the Company and the Board may not take any action or pass any resolution in respect of the matters set out in Schedule 1 unless that action or resolution has been approved by a special resolution of the shareholders.

15. Directors

15.1 Number and appointment of Directors

- (a) The Directors in office on the date that this Constitution was adopted by the Company continue in office but on the terms and conditions set out in this Constitution.
- (b) The number of Directors (not including alternate Directors) is required to be the number, not being less than 3 nor more than 7, which the Board may from time to time determine provided that the Board may not reduce the number below the number of Directors in office at the time of the reduction. 15.3 Remuneration of Directors

- (a) Subject to rule 15.3(b), the Directors are to be paid out of the funds of the Company, by way of an issue of securities in the Company or by any other elements, as remuneration for their services as Directors, such sum accruing from day to day as the Company in general meeting determines to be divided among them in such proportion and manner as they agree or in default of agreement equally. This rule does not limit the remuneration that may be paid to the Managing Director or Executive Directors under rule 19.
- (b) Subject to rules 19.1 and 19.3, the Directors' remuneration for their services as Directors is by fixed sum and not a commission on or percentage of profits or operating revenue and may not be increased except at a general meeting where particulars of the proposed increase have been given to the shareholders in the notice convening the meeting.

15.4 Remuneration of Directors for extra services

Any Director who devotes special attention to the business of the Company, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the Board are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director, or who at the request of the Board engages in any journey on the business of the Company, may be paid extra remuneration as determined by the Board.

15.5 Travelling and other expenses

Every Director is, in addition to any other remuneration provided for in this Constitution, entitled to be paid from Company funds all reasonable travel, accommodation and other expenses incurred by the Directors in attending meetings of the Company or of the Board or of any Committee or while engaged on the business of the Company.

15.7 Directors may contract with Company

- (a) A Director is not disqualified by the office of Director from contracting or entering into any arrangement with the Company or any other person either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise and no contract or arrangement entered into with the Company or any other person by a Director or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company or any other person in which a Director is in any way interested may be avoided for that reason. A Director is not liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any contract or arrangement, by reason of holding the office of Director or of the fiduciary relationship established by the office.

- (b) Unless otherwise permitted by the Act, no Director may as a Director vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which the Director has directly or indirectly any material interest and if the Director does vote his vote may not be counted nor will the Director be counted in the quorum present at the meeting but either or both of these prohibitions may at any time be relaxed or suspended to any extent by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting.
- (c) A Director who is interested in any contract or arrangement may, notwithstanding the interest, attest the affixing of the Seal, if any, to any document evidencing or otherwise connected with the contract or arrangement.

- (b) A Director may be or become a director of or hold any other office or position under any corporation promoted by the Company, or in which it may be interested, whether as a vendor or shareholder or otherwise, or with any other corporation or organisation, and the Director is not accountable for any benefits received as a director or shareholder of or holder of any other office or position under that corporation or organisation.

15.9 Exercise of voting power in other corporation

The Board may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any corporation held or owned by the Company as the Board thinks fit (including the exercise of the voting power in favour of any resolution appointing the Directors or any of them directors of that corporation or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors of that corporation) and a Director of the Company may vote in favour of the exercise of those voting rights notwithstanding that the Director is, or may be about to be appointed, a director of that other corporation and may be interested in the exercise of those voting rights.

15.10 Directors may lend to the Company

Any Director may lend to the Company at interest with or without security or may, for a commission or profit, guarantee the repayment of any money borrowed by the Company and underwrite or guarantee the subscription of shares or securities of the Company or of any corporation in which the Company may be interested without being disqualified in respect of the office of Director and without being liable to account to the Company for the commission or profit.

16. Alternate Directors

16.1 Director may appoint alternate Director

Subject to this Constitution, each Director has power from time to time to appoint any person to act as an alternate Director in the Director's place, whether for a stated period or periods or until the happening of a specified event or from time to time, whenever by absence or illness or otherwise the Director is unable to attend to duties as a Director. The Director must first seek and obtain the consent of the Board to the appointment, which consent is not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The appointment is to be in writing and signed by the Director and a copy of the appointment is to be given by the appointing Director to the Company by forwarding or delivering it to the Office. The appointment takes effect immediately upon receipt of the appointment at the Office. The following provisions apply to an alternate Director:

- (d) the alternate Director is not, unless the Board otherwise determines (without prejudice to the right to reimbursement for expenses pursuant to rule 15.5) entitled to receive any remuneration as a Director from the Company, and any remuneration (not including remuneration authorised by the Board or reimbursement for expenses) paid to the alternate Director by the Company is to be deducted from the reimbursement of the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed;
- (e) the office of the alternate Director is vacated upon the vacation of office by the Director, or by written resignation being given to the Company by the Director, by whom the alternate Director was appointed;
- (f) the alternate Director is not to be taken into account in determining the number of Directors or rotation of Directors; and

 - (vii) upon the Director being prohibited from being a Director by reason of the operation of the Act.
- (b) A Director who vacates office pursuant to rule 17.1 is not to be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at any annual general meeting.

17.2 Directors who are employees of the Company

The office of a Director who is an employee of the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries becomes vacant upon the Director ceasing to be employed (so that he or she is no longer employed by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company) but the person concerned is eligible for reappointment or re-election as a Director of the Company.

18. Election of Directors

18.1 Retirement of Directors

- (a) This rule 18 does not apply to the managing director of the Company, or if more than one, the managing director of the Company determined by the Directors.

Otherwise, the person who has been a Director the longest without re-election must retire and stand for re-election. As between Directors who were elected on the same day the Director to retire are (in default of agreement between them) determined by ballot. The length of time a Director has been in office is calculated from the Director's last election or appointment.

18.2 Retiring Directors

18.3 Nomination of Directors

The Board may confer upon a Managing Director any of the powers exercisable under this Constitution by the Board as it thinks fit and upon any conditions it thinks expedient but the conferring of powers by the Board upon a Managing Director does not exclude the exercise of those powers by the Board.

19.2 Managing Director not to be subject to retirement by rotation

A Managing Director is not subject to retirement as a Director by rotation while continuing to hold the office of Director and is not to be taken into account in determining the rotation or retirement of Directors or the number of Directors to retire, but is subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company. A Managing Director ceases to be a Managing Director if the Managing Director ceases to hold office as a Director.

19.3 Appointment of Executive Directors

The Board may meet together, upon each Director being given reasonable notice, for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. Until otherwise determined by the Board, 3 Directors form a quorum. 20.2 Meetings by telephone or other means of communication

While the Directors may regulate their meetings as they think fit, a meeting of Directors or committee of Directors may be held where one or more of the Directors is not physically present at the meeting, where:

- (a) all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other instantaneously whether by telephone or other form of communication;
- (b) notice of the meeting is given to all Directors entitled to notice according to the usual procedures determined by the Directors for the giving of notice and such notice does not specify that Directors are required to be present in person;
- (c) if a failure in communications prevents rule 20.2(a) from being satisfied as a result of which one or more Directors cease to participate, the Chair may adjourn the meeting until the difficulty is remedied or may, where a quorum of Directors remains present, continue with the meeting. If, as a result of the technical difficulty, a quorum of Directors is not present, then the meeting is suspended until rule 20.2(a) is satisfied again. If rule 20.2(a) is not satisfied within 15 minutes from the time the meeting was interrupted, the meeting is deemed to have terminated;

- (d) a Director participating in a meeting by technology is to be taken to be present in person at the meeting and to have consented to the holding of the meeting by the use of the relevant technology; and
- (e) any meeting held where any Director is not physically present is treated as held at the place specified in the notice of meeting as long as at least a Director is present there for the duration of the meeting. If no Director is so present, the meeting is treated as held at the place where the Chair of the meeting is located, and all the provisions in this Constitution relating to meetings of the Directors apply, so far as they can and with such changes as are necessary, to meetings of the Directors by technology.

If no Chair or deputy Chair is elected or if at any meeting, the Chair and the deputy Chair are not present at the time specified for holding the meeting (or, if being present, the relevant Directors refuse to act as Chair or deputy Chair), the Directors present may choose one of their number to be Chair of the meeting.

A delegate of the Board may be authorised to sub delegate any of the powers for the time being vested in the delegate.

20.8 Proceedings of Committees

The meetings and proceedings of any Committee are to be governed by the provisions of this Constitution for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as they are applicable and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Board under rule 20.7.

20.9 Validity of acts

- (a) All acts done at any meeting of the Board or by a Committee or by any person acting as a Director are, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any of the Directors or the Committee or the person acting as a Director or that any of them were disqualified, as valid as if every person had been duly appointed and was qualified and continued to be a Director or a shareholder of the Committee (as the case may be).
- (b) If the number of Directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed pursuant to this Constitution, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number or of calling a general meeting of the Company but for no other purpose.

20.10 Resolution in writing

A resolution in writing of which notice has been given to all Directors and which is signed by all of the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly called and constituted and may consist of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more of the Directors. For the purposes of this rule the references to Directors include any alternate Director for the time being present in Australia who is appointed by a Director not for the time being present in Australia but do not include any other alternate Director. A facsimile transmission or other document produced by mechanical or electronic means under the name of a Director with the Director's authority is deemed to be a document in writing signed by the Director.

21.4 Power to authorise debenture holders to make calls

Without limiting the generality of rule 21.1, if any uncalled capital of the Company is included in or charged by any debenture, mortgage or other security, the Board may, by instrument under the Seal, or other appropriate instrument, authorise the person in whose favour the debenture, mortgage or other security is executed or any other person in trust for him to make calls on the shareholders in respect of that uncalled capital and to sue in the name of the Company or otherwise for the recovery of moneys becoming due in respect of calls made and to give valid receipts for those moneys, and the authority subsists during the continuance of the debenture, mortgage or other security, notwithstanding any change in the Directors, and is assignable if expressed to be.

21.5 Power to issue securities

Any bonds, debentures or other securities may be issued with or without the right of or obligation on the holder thereof to exchange the same in whole or in part of shares in the Company at a certain or uncertain time or with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors and otherwise and generally with such rights and options and upon such conditions in all respects as the Board thinks fit.

21.6 Personal liability of officer

If the Board or any shareholder thereof or any officer of the Company becomes personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Board may execute or cause to be executed any charge or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the persons or person so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.

21.7 Disposal of main undertaking

Any sale or disposal of the Company's main undertaking is conditional upon approval or ratification by the Company in general meeting. No person who may benefit (other than as a holder of securities issued by the Company) from the sale or disposal, and no associate of such person, may vote on any resolution to approve or ratify the sale or disposal.

22. Branch register

The Company may have a Seal.

23.2 Affixing the Seal

If the Company has a Seal, the Board is to provide for its safety and it should only be used by the authority of the Board. Every instrument to which the Seal is affixed is to be signed by a Director and countersigned by the Secretary or by a second Director or by another person appointed by the Board for the purpose. The Board may determine either generally or in any particular case that a signature may be affixed by a mechanical means specified in the determination.

23.3 Execution of documents without a Seal

The Company may execute a document, including a deed, by having the document signed by:

- (a) 2 Directors; or
- (b) a Director and the Secretary; and if the Company executes a deed, the document is to be expressed as a deed and be executed in accordance with the appropriate procedures set out in rule 23.2 or this rule.

23.4 Other ways of executing documents

Notwithstanding rules 23.2 and 23.3, any document, including a deed, may also be executed by the Company in any other manner permitted by law.

23.5 Execution of negotiable instruments

All cheques, bills of exchange and promissory notes are to be signed, drawn, made, accepted or endorsed (as the case may be) for and on behalf of the Company by 2 Directors, or by one Director and the Secretary or some other officer authorised by the Board, or in such other manner as the Board may from time to time determine.

24. Minutes

The Board must ensure that minutes are duly recorded in any manner it thinks fit:

- (a) of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Board and of any Committees; and
- (b) of all resolutions and proceedings of general meetings of the Company and of meetings of the Board and any Committees, and the minutes of any meeting of the Board or any Committee or of the Company, if purporting to be signed by the Chair of the meeting or by the Chair of the next succeeding meeting, are prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the minutes.

25. Dividends and reserves

25.1 Payment of dividend

- (a) Subject to the Act, this Constitution and the terms of issue or rights of any shares with special rights to dividends, the Board may from time to time determine or declare that a dividend is payable, fix the amount and the time for payment and authorise the payment or crediting by the Company to, or at the direction of, each shareholder entitled to that dividend. The Board may rescind or alter any such determination or declaration before payment is made.
- (b) The Company must not remove or change a shareholder's right to receive dividends unless this is done in accordance with the Act.

25.2 No Interest on Dividends

No interest is payable by the Company on a dividend.

25.3 Calculation and apportionment of dividends

- (a) Subject to the rights of any persons entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends and to the terms of issue of any shares to the contrary, all sums that the Company determines are to be distributed among the shareholders as dividends are divisible among the shareholders so that, on each occasion on which a dividend is paid:
 - (i) the same sum is paid on each fully paid share; and
 - (ii) the sum paid on a share on which all amounts payable have not been paid is the proportion of the sum referred to in rule 25.3(a)(i) that the amount paid on the share bears to the total of the amounts paid and payable on the share.
- (b) To determine the amount paid on a share, exclude any amount:
 - (i) paid or credited as paid in advance of a call; and
 - (ii) credited as paid on a share to the extent that it exceeds the value (ascertained at the time of issue of the share) of the consideration received for the issue of the share.
- (c) All dividends are to be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period for which the dividend is paid, but, if any share is issued on terms providing that it will rank for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.

25.4 Deductions from dividends

The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to, or at the direction of, a shareholder any sums presently payable by that shareholder to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to shares in the Company.

25.5 Distribution otherwise than in cash

When resolving to pay a dividend or to return capital by a reduction of capital, a buy-back or otherwise, the Board may:

- (a) direct payment of the dividend be satisfied wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets or documents of title to some or all of the persons entitled to the dividend or return of capital, including paid up shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or any other body corporate or trust;
- (b) direct that the dividend or return of capital payable in respect of any particular shares be satisfied wholly or in part by such distribution, and that the dividend or return of capital payable in respect of other shares be paid in cash; and
- (c) if the Company in a general meeting has approved the adoption of a dividend plan, determine and announce that each shareholder entitled to participate in the dividend may elect that the payment of the dividend be satisfied in respect of all, or a number of shares less than all of the shares held by the shareholder by the allotment of paid up shares in accordance with the dividend plan.

25.6 Ancillary powers regarding distributions

- (a) In relation to any decision to pay a dividend or to return capital by a reduction of capital, buy-back or otherwise, the Board may:
 - (i) settle any difficulty that arises in making the distribution as they think expedient and in particular:
 - (A) make cash payments in cases where shareholders are entitled to fractions of shares, debentures or other securities;
 - (B) decide that amounts or fractions of less than a particular value decided by the Directors may be disregarded in order to adjust the rights of all parties by withholding assets, cash, shares, debentures or other securities where the Company is required to make a payment in respect of the shareholder to a government or taxing authority in relation to the distribution or issue;
 - (C) decide to make distributions by disregarding transfers of shares or aggregating parcels of shares where they form the opinion that shareholders have been split or aggregated to obtain the benefit of rounding on fractions of shares; and
 - (D) for an electronic transfer, if no account is nominated, or payment is rejected or refunded, the Company may credit the amount to an account of the Company until the shareholder nominates a valid account, or the amount is otherwise dealt with under rule 25.18;
 - (ii) fix the value for distribution of any specific assets;
 - (iii) pay cash or issue shares, debentures or other securities to any shareholder in order to adjust the rights of all parties;
 - (iv) vest any of those specific assets, cash, shares, debentures or other securities in a trustee or nominee on trust for the persons entitled to the distribution or capitalised amount, on any terms that seem expedient to the Directors; and
 - (v) authorise any person to make, on behalf of the shareholders, or a particular shareholder, entitled to any specific assets, cash, shares, debentures or other securities as a result of the decision, an agreement (including in writing) with the Company or another person which provides, as appropriate, for the distribution or issue to them of the assets, cash, shares, debentures or other securities and by applying to them their respective proportions of the amount resolved to be distributed.

- (b) Any agreement made under an authority referred to in rule 25.6(a)(v) is effective and binds all shareholders concerned.
- (c) Instead of making a distribution of specific assets, shares, debentures or other securities to a particular shareholder, the Board may make a cash payment to that shareholder or allocate some or all of the assets, shares, debentures or other securities to a trustee to be sold on behalf of, and for the benefit of, that shareholder if:
 - (i) the distribution or issue would otherwise be illegal or unlawful;
 - (ii) in the Directors' discretion, the distribution or issue would, for any reason, be impracticable; or
 - (iii) the shareholder so agrees.
- (d) If the Company distributed to shareholders (either generally or to specific shareholders) shares, debentures or other securities of the Company or another body corporate or trust (whether as a dividend or return of capital or otherwise and whether or not for value), each of those shareholders appoints the Company, and any officer of the Company nominated on their behalf by the Directors, as his or her agent or attorney to do anything needed or desirable to give effect, or assist in giving effect, to that distribution, including agreeing to become a member, holder of shares, holder of debentures or holder of securities of the Company or that other body corporate or trust.

25.7 Payments in respect of shares

Payment of any dividend, interest or other money payable in cash in respect of shares may be made in any manner and by any means as determined by the Board, including:

- (a) by any means of direct credit or other means determined by the Directors to an account (of a type approved by Directors) as provided in writing by the holder or holders shown on the Register; or
- (b) by cheque sent through the post directed to the shareholder's Registered Address or, in the case of joint holders, to the Registered Address of the joint holder first named on the Register or to such other address as the holder or joint holder directs in writing.

Payment of money is at the risk of the shareholder or shareholders to whom it is sent.

25.8 Effectual receipt from one joint holder

Any one of 2 or more joint holders may give effectual receipt for any dividend, interest or other money payable in respect of the shares held by them as joint holders.

25.9 Dividend plans

- (a) The Board may establish and maintain one or more dividend plans (including the establishment of rules) pursuant to which shareholders may elect with respect to some or all of their shares (subject to the rules of the relevant plan):
 - (i) to reinvest in whole or in part dividends paid or payable or which may become payable by the Company to the shareholder in cash by subscribing for shares in the capital of the Company;
 - (ii) to receive a dividend from the Company by way of allotment of shares paid up from such account or reserves from which shares may be issued under the Act;
 - (iii) that dividends from the Company not be paid and that instead a payment or distribution other than a dividend be made by the Company;
 - (iv) that cash dividends from the Company not be paid and that instead a cash dividend be received from a related corporation nominated by the Board;
 - (v) to participate in a dividend plan, including but not limited to a plan pursuant to which shareholders may elect to receive a dividend from the Company or any related corporation which is less in amount but franked to a greater extent than the ordinary cash dividend that would be payable by the Company or any related corporation or to receive a dividend from the Company or any related corporation which is greater in amount but franked to a lesser extent than the ordinary cash dividend that would be payable by the Company or any related corporation.
- (b) Pursuant to a dividend plan established in accordance with rule 25.9(a), any shareholder may elect for a specified period or for a period to be determined by specified notice (in either case determined by the Directors and prescribed in the rules of the plan) that all or some of the ordinary shares held by that shareholder and designated by the shareholder in accordance with the rules of the plan (designated shares) will participate in the dividend plan. During that period the designated shares will be entitled to participate in the dividend plan subject to the rules of the dividend plans.
- (c) In the event of any inconsistency between any dividend plan established in accordance with rule 25.9(a) or rules of any dividend plan and this Constitution, this Constitution will prevail.

- (b) may, but need not, resolve to apply the sum in any of the ways mentioned in rule 25.12, for the benefit of shareholders in the proportions to which those shareholders would have been entitled in a distribution of that sum by way of a dividend or in accordance with either the terms of issue of any share or the terms of any plan for the issue of securities for the benefit of officers or employees.

25.12 Applying a sum for the benefit of shareholders

The ways in which a sum may be applied for the benefit of shareholders under rule 25.11 are:

The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

26.7 Service on deceased shareholders

A notice delivered or sent by post to the Registered Address of a shareholder pursuant to this Constitution is (notwithstanding that the shareholder is then dead and whether or not the Company has notice of the shareholder's death) deemed to have been duly served in respect of any registered shares, whether held solely or jointly with other persons by the shareholder, until some other person is registered in the shareholder's place as the holder or joint holder and the service is for all purposes deemed to be sufficient service of the notice or document on the shareholder's heirs, executors or administrators and all persons (if any) jointly interested with the shareholder in the shares.

- (a) the surplus assets must be applied first in repayment of the capital paid up on all shares that are not at the commencement of the winding up Restricted Securities and so that, if the surplus assets are insufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up on those shares, the losses are borne by the holders of those shares, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on such of those shares as are held by them respectively; and
- (b) the remainder (if any) of the surplus assets must be applied in repayment of the capital paid up on all shares that are, at the commencement of the winding up, Restricted Securities and so that the losses are borne by the holders of those shares, as nearly as may be, in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on such of those shares as are held by them respectively.

- 27.2 With effect on and from the date specified by the conditions of issue of a Restricted Security, that Restricted Security is, by force of this rule 27, classified as an ordinary share ranking pari passu in all respects with and forming one class with the then issued ordinary shares in the capital of the Company.
- 27.3 If in a winding up the assets available for distribution among shareholders as such are more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess must be distributed among the shareholders in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively.

Schedule 2 Transfer of Shares

1. PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS FOR MAJOR MEMBERS TRANSFERRING SHARES

1.1 Condition on transfer of shares

- (a) Shares may be transferred by a Major Member (Transferring Member) only if they are first offered for sale to each other Major Member (Other Major Members) in accordance with the procedure set out in clause 1 of this Schedule. As far as practicable, the number of shares offered to each Other Major Member must be in proportion to the number of shares that they already hold when measured against all Other Major Members (Equity Share). The sale or transfer of the relevant shares may then (after application of this clause 1) be made to any person subject to Members electing to exercise their Tag Along Rights under clause 2 of this Schedule (if applicable).
- (b) The holder of the shares (Offeror) must notify the Company in writing (Transfer Notice) of the total number and class of shares the Offeror wishes to transfer (Transfer Shares), the price per share that the Offeror wishes to transfer the shares for (Transfer Price), and any other terms of the offer, which must be consistent with this clause 1. The giving of a Transfer Notice shall constitute an offer (Offer) by the Transferring Member to sell the Transfer Shares to each Other Major Member in proportion to their Equity Share at the Transfer Price (Allocated Transfer Shares).
- (c) The Major Members may by either:
- (i) ordinary resolution of the Major Members; or
 - (ii) a document signed by the Major Members who collectively hold more than 50% of all shares held by the Major Members,
- consent to the Offeror transferring its shares to any person, without complying with the procedure set out in this clause 1.
- (d) The Directors may refuse to register a transfer of shares under this clause 1.1 if:
- (i) the Transferring Member has money owing to the Company on any account whatsoever; and
 - (ii) the transfer would result in the Company having to provide a disclosure document under the Act.
- (e) This clause 1 is subject to clause 3(b) of this Schedule.

1.2 Authority to act

- (a) On receipt of the Transfer Notice, the Company will be deemed to be appointed the agent of the Offeror and authorised to offer the shares for sale and to transfer them to the Other Major Members, and to do all acts and execute all documents on behalf of the Offeror to complete the sale and transfer of the shares, in accordance with this clause 1.

- (b) The Company's authority to act and execute documents on behalf of the Offeror will be irrevocable and the Company must act promptly, on behalf of the Offeror, to comply with the requirements of this clause 1.

1.3 Offer Procedure

- (a) As soon as practicable after receipt of the Transfer Notice, the Company must offer the shares for sale to each Other Major Member at the Transfer Price stipulated in the Transfer Notice. A separate written offer must be made to each Other Major Member for each class of shares to be offered for sale.
- (b) The offers to Other Major Members must remain open for acceptance for a period of 20 business days from the date on which the offer is received by the Other Major Members (Offer Period). The terms of each offer for the sale of shares of the same class must be the same.
- (c) The offer made to each Other Major Member (Offer Notice) must include the total number and class of shares offered for sale, Transfer Price, Offer Period, and all other terms of intended transfer specified in the Transfer Notice. The Company must send a copy of the Offer Notice to the Offeror, on or about the same day as it is sent to Other Major Members.
- (d) Each Other Major Member may accept the Offer for all or some of the Transfer Shares offered to it by giving the Company written notice of acceptance for the relevant number of Transfer Shares on or before the last day of the Offer Period (Accepting Members). An Accepting Member may also state in its notice of acceptance whether or not it wants to buy more Transfer Shares than the number allocated to it in its Transfer Notice and if so, the number of additional Transfer Shares it wishes to buy (Additional Transfer Shares).
- (e) If any Other Major Member fails to notify the Transferring Member by the end of the Offer Period whether it wishes to accept or reject the Offer, that Other Major Member will be deemed to have rejected the Offer in full.

1.4 Acceptance Procedure

- (a) Each Other Major Member may accept the offer to purchase all or some of the Transfer Shares (up to the total number of the Transfer Shares), by giving the Company written notice of acceptance specifying the relevant number of shares it wishes to purchase on or before the last day of the Offer Period, and such acceptance will be irrevocable.
- (b) If the acceptances of the Offer (including the total Allocated Transfer Shares and Additional Transfer Shares each Accepting Member offered to purchase) are less than or equal to the total number of Transfer Shares offered then the Company will allocate to each Accepting Member the Allocated Transfer Shares and Additional Transfer Shares which they elected to purchase.
- (c) If the acceptances of the Offer exceed the total number of Transfer Shares, the Company must:

- (i) first allocate to each Accepting Member the lower of:
 - (A) their Allocated Transfer Shares; or
 - (B) the number of Transfer Shares which they offered to purchase; and
- (ii) then allocate any remaining Transfer Shares to Accepting Members who offered to purchase Additional Transfer Shares as follows:
 - (A) firstly, such Accepting Members will be allocated the lower of:
 - A. the Additional Transfer Shares which they offered to purchase; or
 - B. a proportion of the total Additional Transfer Shares which all Accepting Members offered to purchase, with such proportion to be measured by taking the number of shares they hold in the Company, and dividing that number by all shares held by all Accepting Members who are yet to have their total requested allocation of Additional Transfer Shares fulfilled; and
 - (B) secondly, if any Transfer Shares still remain unallocated after the application of paragraph 1.4(c)(ii)(A) above, repeating the process in that paragraph until such time as all Transfer Shares are allocated, or the Board considers, after applying paragraph 1.4(c)(ii)(A) above, that they are no longer mathematically or practically capable of allocation.
- (d) If any calculation in this clause 1 results in an Accepting Member being allocated a fraction of a Transfer Share, then the Board may settle the manner in which fractions of a share are to be dealt with as the Board deems appropriate and necessary to adjust the rights of the shareholders among themselves.
- (e) The Company must within 5 business days from the end of the Offer Period notify each Other Major Member and the Offeror in writing (Sale Notice) of details of:
 - (i) the acceptances received from each Other Major Member (each an Accepting Member);
 - (ii) any allocation of shares in accordance with clauses 1.4(b) and 1.4(c) of this Schedule; and
 - (iii) the number of shares sold to each Other Major Member and the aggregate sale price payable for those shares.
- (f) Following the receipt of Sale Notice, if all the Transfer Shares have not been sold to Other Major Members, then the Offeror may, within 5 business days of the Company's notice, provide written notice to the Company cancelling the proposed transfer and thereby revoking all offers to Other Major Members, following which the Offeror may not then transfer its shares without again complying with this clause 1.

1.5 Completion

- (a) If the transfer proceeds, then completion of the sale will take place within 10 business days following the expiry of the period described in clause 1.4(e) of this Schedule. At completion:
 - (i) each Accepting Member must buy and pay for the shares which have been allocated to it by the Company;
 - (ii) each Accepting Member must make an electronic funds transfer to the Offeror for the purchase price; and
 - (iii) the Offeror must sell those shares accordingly, free from all encumbrances, and deliver to each Accepting Member certificates for the shares bought by that Accepting Member together with instruments of transfer in registrable form (save for the payment of any applicable stamp duty) of those shares in favour of each Accepting Member duly executed by the Offeror.
- (b) If the Offeror fails to deliver the certificate for shares or a duly executed and completed transfer, any director of the Company may execute the transfer on behalf of the Offeror and this transfer may be registered (subject to the payment of any applicable stamp duty) despite the certificate for the shares not having been delivered.
- (c) Completion will be deemed to have occurred, and the Company will (subject to any restrictions set out in the Constitution) register the transfer of shares, upon the completion of all acts required at completion as described in this clause 1.5.
- (d) The title of any person whose shares are acquired in accordance with the foregoing procedures will not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale or transfer of those shares.

1.6 Sale of shares not purchased by Other Major Members pursuant to their pre-emptive rights

If, after the application of clause 1.5 of this Schedule, any of the Transfer Shares remain unsold the Offeror may offer for sale, sell and transfer all (but not less than all) of the unsold Transfer Shares to any person on the following conditions:

- (a) if the sale of the Transfer Shares may give rise to the Members being entitled to exercise Tag Along Rights under clause 2 of this Schedule (Tagging Members), then the Offeror must:
 - (i) provide written notice to all Tagging Members and the Company once an agreement is signed for the sale of its shares to a third party; and
 - (ii) provide a copy of that agreement together with its notice and advise the Tagging Members they may, to the extent applicable, be able to exercise their Tag Along Rights;
- (b) the sale of the remainder Transfer Shares will be subject to the exercise of a shareholder's Tag Along Rights (to the extent applicable);
- (c) the price per share at which the remainder Transfer Shares are sold must not be less than the Transfer Price (at which the shares were offered to Other Major Members) and the shares must otherwise be sold on substantially the same terms as those that were offered to the Other Major Members; and

- (d) the completion of the sale of shares must take place within 180 days from the end of the expiry of the Offer Period but not before the expiry of Tag Along Rights under clause 2 of this Schedule.

2. TAG ALONG RIGHTS

2.1 Condition on transfer of shares

- (a) If a person offers to buy any shares (Potential Purchaser) from one or more shareholders (Participating Members) as part of one transaction, or as part of a series of related transactions, and after purchasing those shares the Potential Purchaser (on its own or together with one or more Associates, as defined in the Act) would hold at least 75% but less than 100% of the total issued share capital of the Company, then any one or more of the shareholders who did not receive an offer from the Potential Purchaser to purchase their shares (Non-Participating Members) will have the rights set out in this clause 2 (Tag Along Rights).
- (b) The Company must provide written notice to all shareholders identifying the Potential Purchaser and specifying the terms of the sale from the Participating Members to the Potential Purchaser (Tag Along Transaction). Such notice must be given:
 - (i) within 7 business days of Participating Members receiving an offer to purchase from the Potential Purchaser.
 - (ii) if the Tag Along Transaction is subject to pre-emptive rights under clause 1 of this Schedule, then at the same time the Company provides written Transfer Notice to the Offeror; or
 - (iii) otherwise, as soon as practicable following the Company becoming aware of a Tag Along Transaction occurring or about to occur.

2.2 Tag Along Rights Procedure

- (a) Each Non-Participating Member may give written notice to the Participating Members (Tag Along Notice) of its wish to also sell its shares to the Potential Purchaser in accordance with this clause 2. The Tag Along Notice must specify the number of shares which the Non-Participating Member wishes to sell (Tag Along Shares), which must be all shares held by the Non-Participating Member. The Tag Along Notice, to be valid, must be given no later than 10 business days after the Non-Participating Member receives the Company's notice under clause 2.1(b) of this Schedule.
- (b) If a Non-Participating Member gives a Tag Along Notice (each a Tag Along Member) to the Participating Members, the Participating Members must not sell any of their shares to the Potential Purchaser unless, contemporaneously with the sale of the Participating Members' shares, each Tag Along Member sells their Tag Along Shares to the Potential Purchaser.
- (c) Each Tag Along Member's Tag Along Shares will then be sold on the same terms (including price) as proposed in the Tag Along Transaction. Completion of this sale will take place at the same time, at the same place and on the same terms as proposed in the Tag Along Transaction.

- (d) The Participating Members will be responsible for the Potential Purchaser's compliance with this clause 2 if the Potential Purchaser is not yet a shareholder as at the last date that a Tag Along Notice is given.
- (e) Completion of the Tag Along Transaction must not occur until such time as the shareholders have been provided the opportunity to exercise their Tag Along Rights.

3. DRAG ALONG OBLIGATIONS

- (a) If a Potential Purchaser offers to buy all of the shares and other securities on issue in the Company on arms-length terms (Drag Along Transaction) and the terms of the Drag Along Transaction (Drag Along Transaction Terms) are approved by a special resolution of the Board and also by a special resolution of shareholders, then all shareholders agree that the following shall apply to them (together the Drag Along Obligations):
 - (i) they will be bound as a shareholder of the Company to the Drag Along Transaction Terms;
 - (ii) they will sell all of their shares and other securities in the Company to the Potential Purchaser on the terms of the Drag Along Transaction Terms; and
 - (iii) they shall do all things reasonably necessary to ensure the completion of the Drag Along Transaction, in accordance with the Drag Along Transaction Terms, including executing any and all agreements, deeds, instruments, Resolutions, approvals or ancillary documents required by the Drag Along Transaction Terms.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, shares and securities in the Company may be sold under this clause 3 without those shares or other securities being first offered to Other Major Members in accordance with clause 1 of this Schedule.

4. TAKEOVER PROVISIONS

All transfers, disposals or other dealings of shares in the Company are subject to the provisions of Chapter 6 of the Act.
