He said that approaching the 1300m when following HEATER, he observed that runner receiving interference and therefore he elected to steady to avoid racing close to its heels, which resulted in WAQIF settling at the rear of the field in a race that was run at a fast tempo. He said that when the colt commenced to close off strongly approaching the 300m, he did not observe a run slightly to his outside between LIGHTNING LEO and WHITE CHRISTMAS. He said that as there were several runners in advance of him he elected to seek runs to the inside of LIGHTNING LEO and in the process, he became held up on the heels of LIGHTNING LEO for a short distance before finally shifting in, whereby SILVER SPIRIT run on well. Apprentice Salman Fahad Al-Hajri was advised he had erred in not obtaining a run outside of LIGHTNING LEO near the 300m when it was available to him and then he remained too long on the heels of LIGHTNING LEO.
