Race 1: PUREBRED ARABIAN MAIDEN PLATE (3yo only) (Class 6) 1600m

General:

Horse No	Colours	Horse	Jockey	Incident
1		AJS KABUL (FR)	Alberto Sanna	Near the 1400m DEAUVILLE commenced to race fiercely and after racing close to the heels of THAKHEERA, shifted out and bumped AJS KABUL. AJS KABUL, then raced keenly through the early and middle stages.
2		DEAUVILLE (QA)	Muanis Al Siyabi	Raced keenly through the early and middle stages and bumped another runner near the 1400m. Hung in for the majority of the straight.
3		DUKHAN ALSEEJ (QA)	Anas Al Seyabi	Slow to begin. Became unbalanced near the 300m.
4		OSTORA ZAKHIR (QA)	Jefferson Smith	Near the 300m was bumped heavily and became unbalanced by DUKHAN ALSEEJ, which after shifting to the outside of AJS KABUL became unbalanced and shifted out further. In the circumstances no action was taken other than to remind Jockey Anas Al Seyabi of his responsibility and to do his utmost to prevent causing interference. Stewards were mindful that DUKHAN ALSEEJ racing inexperience contributed significantly to the incident.
5		THAKHEERA (QA)	Saleh Faraj Al-Otaibi* (-4kg)	At the 800m became unbalanced after being bumped by DEAUVILLE, which shifted in momentarily.

Race 2: LOCAL PUREBRED ARABIAN MAIDEN PLATE (Class 6) 1600m

6		IRTIQAA (QA)	Louis Nomis* (-2.5kg)	When questioned rider explained that he was asked to lead if possible, or alternatively if the tempo was fast, it would be acceptable for him to obtain a trailing position, off pace. He said that it was explained to him that the mare had been successful over the course and distance on the

Horse No	Colours	Horse	Jockey	Incident
				24th March 2022 when able to lead at a fast tempo, and having regard to this win, he allowed IRTIQAA to travel at a fast tempo in the initial stages. He said however throughout the early and middle stages his mount was continually pressured by TOYOTA, which was racing directly to his outside. He said that consequently IRTIQAA commenced to tire rapidly from the 600m. He added that in retrospect he should have allowed TOYOTA to attain the outright lead and attempt to travel at more even tempo. Stewards advised Apprentice Louis Nomis that although IRTIQAA had won on the 24th of March 2022 the mare had on that occasion benefited from an uncontested lead and the circumstances were vastly different tonight. He was told that that he had ridden ill-judged race during the relevant sections and that he must ensure he provides his mounts with a more sustainable pace in future.
7		MUTAMARRID (QA)	Alberto Sanna	Rider expressed concern regarding the action of MUTAMARRID following the race. A subsequent veterinary examination revealed no apparent abnormalities.
8		QAWAAFI (QA)	Faleh Bughanaim	No report.
9		AL KHOR SURPRISE (QA)	Maxim Bozzio* (-4kg)	No report.
10		TOYOTA (QA)	Salman Fahad Al-Hajri* (-4kg)	When questioned Apprentice Salman Fahad Al-Hajri explained that he had been asked to lead as the gelding had been ridden in a similar manner on 24th of April 2023, when it was successful over the course and distance. He said that as he believed his instructions were specific he challenged for the lead with IRTIQAA throughout the early and middle stages being aware he was traveling at a fast tempo. Apprentice Salman Fahad Al-Hajri was advised that had ridden ill-judged race during the relevant stages and that in future he has an obligation to afford his mounts with a more sustainable tempo so they able to finish off their races as best as they are able. Further he was told that he must adapt to the change in the circumstances of the race and use his initiative, irrespective of his instructions.

General:

Horse No	Colours	Horse	Jockey	Incident
1		AL KHARAITIYAT (FR)	Tomas Lukasek	Lost ground at the start after being bumped by ZOLTAN STAR, which shifted in slightly. Rider attributed that disappointing performance to his mount having raced wide and without cover from the 1100m. He said that from a wide barrier he was unable to secure a position close to the running rail due to the composition of the field and consequently AL KHARAITIYAT was obliged to cover substantial ground. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no apparent abnormalities.
2		ON THE LINE (IRE)	Anas Al Seyabi	No report.
